

Major Cyber Attack Causes Widespread Disruption at European Airports | Tower Hamlets Festival Celebrates Diversity | Paralympian Swims Serpentine | Science Museum's Space Gallery Reopens

【英国本地新闻 BBC London 20250921 欧洲机场遭网络袭击陷瘫痪 | 塔村多元文化节对抗极右仇恨 | 无腿车手激战公开水域游泳 | 科学博物馆太空展重磅回归】

Summary: A cyber attack has caused significant disruption at Heathrow and other European airports, forcing a shift to manual operations and leading to passenger chaos. In Tower Hamlets, a festival celebrated diversity in response to far-right activism. Former racing driver Billy Munger, a double amputee, participated in an open water swimming event as he trains for the Paralympics. Meanwhile, the Science Museum's space gallery reopened after 40 years, showcasing exhibits like a moon rock and a Soyuz capsule.
