议长曾宣称"疯子、罪犯、底层民众和妇女不得投票"。

▶ Now, you won't be able to vote until you're 18 years of age.

如今改为"年满18岁方可投票"。

▶ Then in 1969, the voting age was lowered from 21 to 18.

1969年投票年龄从21岁降至18岁。

▶ That's why your vote counts.

正因如此你的选票至关重要。

▶ One, two, three, come up with me!

一、二、三，与我同行！

 00:06:45

▶ In Wales, 16 and 17-year-olds can already vote in devolved and local elections, the same is true in Scotland.

威尔士16-17岁青少年已可参与地方选举投票，苏格兰情况相同。

▶ Are these the faces of the electorate at the next general election?

这些会是下届大选选民的新面孔吗？

▶ 12-year-olds in Salford in Greater Manchester.

大曼彻斯特索尔福德市的12岁少年们表示：

▶ I think it's a real privilege that more younger people are being able to vote.

更多年轻人能投票是真正的特权。

▶ It might depend on the person if they're mature enough because some people are like silly other than others.

这取决于个人是否足够成熟，因为有些人确实比其他人更幼稚。

 00:07:11

▶ 16-year-olds get to vote, yeah, it might make me more interested in the news and stuff.

16岁获得投票权会让我更关注新闻时事。

▶ Harry, I've been to see the deputy prime minister who's a passionate advocate of this change.

哈里，我采访了副首相，他是该改革的坚定支持者。

🎧 This is about engaging young people in what's going to happen in their futures.

这关乎让年轻人参与决定自身未来。

🎧 Isn't the reality there when you look at what 16 and 17-year-olds can't do that collectively as a society, we don't treat 16 and 17-year-olds as adults and therefore why should they vote?

但现实是：16-17岁青少年在社会层面不被视为成年人（如不能买酒），为何却赋予投票权？

Back to Top

 00:07:39

🎧 They can go to work, they can pay their taxes, I had my son at 16 and I think that actually I think some people say that 18-year-olds and 21-year-olds are very young for their age.

他们可以工作纳税——我16岁生子，而有人认为18-21岁仍太年轻。

🎧 So I think that actually on balance 16 and 17 is a good age to give them the rights.

因此综合来看16-17岁是赋予投票权的合适年龄。

🎧 There will be no opportunity for you to go for tonight, suggest a majority of people 57 percent are opposed to the plan, the Conservatives think it's a mistake.

民调显示57%民众反对该计划，保守党认为这是错误决策。

Back to Top

 00:08:06

🎧 Why does this government think a 16-year-old can vote?

为何现政府认为16岁可投票？

🎧 But not be allowed to buy a lottery ticket, an alcoholic drink, marry or go to war, or even stand in the elections they're voting in.

却不能买彩票、饮酒、结婚、参军或参选？

⏮ Before the UK agree with the Tories, the Liberal Democrats agree with Labour.

自民党与工党立场一致，不同于保守党。

⏮ Is this a self-serving thing for Labour to do?

这是工党的利己之举吗？

⏮ He might wonder.

人们或存疑。

⏮ Younger voters tend to lean more left-wing, so if you look at sort of 18 to 24-year-old existing voters, they're much more likely to vote for the Labour Party than average, but also more likely to vote for parties like the Greens as well.

年轻选民更倾向左翼，现有18-24岁选民支持工党及绿党比例高于平均水平。

Back to Top

 00:08:41

⏮ But how much difference can that relatively small chunk of the electorate actually make?

但这部分选民规模较小，能产生多大影响？

⏮ Well what we'll be looking at is 16 and 17-year-olds making up around 2 percent of the electorate, so it's not a huge amount.

16-17岁选民约占选民总数2%，比例不高。

⏮ But then again, we are in a nearer West, small shares of the vote can deliver at you lots of seats in multi-party politics.

但在势均力敌的多元政党政治中，微小票数差距可赢得大量席位。
