根据首相明日即将宣布的计划，英国每位成年人都需持有政府颁发的新型数字身份证，以证明其居住及工作资格。

 00:01:35

 The move is part of efforts to crack down on illegal migrants.

此举是打击非法移民行动的一部分。

 Most European countries require their citizens to hold ID cards, but the UK has long resisted with concerns over civil rights and privacy issues.

多数欧洲国家要求公民持有身份证，但英国长期对此抵制，主要出于对公民权利和#隐私#问题的担忧。

 But that looks set to change.

但这一现状即将改变。

 Here's our political correspondent Ian Watson.

以下是我台政治#记者#伊恩·沃森的发回的报道。

 ID cards are not a new idea.

身份证并非新概念。

 00:01:54

 They were compulsory during the war and not abolished until 1952.

二战期间曾实行#强制性#身份证制度，直至1952年才废除。

 The idea was revived in 2005 by 20 bears government.

2005年，20 bears政府重启该方案。

 The then home secretary was seeing how these biometric cards would work.

时任内政大臣曾研究这种生物识别卡的实施方式。

 They were supposed to tackle illegal working and establish entitlement to public services for the scheme faced technical challenges and political opposition and hadn't been implemented by the time of the 2010 election when the conservative Lib Dem coalition scrapped them.

该计划本欲解决非法务工问题并确立公共服务资格，但因技术挑战和政治反对未能落地，直到2010年大选后保守党-自民党联盟将其废除。

 00:02:21

 And now the idea has been revived under this Labour government.

如今工党政府再次重启该构想。

 Ministers have been looking at a digital ID scheme in Estonia, in Eastern Europe, which is used to access public services.

大臣们一直在研究东欧爱沙尼亚的数字身份证方案，该方案用于接入公共服务。

 And they believe that attitudes towards ID cards have softened as concerns about illegal immigration have risen.

他们认为随着对非法#移民#问题的担忧加剧，公众对身份证的态度已有所缓和。

 The government's direction of travel has been clear for some time.

政府的改革方向早已明确。

 00:02:42

 Earlier this month, Kirstaarmour told the BBC why he thought they were a good idea.

本月早些时候，基尔斯塔默向BBC解释了他认为此举有益的原因。

 I'm determined to stop people making that crossing across the channel and to get people out of our hotels.

我决心阻止英吉利海峡偷渡#过境#行为，并让非法移民搬离我们的酒店。

 And therefore I am looking at ID cards, or ID, digital ID, because we do need to look at the poll factors.

因此我正在研究身份证，即数字身份证，因为我们必须考虑#吸引#因素。

▶ The Prime Minister believes this is an important weapon in his armoury to tackle illegal immigration.

首相认为这是其应对非法#移民#的#武器库#中的重要武器。

bilibili 00:03:07

▶ But his idea is creating clear blue water between government and opposition.

但该构想正在政府与反对党之间划出清晰界限。

▶ Kirstaarmour scrapped the Rwanda Removal's plan without having any other plan in place.

基尔斯塔默在无替代方案的情况下废除了卢旺达遣送计划。

▶ He said he was going to smash the gangs, he hasn't done that.

他声称要粉碎犯罪团伙，但并未兑现。

▶ Digital ID cards is not going to smash the gangs or stop the boots.

数字身份证既无法粉碎犯罪集团，也不能阻止偷渡。

▶ I fear this is a bit like what they tried to do before, whereas authoritarian, with centralised, controlled by the state and we should oppose that lightly did before.

这恐怕与他们先前的尝试类似，带有威权主义色彩，强调中央集权和国家控制，我们应像过去那样坚决反对。

bilibili 00:03:33

▶ And there are practical questions if digital ID requires a phone or computer.

若数字身份证需手机或电脑支持，还存在现实问题。

▶ What happens if you don't have one?

没有这些设备的人该怎么办？

▶ The government says it will consult in the details, so don't expect to have to prove your identity online, just yet.

政府表示将就细节进行磋商，因此暂时还无需在线验证身份。

▶ In what's in BBC News?

BBC新闻还有哪些消息？

▶ Well, let's cross-life to Westminster and our political correspondent David Corner.

现在连线 Westminster 现场的政治#记者#大卫·科纳。

bilibili 00:03:54

▶ David, it's been a while now that Labour has pushed back against this idea, but now it looks like the government's going for it.

大卫，工党抵制该构想已有一段时间，但现在政府似乎决心推行。

▶ What do you think has changed?

你认为转变的原因是什么？

▶ Well, Kirstaarmour has said that psychologically the world is in a different place from where it was 20 years ago that we all carry a lot more digital ID on our phones and people have fewer hang-ups, perhaps, about some of the civil liberties arguments.

基尔斯塔默指出，从心理层面看，当今世界与20年前已大不相同——我们手机中携带更多数字身份信息，公众对公民自由论点的顾虑可能有所减少。

bilibili 00:04:20

▶ But undoubtedly, there's been concern over the rising numbers of people crossing on small boats this year.

但#毫无疑问#，今年乘小船#过境#人数上升已引发担忧。

▶ There's been concern that perhaps it's too easy to disappear into the economy here.

有人担心非法移民可能过于容易潜入我国经济体系。

▶ You heard the Prime Minister talk about pull factors that mean people are tempted to come to the UK, perhaps illegally and try to work illegally, and he thinks it's an important part, really, of his drive and commitment to end that trade and those small boats crossings.

首相提到的吸引因素意味着有人被诱惑来英——可能是非法途径并试图非法工作，他认为这实际上是终结偷渡贸易和小船过境行动的重要环节。

 00:04:54

⏮ Some from the opposition parties like Kenny Baidenoch, like Reform UK, are saying these are not going to make any difference, that they won't make any difference to a legal immigration.

肯尼·贝德诺克等反对党成员及英国改革党表示，这对合法移民毫无影响。

⏮ They're the way they can do a different difference even to solving the problem of illegal working in the UK.

即便解决英国非法务工问题，这种方式也效果有限。

⏮ Yeah, that's the sort of opposition dividing line if you like.

这可谓反对党的分界线。

 00:05:18

⏮ There has been some evidence recently that people have been working for food delivery companies coming out of a Sama-Sylum hotels, and that's the sort of thing the government will hope that the ID cards and a greater burden of proof that you are able to work in this country will actually tackle, perhaps give political reassurance to voters that the government sees this as a big issue, and thinks that it can make a difference.

近期有证据显示，部分难民酒店出来的人为外卖公司工作，政府希望身份证及更严格的工作资格举证责任能解决此类问题，或许还能向选民传递政治 reassurance——政府视此为重大议题并认为能有所作为。

⏮ Still though, lots of practical questions about how they'll work.

但具体操作仍存诸多实际问题。

⏮ Something like 8 million people in England and Wales don't have a passport.

英格兰和威尔士约800万人没有护照。

 00:05:57

⏮ Are they going to want to sign up for a digital ID?

他们是否愿意注册数字身份证？

▶ Some of them may not have a smartphone.

部分人可能没有智能手机。

▶ Lots of questions that the government hopes will be answered in the consultation that Kirsta Amas likely to launch tomorrow.

政府希望基尔斯塔默明日可能启动的#磋商#能解答这些疑问。

▶ Okay, David, thank you very much indeed.

好的，大卫，非常感谢。

▶ Well, very briefly, if I can, let me just read you a tweet by the Reform Leader, Nigel Farage.

请允许我简短宣读改革党领袖奈杰尔·法拉奇的一条推文。

 00:06:21

▶ I am firmly opposed to Kirsta Amas digital ID cards.

我坚决反对基尔斯塔默的数字身份证计划。

▶ It'll make no difference to legal immigration, but it will be used to control and penalise the rest of us.

这对合法#移民#毫无作用，却将被用来控制和惩罚我们普通民众。

▶ I've never had this much power.

我从未掌握如此大权。

▶ That's Nigel Farage.

以上是奈杰尔·法拉奇。

▶ Let's cross-live now.

现在切换现场信号。

▶ And I spoke to someone who has experience of ID cards.

我采访了一位对身份证有切身经验的人士。

🎧 Rao Kaitro is CEO of Rao Walter, which specialises in identity solutions for public and private sectors, and is based in Estonia, a country often described as having fully embraced the idea of digital ID cards.

劳·凯特罗是劳沃尔特公司的CEO，该公司专攻公共和私营部门身份解决方案，总部位于爱沙尼亚——这个常被形容为全面拥抱数字身份证理念的国家。

 00:06:50

🎧 And also a country I believe that a UK minister visited recently and talked about copying in many ways in terms of how you use ID cards.

据悉一位英国大臣近期曾访问该国，并谈及在多方面借鉴其身份证使用经验。

🎧 If you can explain to me how exactly ID cards work in Estonia.

请详解爱沙尼亚身份证的具体运作方式。

🎧 Well, thank you for having me.

感谢邀请。

🎧 Technical how it works is the ID card is kind of certificate of your identity in that sense.

从技术层面讲，身份证本质上是身份凭证。

🎧 The government registers your word, Perth, then your parents give you your name, you will end up in a registry and kind of the identity, the legal identity created will be transferred into a document, which is going to be an ID card form.

政府登记你的出生信息，父母为你取名后，这些信息将录入登记系统，由此产生的合法身份会被转化为证件形式，即身份证。

 00:07:35

🎧 Well, there is one and that one is mine and carries the unique identity ferry on top of it.

这就是我的身份证，顶端印有唯一身份#标识符#。

🎧 And that is the document that allows me to do everything in Estonia without actually being anywhere present in Estonia.

凭此证件我可办理爱沙尼亚所有事务，而无需亲身抵达该国。

▶ What's the difference, Raoul, between this and a passport?

劳尔，这与护照有何区别？

▶ The passport is a travel document.

护照是旅行证件。

▶ This is mostly for getting, for traveling or getting abroad, going to a trip, whatever the reason.

主要用于出国旅行等目的。

 00:08:05

▶ But the passport does not carry the functionality of digital authentication and digital signature.

但护照不具备数字认证和数字签名功能。

▶ So we've been hearing from opposition leaders in the UK saying, you know, digital ID cards won't stop illegal migration.

所以我们一直听到英国反对派领袖们表示，数字身份证无法阻止非法#移民潮#。

▶ They won't even help with illegal working.

它们甚至对打击非法务工也无济于事。

▶ How have they worked in Estonia?

爱沙尼亚是如何运作这套系统的呢？

▶ That is partly true.

这种说法有一定道理。

 00:08:33

▶ Digital identity as such is not an immigration policy tool as such.

数字身份本身并非#移民#政策工具。

▶ But this is an infrastructure that makes policy enforceable.

但它是让政策可执行的#基础设施#。

🎧 So it kind of gives the government the ability to know who someone is.

这相当于赋予政府识别个人身份的能力。

🎧 The claim of identity is the first question when they are being in contact with the person.

当政府人员与个体接触时，身份声明是首要问题。

🎧 So for example, in Estonia, in this case, I don't have to have technically any documents with me, even though I'm obliged to use it.

例如在爱沙尼亚，虽然必须使用数字身份，但技术上我无需随身携带任何实体文件。

 00:09:05

🎧 I still have my number, the unique number.

我仍拥有自己的唯一识别号码。

🎧 And if a policeman stops me on the road driving a car, if I give them the number, they already know that this car belongs to me and they have it exhibited to drive.

如果警察在路上拦下我驾驶的车辆，只需提供号码，他们就能立即确认车辆归属和驾驶许可。

🎧 So therefore it is a kind of a tool how to verify the claim of identity, even without having the document itself in your hands.

因此这是一种验证身份声明的工具，即便不手持实体证件也能实现。

 00:09:29

🎧 So it's kind of like having a passport, a driver's license, an insurance ID, everything all wrapped up in one document, digital document.

这就像将护照、驾照、保险证等所有功能整合进一份数字文件中。

🎧 Not really wrapped up.

并非真正物理整合。

🎧 There is nothing on the card except my personal data.

卡片上除个人数据外并无他物。

▶ Everything is built outside the card.

所有功能都构建在卡片之外。

▶ Right.

没错。

▶ So it's possible because of that unique identifier.

这一切都得益于唯一标识符的存在。

▶ And in that sense, it's very important to kind of...

从这个意义上说，非常重要的一点是...

 00:10:00

▶ Are you surprised that UK doesn't use them already?

你对英国尚未采用这套系统感到惊讶吗？

▶ Very much so.

非常惊讶。

▶ Yes, absolutely.

是的，完全如此。

▶ There have been several attempts all over the place.

各地曾有过多次尝试。

▶ And for instance, Estonia has been using it by accident already since the early 1990s.

比如爱沙尼亚自1990年代初就已偶然开始使用。

▶ There are many, many examples around the world who are using it.

全球已有许多国家正在使用这套系统。

▶ I mean, the latest project that I'm working on currently is the Peruvian government, which is the same cards of cards to their population, including a chip, which enables the authentication and digital signature as well.

我目前参与的最新项目是秘鲁政府推行的国民卡，同样内置芯片，支持身份认证和数字签名功能。

bilibili 00:10:36

▶ Okay, Rao, Kaitra, it's been so interesting to talk to you.

好的，拉奥、凯特拉，与你们的对话十分精彩。

▶ Thank you very much indeed for joining us and explaining to us how ID cards work and how you guys use them.

非常感谢你们做客节目，为我们解析身份证运作原理及实际应用。

▶ So thanks again.

再次感谢。

▶ Happy to.

乐意之至。

▶ Thank you.

谢谢。

▶ For all the noise here today, it's not remotely easy for Andy Burnham to replace Kia Starma.

尽管今日舆论喧哗，安迪·伯纳姆取代凯尔·斯塔默仍困难重重。

▶ Firstly, he'd have to find the Westminster seats and win it, not easy with reform and others no doubt throwing everything at trying to beat him.

首先他需在威斯敏斯特谋得议席并胜选——面对改革党等对手的全力阻击，这绝非易事。

bilibili 00:13:16

▶ And even if he made it back here, he'd then have Labour MPs to convince.

固然他确有支持者。

年年都有安迪想当首相不愿做曼彻斯特市长的无稽之谈。

▶ I think if I was a voter up there, I'd be sick to the back teeth of hearing that he doesn't want to be the leader of my city.

若我是当地选民，早听腻了他不愿领导本市的言论。

▶ And it will be recorded in history books and the pages of international conscious as one of the most horrific chapters of humanitarian tragedy in the 20th and 21st centuries.

它将被载入史册和国际良知的书页，成为20世纪和21世纪最恐怖的人道悲剧篇章之一。

▶ Despite all what our people have suffered, we reject what Hamas carried out on the 7th of October.

尽管我们的人民遭受了所有苦难，我们仍反对哈马斯在10月7日的行动。

bilibili 00:16:50

▶ These actions that targeted Israeli civilians and took them hostages because these actions do not represent the Palestinian people, nor do they represent their just struggle for freedom and independence.

这些针对以色列平民并挟持人质的行动不代表巴勒斯坦人民，也不代表他们争取自由和独立的正义斗争。

这是#前所未有#的。

这比一战、二战、越南战争和前南斯拉夫地区丧生的记者总数还多。

▶ Journalists are targeted and killed.

记者被锁定为目标并遭杀害。

▶ There must be accountability.

必须追究责任。

▶ Part of that is, do you think Israel not preventing journalist access is to control the information flow?

其中一点是，您认为以色列不允许记者进入是为了控制信息流吗？

bilibili 00:18:35

▶ I heard you talking about that.

我听过您相关论述。

我想您周一也看到了，约150个国家已承认巴勒斯坦国。

▶ That is a lot of nations that many of them have already called this a genocide while people are debating that.

众多国家中许多已称之为种族灭绝，而人们仍在争论。

bilibili 00:19:21

▶ The debate is over.

争论该结束了。

因为你行动需自担风险，我们看到的是人们——我以杜特尔特时期的菲律宾为例——这不仅是寒蝉效应。

此处，网络黑客声称已从Kido#幼儿园#连锁机构窃取约8000名儿童及其父母的姓名、地址和照片。

 00:20:47

▶ I know that our bank details, it's making it our bank details, we're not stored in the Kido app, which is something.

▶ And this is just an awful story, really.

这真是个可怕的事件。

▶ It has been described by more than one cyber expert today as a new low in cyber crime.

 00:21:34

▶ And I think I would agree with that.

我深表同意。

▶ The NCSC, the National Crime Agency, described as a parent and appalling.

国家犯罪署将其描述为令人发指。

▶ First of all, the hackers obviously targeted a nursery.

首先，黑客明显针对了#幼儿园#。

▶ They stole as much data as they could about as many pupils as they could about 8,000 of the kids in the UK nurseries.

他们窃取了英国幼儿园约8000名儿童尽可能多的数据。

▶ And that's things like names, pictures, dates of birth, addresses, phone numbers, parents and carers, details as well.

包括姓名、照片、出生日期、地址、电话号码、父母及看护人详细信息。

 00:21:58

▶ So that's not just parents, but like grandparents as well and anyone that comes and picks up the kids.

不仅涉及父母，还包括祖父母等接送孩子的所有人。

▶ There's also, they haven't released this yet, but they say they've got things like safe guarding notes and accident reports.

▶ It looks like the company isn't paying.

▶ But what will happen now?

接下来会怎样？

▶ What the hackers are saying is they are threatening to publish even more data on the darknet about these children.

 00:23:27

▶ Or they'll hope that that data might be used to carry out further attacks.

或希望数据被用于进一步攻击。

▶ We don't know what type of shape those attacks will take.

我们不知攻击会以何种形式出现。

▶ But any of this private information online on the internet is obviously not a good thing.

但任何此类隐私信息出现在网上显然不是好事。

这是英国委员会官员们。

▶ They've been telling us that they've seized nearly $4 million worth of fake toys this year.

他们告诉我们今年已查获价值近400万美元的假冒玩具。

▶ And 90% of these toys were, believe it or not, copies of the highly popular LeBoubou dolls.

信不信由你，这些玩具中90%是热门产品LeBoubou娃娃的仿制品。

 00:24:19

▶ Now, if you don't know already, LeBoubou is a quirky monster character created by an artist in Hong Kong.

若你还不了解，LeBoubou是香港艺术家创作的古怪怪兽形象。

▶ They've searched in popularity since being spotted on the bags of celebrities like Rihanna and D'Olippa.

自从在蕾哈娜和多莉帕等明星的手提包上出现后，它们的人气#急速攀升#。

▶ According to the intellectual property, obviously, three in four seized toys, like these ones, failed safety tests with the dangerous fakes being found with harmful chemicals or being found to have choking hazards, nearly half of the people who bought counterfeit toys, reported problems ranging from toys breaking to toxic smells and illness in children.

根据知识产权方数据，显然被查获的玩具中有四分之三（如此类样品）未通过安全检测，危险仿品均被检出含危害化学物质或存在窒息风险，近半数购买过假冒玩具的消费者反馈存在玩具破损、有毒气味乃至导致儿童患病等问题。

 00:24:53

▶ Now, let's just take you to those bears.

现在让我们把视线转向那些熊。

▶ Organizers there are encouraging people to watch the pictures, take note of who the bears are, they each have a number, some people like to call them names as well.

主办方鼓励人们观看直播画面，记住每只熊的编号（有些爱好者还给它们取了名字）。

 00:25:41

▶ And to vote on who they believe is the fatest.

并为自己心目中最胖的熊投票。

▶ Of course, they are coming to this area to eat salmon, they love salmon, they love fish.

当然，它们聚集于此是为了享用#鲑鱼#，它们热爱#鲑鱼#，热爱鱼类。

▶ And we're being told that chunk and grazer to big residents are the favourites to take the title.

我们获悉，#厚块头#和牧场主等著名胖熊是夺冠热门。

▶ Who will win, who will lose, who cares, we do, right?
