🎵 This week, the Trump family's crypto firm announced a $1.5 billion digital coin deal.

本周，特朗普家族的加密货币公司宣布了一项15亿美元的数字货币交易。

🎵 Another investment in a venture that's already raked in millions for president Trump and his family.

这是特朗普总统及其家族已从中获利数百万的又一笔投资。

🎵 But crypto is just one of many ways the First family is making money.

但加密货币只是第一家族赚钱的众多方式之一。

▶ There are merch sales and meme coin social media platform.

还有商品销售和 meme 币社交媒体平台。

bilibili 00:00:19

▶ Of course, real estate projects in the Middle East.

当然，还有中东的房地产项目。

▶ It's a dizzying number of deals that leave a huge question.

如此多的交易令人眼花缭乱，也留下了一个巨大的疑问。

▶ The number how much is President Trump pocketing off the presidency?

这个数字就是：特朗普总统从总统职位中赚了多少钱？

▶ That is the title of the piece you see there in The New Yorker, where staff writer David Kirkpatrick tried to answer that question.

这就是《纽约客》那篇文章的标题，撰稿人大卫·柯克帕特里克试图回答这个问题。

bilibili 00:00:39

▶ And David joins me now.

大卫现在加入了我们的讨论。

▶ Thank you so much for being here.

非常感谢你的到来。

▶ Did you get an answer to your question?

你找到问题的答案了吗？

▶ What is the number?

具体数字是多少？

▶ I came up with the best answer I could. at press time, and it was $3.4 billion.

我在截稿时得出了我能给出的最佳答案：34亿美元。

▶ astonishing.

令人震惊。

▶ It's probably gone up since that.

这个数字可能还在增长。

▶ Okay, so let's break down that eye popping number.

好的，我们来分解一下这个惊人的数字。

bilibili 00:01:04

▶ more than $3 billion would be crypto.

其中超过30亿美元来自加密货币。

▶ That's where you identify most of the profits.

这是你发现大部分利润的地方。

▶ How much have the president and his family made in crypto?

总统及其家族在加密货币中赚了多少钱？

▶ And how?

以及如何赚到的？

▶ Well, what's most remarkable is the number of transactions, the number of deals, the number of ways that the family has sought to make money and I should tell you, when I set out my method, here was first look at some streams of income and decide which one is it coming from the presidency.

最引人注目的是交易的数量、交易的数量以及家族赚钱的方式。我应该告诉你，当我开始我的方法时，首先查看了一些收入来源，并确定哪些是来自总统职位。

bilibili 00:01:36

▶ Does it depend on the presidency?

它是否依赖于总统职位？

🎧 And two, how much they made out of it?

其次，他们从中赚了多少钱？

🎧 So in that category, Truth Social on the company that holds it, Trump Media and Technology Group is definitely depending on the presidency.

因此，在这一类别中，持有Truth Social的公司——特朗普媒体与技术集团——绝对依赖于总统职位。

🎧 in the last month, the biggest chunk of what I'm calling their money from crypto has come through Trump Media and Technology Group.

在过去一个月里，我所说的他们从加密货币中赚到的最大一部分来自特朗普媒体与技术集团。

 00:01:55

🎧 It has a stock that is basically a kind of financial indicator of the mood about the president.

它的股票基本上是一种反映对总统情绪的经济指标。

🎧 It's a it's a meme stock.

它是一种 meme 股票。

🎧 In other words, the stock trades only on happily for the president.

换句话说，这只股票的交易完全基于对总统的乐观情绪。

🎧 But they've taken that meme stock and they've swapped it for cash and bitcoin.

但他们已经将这只 meme 股票兑换成了现金和比特币。

🎧 So they have $3.1 billion of cash in Bitcoin on the books.

因此，他们的账面上有31亿美元的现金和比特币。

 00:02:15

🎧 The president holds 42% of that company.

总统持有该公司42%的股份。

▶ His share of that is, you know, more than $1 billion.

他的份额超过10亿美元。

▶ so that's a that's a $1 billion bump in his net worth just in the last couple of months.

因此，仅仅在过去几个月里，他的净资产就增加了10亿美元。

▶ Eric and Donald Trump Jr responded to your reporting about all of this.

埃里克和小唐纳德·特朗普对你的报道做出了回应。

▶ They were on Fox this morning.

他们今早出现在福克斯新闻上。

▶ I want to play what they said and get your response.

我想播放他们说的话并听听你的回应。

 00:02:37

▶ Bonus if you're reading. We had nowhere to go. Capital one stripped 300 bank accounts for me, 300 in the middle of the night. We didn't have a damn choice. Trump was the only guy that was actually a businessman before that. Are we supposed to stop running our businesses? doing anything? He's not involved in these things. We are running those businesses as we have.

如果你在看的话，额外补充。我们无处可去。第一资本银行在半夜关闭了我300个银行账户。我们别无选择。特朗普是之前唯一真正做过商人的人。我们难道应该停止经营我们的业务吗？做任何事情？他没有参与这些事情。我们一直在经营这些业务。

▶ David.

大卫。

▶ Well, you know, those are those are points to the families made before, the first part in a kind of a garbled way, what Eric Trump saying there is that they got into crypto because they feel they were blackballed by the big banks.

嗯，你知道，这些都是家族之前提出的观点，第一部分有点混乱，埃里克·特朗普的意思是，他们进入加密货币领域是因为他们觉得自己被大银行排挤了。

 00:03:14

▶ What he's leaving out is the banks that stop doing business with the family did so after the attack on the capitol of January 6th.

他没有提到的是，那些停止与家族合作的银行是在1月6日国会大厦袭击事件之后才这么做的。

▶ and other banks did step in.

而其他银行确实介入了。

▶ The other point that, Don Jr is making, which is that, you know, they're a they're a business family. They they should be able to stay in business.

小唐纳德提出的另一点是，他们是一个商业家族，他们应该能够继续经营业务。

▶ When I went through their income streams, I set aside all the money. That's they're all business, you know, the hotels, things like the hotel, all the deals that grew out of their old business. Okay, fine. You know, a lot of people might say they should have divested from that, but fine. But I'm only talking about ways that they're trying to monetize the presidency.

当我梳理他们的收入来源时，我把所有纯粹的业务收入都排除在外，比如酒店和其他从旧业务中发展出来的交易。好吧，很多人可能会说他们应该剥离这些业务，但没关系。我只讨论他们试图从总统职位中获利的方式。

 00:03:53

▶ Where is it in one way or the other? They're trying to cash in specifically on the fact that Donald Trump is in the Oval Office.

无论以何种方式，他们都在试图利用唐纳德·特朗普担任总统这一事实获利。

▶ Nobody's done that before.

以前没有人这样做过。

▶ And that's what's so exceptional here.

这就是这里如此特殊的地方。

▶ That is such an important distinction.

这是一个非常重要的区别。

▶ I'm glad that you, differentiated that between the fact that, as Don junior said, he was a businessman. Of course, he was. And and the businesses he had before he ran for office and what they have done since.

我很高兴你区分了这一点，正如小唐纳德所说，他曾经是个商人。当然，他是。以及他在竞选总统之前的业务和他们之后所做的事情。

 00:04:21

▶ Speaking of that, there are a lot of big real estate deals that you wrote about.

说到这个，你写了很多大型房地产交易。

▶ There are smaller ventures as well, private merch sales.

还有一些较小的项目，比如私人商品销售。

▶ In fact, you point out in your piece, you can buy a $40 MAGA hat here on his official campaign site, which that money goes to the campaign. Or you can buy it via the Trump Organization for $55. That money does not go to the campaign.

事实上，你在文章中指出，你可以在他的官方竞选网站上花40美元买一顶MAGA帽子，这笔钱会用于竞选。或者你可以通过特朗普组织花55美元购买，这笔钱不会用于竞选。

 00:04:47

▶ I don't think I realize that you can buy it on Trump or, you know, as part of his business, the political merch.

我之前没有意识到你可以在特朗普组织购买，或者作为他业务的一部分购买政治商品。

▶ Yeah. I was really dumbstruck when I realized that.

是的。当我意识到这一点时，我真的惊呆了。

▶ On his financial disclosure forms disclosing his personal income, he's including sales of what look like campaign merchandise, the kinds of things that were I a Trump supporter, I would buy thinking I was supporting the MAGA cause and its candidates, but it's actually going into his own pocket.

在他的财务披露表格中，他包括了看起来像是竞选商品的销售，这些东西如果我是特朗普的支持者，我会购买以支持MAGA事业及其候选人，但实际上钱进了他自己的口袋。

 00:05:16

▶ That's where I'm pretty sure unprecedented.

这就是我认为前所未有的地方。

▶ You know what what readers are going to want to know after they read the article is, you know, all these payments is any of them, an effort to buy influence, a kind of quid pro quo.

你知道读者在读完文章后会想知道的是，所有这些支付是否是为了换取影响力，一种交换条件。

▶ And those things are very, very hard to prove.

而这些事情非常难以证明。

▶ But for me, the takeaway is that given the astonishing rate at which they're making this money, given the obvious zeal to make more money, it does make the question more pressing.

但对我来说，关键在于，考虑到他们赚钱的惊人速度，以及明显的赚钱热情，这个问题确实变得更加紧迫。

 00:05:44

▶ if you're making a payment to them, do you have reason to believe that they're going to give you something in return?

如果你向他们支付款项，是否有理由相信他们会给你一些回报？

▶ David Kirkpatrick, just fascinating reporting. Thank you so much for being here and sharing it with us.

大卫·柯克帕特里克，非常精彩的报道。非常感谢你的到来并与我们分享。

▶ The White House responded to David's reporting with this from the press secretary, Karoline Leavitt. She told the New Yorker, quote, She says the president has sacrificed money by leaving business for public office.

白宫通过新闻秘书卡罗琳·莱维特对大卫的报道做出了回应。她告诉《纽约客》，总统为了公职离开商业领域，牺牲了金钱。
