

Electric cars make up 20% of UK car sales in 2024 | BBC News

【2024年英国电动汽车销量占比达20% | BBC新闻】

Summary: The UK is phasing out petrol and diesel cars, with electric and hybrid models dominating new releases, yet they only accounted for 20% of sales last year, falling short of the 28% target due to cost and range concerns despite industry investment.

摘要：英国正逐步淘汰汽油和柴油车，电动和混合动力车型主导了新车型发布，但由于成本和续航问题，去年仅占销量的20%，未达到28%的目标，尽管行业已大力投资。

There are 5 years to go until the government will begin to phase out the sale of new petrol and diesel cars in the UK.

距离英国政府开始逐步淘汰新汽油和柴油车的销售还有5年时间。

The car industry is adapting and the majority of new models being put onto the market now have either fully electric or hybrid engines.

汽车行业正在适应，现在市场上推出的大多数新车型都采用纯电动或混合动力发动机。

103 of them are either fully electric or hybrid.

其中103款是纯电动或混合动力车。

So what's that?

那是什么比例？

Two out of every three.

每三辆中有两辆。

It is a measure of just how invested the industry is in the electric future.

这衡量了行业对电动未来的投入程度。

Quite a few more were hybrids, but that is still well below the 28% target the government set.

混合动力车更多一些，但仍远低于政府设定的28%目标。

So what is the problems?

那么问题是什么？

There are still so many people out there who think that EVs don't go far enough, they're too expensive, they burst into flames, etc., etc.

仍然有很多人认为电动车续航不够、太贵、会起火等等。

 00:03:43

But with so little money to play with, the government is unlikely to do that, which could make the UK's ambitious EV targets hard to achieve.

但由于可用资金太少，政府不太可能这样做，这可能使英国雄心勃勃的电动车目标难以实现。

And there is another challenge.

还有另一个挑战。

Be honest.

老实说。

Would you ever switch fully to an electric vehicle?

你会完全转向电动车吗？

I'm still in in the half electric, half petrol, half diesel camp.
