▶ This very valuable algorithm that pushes so much content to TikTok's 170 million American users does bite dance?

这个非常有价值的算法向TikTok的1.7亿美国用户推送大量内容，字节跳动会（放弃它吗）？

▶ Part with that algorithm is the new owner expected to build its own.

▶ But pretty much across the board, I would say there's some skepticism about this deal from outside because we have seen announcements of this by the administration before and it didn't pan out.

但几乎在所有方面，我都会说外界对这笔交易存在一些怀疑，因为我们之前见过政府宣布此类消息，但最终都未能实现。

查理·柯克被杀事件在美国政界引发了一场关于日益增长的政治暴力和极端言论的重大辩论。

00:11:38

🎧 The Trump administration blamed the US political left for demonizing right-wing figures like Kirk, and it said it's going to begin taking steps to dismantle progressive groups which they say encourage violence.

特朗普政府指责美国政治左派妖魔化像柯克这样的右翼人物，并表示将开始采取措施解散他们所称的鼓励暴力的进步团体。

00:12:08

🎧 It's important, and Erica asked me this, to make sure that his movement, the movement that Charlie started has to keep going.

重要的是，埃里卡问过我这一点，要确保他的运动，查理发起的运动必须继续下去。

🎧 We have to build upon it, we have to add to it.

我们必须在此基础上发展，必须为其增添内容。

▶ We have to make sure that the next generation of young people feels confident and courageous to speak their mind and to speak the truth.

我们将讨论这一点。

00:12:26

▶ We're going to talk about why do we do this?

我们将与政府高级官员讨论，我们正试图以这种方式来纪念查理的遗产。

▶ Of course, we have to make sure that the killer is brought to justice, and importantly, we have to talk about this incredibly destructive movement of left-wing extremism that has grown up over the last few years.

当然，我们必须确保凶手被绳之以法，重要的是，我们必须讨论过去几年滋长起来的这种极具破坏性的左翼极端主义运动。

00:12:53

▶ I believe as part of the reason why Charlie was killed by an assassins bullet, we're going to talk about how to dismantle that and how to bring real unity, real unity that can only come when we tell the truth, and everybody knows that they can speak their mind about the issues of the day without being cut down by a murderers gun.

我相信这是查理被刺客子弹杀害的部分原因，我们将讨论如何瓦解这种运动，如何实现真正的团结，只有当我们说出真相，每个人都知道他们可以就当下问题畅所欲言而不被凶手的枪击倒时，真正的团结才会到来。

▶ Let's talk about some more of the issues there raised by Vice President J.D. Vance rejoined now by former Democratic congressman from Minnesota, Dean Phillips.

让我们再讨论一些副总统J.D.万斯在那里提出的问题，现在再次加入我们的是明尼苏达州前民主党国会议员迪恩·菲利普斯。

▶ Thank you for being with us here on BBC News.

感谢您来到BBC新闻与我们在一起。

00:13:24

▶ There have been many calls to move beyond violent political rhetoric, but when you hear pledges from the Vice President and others in the administration to use every available resource as they put it, of the government, to stamp out what they call the radical left, how does that help that moving forward?

已有许多呼吁要求超越暴力的政治言论，但当你听到副总统和政府其他人员承诺使用他们所说的政府的一切可用资源来消灭他们所谓的激进左派时，这如何有助于推动事情向前发展？

▶ Well clearly, Katrina, it doesn't serve the purpose that I think any thoughtful, common sense reasonable American or citizen of the world would expect.

嗯，很明显，卡特里娜，这并不符合我认为任何深思熟虑的、有常识的、理性的美国人或世界公民所期望的目的。

▶ This is not an issue unique to one side or the other.

这不是任何一方独有的问题。

00:13:57

▶ I'm saddened that the President and Vice President have neglected to recognize the same cancer that exists on the far right.

令我感到悲哀的是，总统和副总统忽视了极右翼存在的同样毒瘤。

▶ And Katrina, we didn't leave the Stone Age because we ran out of rocks.

卡特里娜，我们离开石器时代并不是因为用完了石头。

▶ We matured as a civilization.

我们是作为一个文明成熟起来的。

▶ We litigate in democracies with words, not weapons.

我们在民主国家用言辞而非武器进行辩论。

▶ And I'm afraid this is a terrible step backwards if our President who represents not just the United States of America, but in many ways, the direction of the free world doesn't actually try to lead with compassion, reconciliation, and reunion.

我担心这是一个可怕的倒退，如果我们的总统——他代表的不仅仅是美利坚合众国，而且在很多方面代表着自由世界的方向——不真正尝试以同情、和解与团结来领导。

00:14:35

▶ Because I think the consequences will be very dire.

因为我认为后果将非常可怕。

▶ Do you think when you're talking there about not going backwards that the U.S. is getting more violent in a political sense?

你认为，当你在那里谈论不要倒退时，美国在政治意义上是否正变得更具暴力性？

▶ I mean, there's this assassination, the attempts on President Trump himself, your own friend, Melissa Hortman in Minnesota.

我的意思是，有这次暗杀，有针对特朗普总统本人的企图，还有你在明尼苏达的朋友梅丽莎·霍特曼。

▶ You know, the sad truth is when you serve in public office, you do put your life at risk and both through the United States history, we've had sadly political assassinations of the President's and others in political office.

你知道，可悲的事实是，当你担任公职时，你确实将生命置于危险之中，纵观美国历史，我们 sadly 发生过总统和其他政治人物的政治暗杀。

00:15:08

▶ This is not new.

这并不新鲜。

▶ But social media has amplified the radicalization, especially of young people.

但社交媒体放大了激进化，尤其是年轻人的激进化。

▶ People are spending way too much time on screens and as governor Spencer Cox, a Republican from Utah who I admire greatly.

人们在屏幕上花费了太多时间，正如我非常钦佩的犹他州共和党人斯宾塞·考克斯州长所说。

▶ He's encouraging people to get off the screens and go touch grass, get back into your neighborhoods, build your community, and start seeing the good and everybody.

他鼓励人们离开屏幕，去接触现实（字面：触摸草地），回到你的邻里，建设你的社区，开始看到每个人身上的优点。

00:15:33

▶ Because that is the American way, it's the way of the free world.

因为那是美国的方式，是自由世界的方式。

▶ And we have to get to it.

我们必须做到这一点。

▶ If the President won't lead us there, I do have faith that Americans on the center right and center left will unify.

如果总统不领导我们走向那里，我确实相信中右和中左的美国人会团结起来。

▶ But I will tell you, social media is making this even more difficult than ever because people have become indoctrinated in some bizarre theories, misinformation, and mistruth.

但我要告诉你，社交媒体使这变得比以往任何时候都更加困难，因为人们已经被灌输了一些奇怪的理论、错误信息和谎言。

00:15:57

▶ Is that maybe a starting point for finding that consensus and that unity that may be both sides on the hill could work together to pass legislation, their meaningful legislation, their free regulation, which they have failed to do thus far?

这或许能成为寻找共识与团结的起点，让国会两党能够共同通过立法——通过他们迄今未能实现的有意义的立法和自由监管？

▶ Yeah, I'd have to say Katrina, I'm yet to see any country in the world, at least free countries in the world, manage social media and it's ill well.

是的卡特里娜，我必须说，我尚未见过世界上有任何国家——至少自由世界国家——能妥善管理社交媒体及其弊病。

▶ And I think it's a unique challenge for the world's democracies to balance that intersection between freedom, freedom of speech, but also security, personal safety and security.

我认为对全球民主国家而言，平衡自由（包括言论自由）与安全及人身保障之间的交叉点是一项独特挑战。

00:16:33

▶ And I'm not sure there's any legislation pending right now that would address that.

我不确定目前是否有任何待审议立法能解决这个问题。

▶ I happen to increasingly favor an age minimum for the use of social media accounts, just as we have, of course, for drivers, for consumption of alcohol for voting.

我越来越倾向于设定社交媒体账户使用年龄下限，就像我们对驾驶、饮酒和投票设定的年龄限制一样。

▶ I think that would be one step in the right direction.

我认为这是迈向正确方向的一步。

▶ But we need ideas from wherever they come, not right or left, because this is affecting all citizens of the free world.

但我们需要集思广益，不分左右派别，因为这正影响着自由世界所有公民。

00:16:59

▶ And I think sadly our legislative bodies all around the world have failed to keep up with the rapidly changing tech culture.

可悲的是，我认为全球立法机构都未能跟上快速变革的科技文化。

▶ And therefore, many are operating in vacuums with impunity.

因此许多机构在真空中运作却免受追责。

▶ And it's high time that we stop fighting one another and fight for the policies that will keep people safe and secure and allow democracies to endure for generations to come.

现在正是停止内斗、为保障人民安全与维护民主制度世代存续而奋斗的时候。

00:17:22
