 00:08:31

▶ He said it's close.

▶ We also didn't get any indication around the time frames for the movement of this new legislation, but this government is trying to do what the last government did and that's build broad support for what is coming.

⏮ As standards commissioner Dr Melissa McCullough dealt with dozens of complaints against MLAs and ministers but at times she was left frustrated as she couldn't hold politicians to her kind for their action to outside storm and that she said needs to change.

作为标准专员，梅丽莎·麦卡洛博士处理了数十起针对 MLA 和部长的投诉，但有时她感到沮丧，因为她无法让政客们为他们在斯托蒙特之外的行为负责，她说这需要改变。

⏮ I still think there are times that the commissioner needs a way to find when they bring this assembly and when there's occasions when the action complained of brings the assembly into disrepute regardless of whether they were acting as a member or not.

我仍然认为，有时专员需要一种方法，当他们的行为使议会蒙羞时，无论他们是否以议员身份行事，只要被投诉的行为使议会蒙羞，专员就应该有权处理。

bilibili 00:15:16

⏮ I do believe that should be inside the code so that the commissioner never feels like her hands are tied behind her back.

我确实相信这应该被纳入行为准则，这样专员就永远不会感到束手无策。

⏮ Have there been incidents sent over the course of the past five years where you felt that you in a sense couldn't do your job because the road didn't allow it?
