🎵 Our correspondent, Amir Nader's Injaroos Alam, sent us this update.

我们的记者阿米尔·纳德尔·因贾鲁斯·阿拉姆发回了这份最新报道。

🎵 We've had the reports of dozens of people being killed throughout the Gaza Strip today in Israeli air strikes that have targeted numerous locations such as Hanunis in the south where we've had the reports of an entire family being killed in an air strike on a tent and in a displacement camp.

我们今天收到报告，以色列空袭了加沙地带各地的多个地点，造成数十人死亡，例如南部的哈努尼斯，有报告称一个完整的家庭在针对帐篷和流离失所者营地的空袭中丧生。

🎵 We've also had the report of eight people who've died from malnutrition, including two children.

我们还收到报告，有八人死于营养不良，其中包括两名儿童。

 00:02:11

🎵 In Gaza City, where just yesterday we had this official declaration of famine taking place there, we've heard the reports of relentless bombardment since dawn, with local journalists sharing videos of air strikes appearing to hit the outing neighborhoods of Zaytun and Sabra.

在加沙城，就在昨天那里被正式宣布发生饥荒，我们听到报告称自黎明以来轰炸持续不断，当地记者分享的空袭视频显示，袭击似乎击中了宰通和萨布拉的郊区。

🎵 In Israel today, we've had multiple protests happening throughout the country, including in Tel Aviv, where there's been a joint Jewish and Arab protest and also a protest by hostage families all calling for an end to the war for a cease-fire deal to be struck.

今天在以色列，全国各地发生了多次抗议活动，包括在特拉维夫，那里举行了犹太人和阿拉伯人的联合抗议，以及被扣押人员家属的抗议，他们都呼吁结束战争，达成停火协议。

🎵 And indeed, calling on Israel's government not to go ahead with this attack on Gaza City.

并且确实，呼吁以色列政府不要继续对加沙城的这次攻击。

 00:02:50

🎧 And we've also had the protest of hostage families calling on President Trump to put pressure on Prime Minister Netanyahu, saying that President Trump is the only person who can make Prime Minister Netanyahu not go ahead with this attack on Gaza City.

我们还看到被扣押人员家属的抗议，呼吁特朗普总统向内塔尼亚胡总理施压，称特朗普总统是唯一能让内塔尼亚胡总理不继续对加沙城发动这次攻击的人。

🎧 However, Israel's political leaders have made clear that they intend to go ahead with this attack on Gaza City, saying it is the best way to defeat Hamas, to return the hostages, and to end the war while aid agencies have said that this planned controversial attack could lead to the displacement of around a million Palestinians in Gaza City, and it would further devastate a people that are already enduring famine.

然而，以色列的政治领导人已明确表示，他们打算继续对加沙城的这次攻击，称这是击败哈马斯、归还被扣押人员并结束战争的最佳方式，而援助机构则表示，这次有争议的计划中的攻击可能导致加沙城约一百万巴勒斯坦人流离失所，并将进一步摧毁已经遭受饥荒的人民。

🎧 Earlier, I spoke to Jeremy Kanaiindike, the president of Refugees International.

早些时候，我与难民国际组织主席杰里米·卡奈因迪克进行了交谈。

 00:03:37

🎧 So the IPC confirming famine in Gaza City and the surrounding areas, what do you make of this report?

那么，IPC确认加沙城及周边地区发生饥荒，您如何看待这份报告？

🎧 I think it's a very well-done report, making the best that they can out of sometimes limited and imperfect information.

我认为这是一份做得非常好的报告，他们在有时有限且不完善的信息基础上尽了最大努力。

🎧 It's very hard to gather the sort of gold standard information that you would want in an active war zone, and the Israeli government has not made it easy to gather rigorous data on non-trauma mortality and malnutrition.

在一个活跃的战区很难收集到你所期望的那种黄金标准信息，而且以色列政府也没有让收集关于非创伤性死亡和营养不良的严格数据变得容易。

 00:04:05

▶ So they are making the best that they can, and I think they've done a very credible job in making this assessment.

因此，他们正在尽最大努力，我认为他们在进行这项评估方面做得非常可信。

▶ Now, the Israeli government has said that this report is not credible and that it's based on Hamas lies.

现在，以色列政府表示这份报告不可信，并且是基于哈马斯的谎言。

▶ The report authors said that they weren't able to access two governance within Gaza, but from your knowledge of how they've gathered information, what do you make of it?

报告作者表示，他们无法进入加沙境内的两个治理机构，但根据您对他们如何收集信息的了解，您怎么看？

 00:04:26

▶ So the IPC has very well-established systems for how do you make an assessment when you can't get perfect access, when you can't get perfect information.

IPC拥有非常完善的系统，用于在无法获得完美访问权限、无法获得完美信息时如何进行评估。

▶ So they resorted to that.

所以他们采用了这种方法。

▶ The Israeli government has said, for example, has alleged that they changed the standard.

以色列政府表示，例如，声称他们改变了标准。

▶ That's just a flat out misreading of the IPC guidance.

这完全是对IPC指南的误读。

 00:04:44

▶ They used the same standard for malnutrition assessment, for example, that they used in Decorary Famine in Darfur last year.

例如，他们使用的营养不良评估标准与去年在达尔富尔用于Decorary饥荒的标准相同。

▶ Now, you have said that the United States bears responsibility for failing to utilize its diplomatic and military leverage to demand a surge of humanitarian aid that's needed in Gaza.

现在，您说过美国负有责任，未能利用其外交和军事影响力来要求增加加沙所需的人道主义援助。

▶ What should the U.S. be doing?

美国应该做什么？

bilibili 00:05:05

▶ Well, I think the U.S. and not only the U.S., Europe as well has enormous leverage and influence with Israel.

嗯，我认为美国，而且不仅是美国，欧洲也对以色列拥有巨大的影响力和影响力。

▶ They are a third of Israel's global trade.

它们占以色列全球贸易的三分之一。

▶ I think all countries with influence and reach to the Israeli government need to be pressing them to fully open to humanitarian access, to allow the kind of unfettered humanitarian access that they were allowing during the ceasefire earlier this year.

我认为所有对以色列政府有影响力和渠道的国家都需要向他们施压，要求他们完全开放人道主义准入，允许像今年早些时候停火期间他们所允许的那种不受限制的人道主义准入。

▶ We are seeing a new Israeli offensive on Gaza City that they expect will see another million people potentially, while being asked to move south within Gaza.

我们看到以色列对加沙城发动了新的攻势，他们预计这可能又会使一百万人受到影响，同时这些人被要求向加沙南部转移。

▶ Would aid organizations have the resources or means if they were able to get in to assist those people?

如果援助组织能够进入，他们是否有资源或手段来帮助那些人？

▶ Absolutely.

绝对有。

▶ You know, one of the important things about Gaza is it's a small place.

你知道，加沙的一个重要特点是它是一个小地方。

 00:05:51

▶ So when you're talking about fighting a famine across Darfur or across Somalia, those are vast countries.

所以当你在谈论应对达尔富尔或索马里全境的饥荒时，那些是幅员辽阔的国家。

▶ They're difficult logistically.

它们在物流上很困难。

▶ What makes Gaza complicated is the impediments due to the security situation and the political impediments from the Israeli government.

加沙的复杂之处在于安全局势造成的障碍以及以色列政府的政治障碍。

▶ Tell me more about that.

请详细说说这一点。

▶ How does the situation in Gaza compare to other humanitarian crises that your organization has worked with and on around the world?

加沙的情况与贵组织在世界各地处理过的其他人道主义危机相比如何？

 00:06:17

▶ So I think what is really unique about Gaza is the level of political interference by the Israeli government.

因此，我认为加沙真正独特之处在于以色列政府的政治干预程度。

▶ The security situation is also very bad, but humanitarian is deal with bad security situations all the time.

安全局势也非常糟糕，但人道主义工作者一直在应对糟糕的安全局势。

▶ Humanitarian work in Darfur during a very active conflict there, have worked in Somalia during the peaks of the civil war, worked in northern Syria during the peaks of the civil war there.

在达尔富尔冲突非常激烈时期进行的人道主义工作，在索马里内战高峰时期的工作，在叙利亚北部内战高峰时期的工作。

bilibili 00:06:43

▶ That part is not so unfamiliar.

那部分并不那么陌生。

▶ What is quite unique about Gaza is just the degree of disregard by the Israeli government for the safety and humanitarian operations.

加沙相当独特的一点是以色列政府对安全和人道主义行动的无视程度。

▶ So every single move that a humanitarian organization makes inside Gaza has to be approved by the Israeli government.

因此，人道主义组织在加沙境内的每一个行动都必须得到以色列政府的批准。

▶ Frequently that is denied.

这经常被拒绝。

▶ Frequently they are sent on routes that are not actually passable.

他们经常被派往实际上无法通行的路线。

bilibili 00:07:07

▶ And so they've kind of weaponized that permission structure to impede humanitarian action in a really comprehensive way.

因此，他们有点武器化了这种许可结构，以真正全面的方式阻碍人道主义行动。

▶ And from the humanitarian organizations I've been speaking to over the past days, there seems to be a great deal of consensus that this is what needs to happen.

根据我过去几天与人道主义组织的交谈，似乎存在大量共识认为这是需要发生的事情。

▶ That Israel needs to allow additional aid in to prevent further catastrophe.

以色列需要允许额外的援助进入，以防止进一步的灾难。

bilibili 00:07:26

▶ It's a kind of insane debate that we're having right now, whether the kind of calibrated restrictions that the Israeli government has are just above or just below the famine threshold.

我们现在正在进行一种疯狂的辩论，争论以色列政府实施的这种经过校准的限制是刚好高于还是刚好低于饥荒阈值。

▶ Just below is not that much better than just above.

刚好低于并不比刚好高于好多少。

▶ So what the Israeli government needs to be doing is allowing full and unfettered access.

因此，以色列政府需要做的是允许完全和不受限制的准入。

bilibili 00:07:43

▶ And we know what that looks like in Gaza.

我们知道这在加沙是什么样子。

▶ It looks like the level of support and facilitation that humanitarian groups had during the ceasefire.

它看起来像人道主义团体在停火期间所获得的支持和便利水平。

▶ And what happened after the ceasefire was not just that the violence restarted.

而停火后发生的情况不仅仅是暴力重新开始。

▶ It was also a lot of the permissions that humanitarian groups had been getting from the Israeli government were pulled back as well.

许多人道主义团体从以色列政府获得的许可也被收回了。

bilibili 00:08:00

▶ And are there people within the current Israeli government who are sympathetic to these arguments that organizations like yours are making and could potentially advocate on behalf of letting aid in?

在当前的以色列政府内部，是否有人同情像你们这样的组织提出的这些论点，并可能代表允许援助进入进行倡导？

▶ Certainly at a political level, it's hard to see anyone who's very sympathetic.

当然在政治层面上，很难看到有谁非常同情。

▶ You know, the debate amongst many of the loudest voices in the cabinet is about whether to let any aid in at all.

你知道，内阁中许多声音最大的人之间的辩论是关于是否让任何援助进入。

 00:08:27

▶ And for more on this, I would like to welcome Ambassador David Satterfield, a former U.S. ambassador to Turkey and Lebanon.

关于这一点，我想欢迎大卫·萨特菲尔德大使，他是美国前驻土耳其和黎巴嫩大使。

▶ And former U.S. special envoy for Middle East humanitarian issues under President Biden.

也是拜登总统任内美国前中东人道主义问题特使。

▶ Thank you so much for taking the time to speak with us.

非常感谢您抽出时间与我们交谈。

▶ Now we know that Hamas has agreed to a ceasefire put forth by Katari and Egyptian mediators.

现在我们知道哈马斯已同意由卡塔尔和埃及调解人提出的停火协议。

 00:08:49

▶ Prime Minister Netanyahu has come out and said that Israel is ready for negotiations on terms that are acceptable for Israel.

内塔尼亚胡总理已经出面表示，以色列准备就以色列可以接受的条款进行谈判。

▶ Where do you see this going?

您认为这会如何发展？

▶ Let's be careful first about describing Hamas's position as acceptance of terms.

我们首先要谨慎描述哈马斯的立场为接受条款。

▶ There's a lot of ambiguity, a lot of uncertainty in what was presented and what Hamas has accepted.

所提出的内容和哈马斯所接受的内容存在很多模糊性和不确定性。

bilibili 00:09:10

▶ But let's talk about the import of a ceasefire as your previous correspondent noted Jeremy.

但让我们谈谈停火的重要性，正如你之前的记者杰里米指出的那样。

▶ A ceasefire is essential now, not just to get hostages out, but to be able to get the at-scale humanitarian assistance into all parts of Gaza where populations exist, you can manage assistance during a very kinetic, a very active military campaign, but it's much more difficult and it would require much more coordination and facilitation by Israel, by the IDF, than has currently been manifested.

现在停火至关重要，不仅是为了让被扣押人员获释，也是为了能够将大规模的人道主义援助送入加沙所有有人口的地区，在非常激烈、非常活跃的军事行动期间，你可以管理援助，但这要困难得多，并且需要以色列、以色列国防军比目前所表现的进行更多的协调和便利。

▶ And that does seem to echo what many aid organizations have said that a ceasefire would allow them to bring in the aid that's required.

这似乎确实呼应了许多援助组织所说的，即停火将使他们能够带来所需的援助。

bilibili 00:09:50

▶ I'm curious what you were hinting at there about what Hamas has agreed in this ceasefire proposal put forward.

我好奇您在那里暗示了什么关于哈马斯在所提出的停火协议中同意了哪些内容。

▶ Sure, but let's go to the fundamental fact of this terrible situation, this now 22-month conflict.

当然，但让我们谈谈这个可怕局势的基本事实，这场现已持续22个月的冲突。

▶ It began with a Hamas massacre.

它始于哈马斯的大屠杀。

▶ It has continued because Hamas has refused to accept those conditions under which Israel could accept the establishment of a day before to bring about a day after that offers a different picture to the people of Gaza.

它之所以持续，是因为哈马斯拒绝接受那些以色列可以接受的条件，这些条件本可以建立一个“之前的日子”以带来一个“之后的日子”，为加沙人民提供一个不同的景象。

 00:10:24

▶ Gaza has been cheerfully willing to sacrifice Gaza's for its own political ambitions, which go far beyond Gaza or Ramallah and extend to the Arab world as a whole.

加沙一直乐于为自身的政治野心牺牲加沙人，这些野心远远超出了加沙或拉马拉，延伸至整个阿拉伯世界。

▶ So Hamas bears the first and primary responsibility, but Israel also bears responsibility as the effective controlling power in Gaza to assure that properly administered humanitarian assistance would go beyond food, medical assistance, shelter, potable water are provided.

因此，哈马斯负有首要和主要责任，但以色列作为加沙的有效控制力量也负有责任，以确保妥善管理的人道主义援助能够提供食品、医疗援助、住所、饮用水等。

▶ What steps has the United States government taken under the Trump administration to pressure Israel to allow this greater humanitarian access?

美国政府在前总统特朗普政府领导下采取了哪些措施向以色列施压以允许更大的人道主义准入？

 00:11:08

▶ I think the president has spoken directly to his recognition of the reality of starvation in Gaza that the humanitarian situation there must be addressed.

我认为总统已直接表达了他对加沙饥饿现实的认识，即那里的人道主义状况必须得到解决。

▶ The answer to your question is for a true address of the humanitarian situation in Gaza, whether one is speaking of famine, starvation, malnutrition, and all three appear to be present, the U.S. must lead.

你的问题的答案是，要真正解决加沙的人道主义状况，无论是饥荒、饥饿还是营养不良，而且这三者似乎都存在，美国必须带头。

▶ The U.S. must lead in terms of directing, assisting in coordination with humanitarian actors in the United elsewhere, the at-scale delivery of assistance.

美国必须在指导、协助与美国及其他地方的人道主义行动者协调、大规模提供援助方面发挥领导作用。

 00:11:50

▶ And that means a very, very significant and continuous dialogue with the government of Israel.

这意味着与以色列政府进行非常非常重要和持续的对话。

▶ And certainly pressure on the government of Israel, I would imagine.

当然，我想还包括对以色列政府施加压力。

▶ Are there any red lines for the Trump administration?

对特朗普政府来说有任何红线吗？

▶ You would have to refer that question to the Trump administration.

你必须把这个问题提交给特朗普政府。

▶ I can't speak for them.

我不能代表他们发言。

▶ What I can say is this, a military campaign alone, while it may be at present a pressure tactic on Hamas, must be accompanied by other steps.

我能说的是，单靠军事行动，虽然目前可能是对哈马斯的一种施压策略，但必须辅以其他步骤。

 00:12:20

▶ It has to be accompanied by proper humanitarian relief, and it also has to be accompanied by a political vision for the future of Gaza.

它必须伴随着适当的人道主义救济，还必须伴随着对加沙未来的政治愿景。

▶ And regrettably, neither of those two last elements have been present to the degree that they are required since this conflict began.

而遗憾的是，自这场冲突开始以来，这两个最后的要素都未曾达到所需的程度。

▶ Well, thank you so much for taking the time to speak with us on BBC News.

▶ You've got states like New York, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Ohio, Florida.

你有像纽约、新罕布什尔、新泽西、俄亥俄、佛罗里达这样的州。

▶ Many others who are considering doing the same or at least exploring the options.

还有许多其他州正在考虑做同样的事情，或者至少正在探索各种选择。

▶ Now, while it might not be as simple to get this done.

虽然完成这件事可能并不那么简单。

▶ But the fact is Texas has now set that in motion in a sort of a domino effect.

但事实是，德克萨斯州现在已经以一种多米诺骨牌效应启动了这件事。

▶ So it will be political posturing on part of these political parties, both Republican and Democrat, as they look for sort of tit-for-tat measures to try and counter each other.

因此，这将是这些政党，包括共和党和民主党，在寻找某种针锋相对的措施试图互相制衡时的政治姿态。

 00:18:19

⏮ And all of this with an eye on the midterm elections, which is next year, which are likely to be very closely fought.

所有这一切都着眼于明年可能竞争非常激烈的中期选举。

⏮ If you look at the larger political picture, all of this is about trying to gain more control of the House of Representatives here in Washington DC.

如果你从更大的政治图景来看，所有这一切都是为了试图获得对华盛顿特区众议院的更多控制权。

⏮ At the moment, the narrow majority is with the Republican Party, but political parties ahead of that crucial election will try and look to increase their base and presence in the House of Representatives.

目前，共和党拥有微弱多数，但在那场关键选举之前，各政党将试图增加他们在众议院的基地和存在感。

 00:18:45

⏮ Which is why every seat counts, which is why this process becomes all the more important.

这就是为什么每一个席位都至关重要，这就是为什么这个过程变得尤为重要。

⏮ And you're likely to see this intensify in the weeks and months ahead as we get closer to the very crucial midterm elections here in the US.

随着我们越来越接近美国这里非常关键的中期选举，你可能会在未来几周和几个月内看到这种情况加剧。

⏮ And lawyers for Kilmar, Abrego Garcia, say he's been told by US Immigration and Customs Enforcement or ICE, that he might be deported to Uganda.

基尔马尔·阿布雷戈·加西亚的律师说，美国移民和海关执法局（ICE）已告知他，他可能会被驱逐到乌干达。

 00:19:08

⌂ This coming just a day after he was freed from jail in Tennessee on the order of a judge.

这发生在他根据法官命令从田纳西州监狱获释仅一天后。

⌂ Abrego Garcia was wrongfully deported by the US government to a prison in El Salvador back in March in what it's called an administrative error.

阿布雷戈·加西亚于三月份被美国政府错误地驱逐到萨尔瓦多的一所监狱，据称这是一次行政错误。

⌂ After being released on Friday, he returned to Maryland, where he was reunited with his family after being separated from them for more than 160 days.

周五获释后，他返回了马里兰州，在与家人分离160多天后与他们团聚。

 00:19:31

⌂ The Department of Homeland Security Secretary Christy Krome called Abrego's release a new low.

国土安全部部长克里斯蒂·克诺姆称阿布雷戈的获释是一个新低点。

⌂ His lawyers say the government is trying to force him to accept a guilty plea on human smuggling charges or face deportation.

他的律师说，政府正试图强迫他接受走私人口指控的有罪答辩，否则将面临驱逐出境。

⌂ The US government will take a 10% stake in the flagging Silicon Valley chipmaker intel as it seeks to boost the domestic semiconductor industry.

美国政府将收购陷入困境的硅谷芯片制造商英特尔公司10%的股份，以寻求提振国内半导体产业。

 00:19:54

⌂ The Secretary of Commerce Howard Lutnick described the step as historic and said it would strengthen America's technological edge.

商务部长霍华德·拉特尼克称这一步是历史性的，并表示这将加强美国的技术优势。

⌂ Intel said the government would make an investment of almost $9 billion to buy its stock.

英特尔表示，政府将投资近90亿美元购买其股票。

⏮ That money was previously set to come in the form of grants agreed under the Biden administration.

这笔钱之前定于以拜登政府同意的拨款形式提供。

⏮ And joining me for more on this one, joining me for more on this live, we have Robert Ackins and President of the Information Technology and Innovation Foundation.

和我一起进一步讨论这个问题，和我一起进行现场连线的是信息技术与创新基金会主席罗伯特·阿特金森。

 00:20:21

⏮ Thank you so much for speaking with us.

非常感谢您与我们交谈。

⏮ Do you agree when the Secretary of Commerce says this will strengthen the US's technological edge?

您同意商务部长所说的这将加强美国的技术优势吗？

⏮ No, not at all.

不，完全不同意。

⏮ The chips act will, the chips act is what Congress and the bipartisan way passed during the Biden administration.

芯片法案会（加强优势），芯片法案是国会以两党合作的方式在拜登政府期间通过的。

⏮ It was to provide grants to semiconductor companies like Intel to build fabs or semiconductor factories in the US, because it costs so much more to build here than it does in some of the Asian countries, for example.

该法案旨在向英特尔等半导体公司提供拨款，以在美国建造晶圆厂或半导体工厂，因为在这里建厂的成本比在一些亚洲国家要高得多。

 00:20:49

▶ But requiring a grant, requiring Intel to basically give the government stock in order to get the grant, which was never part of the deal.

但要求拨款，要求英特尔基本上向政府提供股票以获得拨款，这从来不是协议的一部分。

▶ That's not what Congress intended.

这不是国会的意图。

▶ That is not going to strengthen Intel.

这不会加强英特尔。

▶ That's going to weaken Intel.

这会削弱英特尔。

▶ And what do you think the calculation is on behalf of the Trump administration?

您认为特朗普政府方面的算计是什么？

bilibili 00:21:06

▶ What are they trying to achieve with this?

他们想通过这个达到什么目的？

▶ The Trump administration was never a fan of this program.

特朗普政府从来不是这个项目的粉丝。

▶ Even though they're protectionists, I like to call them free market protection, as their small government protectionists.

尽管他们是保护主义者，我喜欢称他们为自由市场保护主义者，他们是小政府保护主义者。

▶ They didn't like the program.

他们不喜欢这个项目。

▶ And this is a way for them to think, well, at least now we're getting some money back.

这对他们来说是一种想法，好吧，至少现在我们拿回一些钱了。

bilibili 00:21:25

▶ The other thing that the President is focused on, obviously, is the budget deficit.

总统显然关注的另一件事是预算赤字。

▶ He's unwilling to raise taxes and he's unwilling to cut spending, and frankly, most politicians in Washington are.

他不愿意增税，也不愿意削减开支，坦率地说，华盛顿的大多数政客都是如此。

▶ So he's trying to figure out these other ways to raise money.

所以他正试图找出其他方法来筹集资金。

▶ And he thinks, well, maybe if they give a stock in it, Intel, we can use that as an offset to the budget deficit.

他认为，好吧，也许如果他们给英特尔股票，我们可以用它来抵消预算赤字。

 00:21:46

▶ So this is not really about making Intel stronger.

所以这其实并不是为了让英特尔更强大。

▶ It's about giving me having control over it.

这是为了让我能控制它。

▶ It's about maybe making more money.

也许是为了赚更多的钱。

▶ But that was never the purpose of the program.

但这从来不是该计划的目的。

▶ The purpose of the program was to give incentives to have the companies build fabs in the US.

该计划的目的是激励公司在美国建造晶圆厂。

▶ That's it.

就这样。

🎧 Well, now that the US government will have some influence over Intel's decision making, how would you think they'll be likely to use it?

那么，既然美国政府将对英特尔的决策产生一些影响，您认为他们可能会如何使用这种影响力？

🎧 00:22:11

🎧 Well, they've said they don't have none.

嗯，他们说过他们没有（投票权）。

🎧 They're essentially not going to use that stock as voting stock.

他们基本上不会将这些股票用作有投票权的股票。

🎧 That doesn't mean they won't have influence.

这并不意味着他们不会有影响力。

🎧 They could use indirect influence.

他们可以使用间接影响力。

🎧 They could threaten to dump all the stocks.

例如，他们可以威胁抛售所有股票。

🎧 For example, if Intel isn't making the kinds of investments that they want Intel to make.

如果英特尔没有进行他们希望英特尔进行的那种投资。

🎧 00:22:29

🎧 You know, one level that's problematic because Trump, you don't know what the President could want.

你知道，这在某种程度上是有问题的，因为特朗普，你不知道总统可能想要什么。

🎧 He might want things that are not good for Intel or the country in this particular case.

他可能想要一些对英特尔或国家不利的东西，在这个特定案例中。

🎧 But on the other hand, he might be pressuring Intel to make more investments in the US, which would be good for the country.

但另一方面，他可能会向英特尔施压，要求其在美国进行更多投资，这对国家有利。

 00:22:45

🎧 It might not be as good for the Intel shareholders, but it might be better for the country.

这对英特尔股东可能不那么好，但对国家可能更好。

🎧 So it could really go either way, just depending upon how active they want to be, and Intel governance and what direction they want them to go in.

所以这真的可能走向任何一方，完全取决于他们想要多积极，以及英特尔的治理和他们希望英特尔朝哪个方向走。

🎧 How much of a benefit do you see it as to have an American company that is capable of manufacturing the chips that are so important to US national security?

您认为拥有一家能够制造对美国国家安全如此重要的芯片的美国公司有多大好处？

 00:23:08

🎧 At the end of the day, we have to have that.

归根结底，我们必须拥有这个能力。

🎧 By the way, Intel is not the only company.

顺便说一下，英特尔不是唯一的公司。

🎧 We have Micron, we have Texas Instruments.

我们有美光，我们有德州仪器。

🎧 We have other companies that make chips, but Intel is unique in the sense of it's making these logic chips.

我们还有其他制造芯片的公司，但英特尔的独特之处在于它制造这些逻辑芯片。

🎧 TSMC is a company that is essentially a fab company.

台积电本质上是一家晶圆厂公司。

🎧 It doesn't design the chips.

它不设计芯片。

 00:23:28

▶ It makes them for other companies.

它为其他公司制造芯片。

▶ And we have lots of companies that are great at chip design.

我们有很多擅长芯片设计的公司。

▶ But at the end of the day, we can't rely just upon foreign companies.

但归根结底，我们不能仅仅依赖外国公司。

▶ Nor can we rely just on foreign companies building fabs here, as critical as that is, the United States still needs its own fab, its own Intel, and it's only its own chip producers that are strong.

我们也不能仅仅依赖外国公司在这里建晶圆厂，尽管这至关重要，但美国仍然需要自己的晶圆厂，自己的英特尔，只有自己的芯片生产商强大才行。

 00:23:50

▶ Intel was once a leader in chip production, but some critics say that it has fallen behind technologically.

英特尔曾经是芯片生产的领导者，但一些批评者说它在技术上已经落后了。

▶ Do you think that this move could help turn around its fortunes?

你认为此举能帮助它扭转命运吗？

▶ No, because it was never designed to do that.

不，因为它从来就不是为此设计的。

▶ The original chipsack was never designed to do that.

最初的芯片法案（CHIPS Act）从来就不是为此设计的。

▶ And that's what a lot of people forget.

而这正是很多人忘记的。

 00:24:10

▶ The Washington Post editorial board had an op-ed where they were saying, well, this isn't going to help Intel.

《华盛顿邮报》editorial board 曾在一篇专栏文章中说，这不会对英特尔有帮助。

▶ That wasn't the purpose of it.

那不是它的目的。

▶ What people forget is the purpose of it was very simple.

人们忘记的是，它的目的非常简单。

▶ It cost 40% more to build a fab in the United States than it does in, say, Malaysia or Indonesia or China, or some of these other places.

在美国建造一座晶圆厂的成本比在，比如说，马来西亚、印度尼西亚或中国，或其他一些地方要高出40%。

 00:24:30

▶ Congress said we want more fabs built here.

国会说我们希望有更多晶圆厂建在这里。

▶ We're going to give you some money to make up the cost difference.

我们将给你们一些钱来弥补成本差异。

▶ So it was never designed to give Intel a big subsidy to help them with their competitiveness.

所以它从来就不是为了给英特尔一大笔补贴来帮助其提升竞争力。

▶ It was designed at best to be neutral.

它充其量是被设计成中性的。

▶ I Intel built a fab here.

如果英特尔在这里建了一座晶圆厂。

▶ It's not going to cost you anything extra.

它不会让你多花任何额外的钱。

bilibili 00:24:47

▶ So the purpose of the program wasn't designed for Intel competitiveness.

所以该计划的目的并非为了英特尔的竞争力。

▶ And that's what I think people are missing today.

而我认为这正是人们如今忽略的一点。

▶ Robert Atkinson, thank you so much for joining us with your insights.

罗伯特·阿特金森，非常感谢您加入我们并分享您的见解。

▶ Thank you very much.

非常感谢。

▶ Appreciate you taking the time today.

感谢您今天抽出时间。

▶ My pleasure.

这是我的荣幸。

▶ Thank you.

谢谢。
