⏮ I think unless you see tighter sanctions against Russia by the United States, unless you see, you know, the EU exceeding to Washington's demand to sort of sanction countries by Russian oil, unless we see snapback sanctions against Iran, then I think the market, the market might react if there is the risk of a supply shock.

除非美国加强对俄制裁、欧盟超额满足华盛顿对俄油制裁要求、或对伊朗实施快速恢复制裁，否则市场可能只在面临供应冲击风险时才有反应。

▶ And so long as it's not repeated, I think the market is pretty sanguine at the moment.

只要袭击不再发生，市场目前相当#乐观#。

▶ Okay, thank you very much, Kate.

非常感谢凯特的分析。

▶ We appreciate your analysis on that.

我们感激您的分析。

▶ Now the UK's new business secretary, Peter Kyle is arriving in Beijing today for talks aimed to rejuvenate the UK and China's trade relationship.

英国新任商业大臣彼得·凯尔今日抵达北京，旨在#重振#英中贸易关系。

 00:17:32

▶ China is the UK's fifth largest trading partner, but according to UK government figures, exports to China have been falling over the past few years.

中国是英国第五大贸易伙伴，但英国政府数据显示近年对华出口持续下降。

▶ So what is likely to be achieved on this trip?

此行可能取得什么成果？

▶ Well, Stephen Lynch is International Trade Director at the British Chambers of Commerce.

英国#商会#国际贸易总监斯蒂芬·林奇#对此进行解读。

▶ Hello to you.

您好。

▶ What do you think will be achieved?

您认为会取得什么成果？

 00:17:54

▶ Well, firstly, I actually think this is quite a significant moment in the bilateral relationship.

首先，我认为这是双边关系中的重要时刻。

▶ And I know that might sound quite overstated just for trade dialogues, but, but, Jekko is really important because, one, it reestablished that political engagement.

我知道这听起来可能有些夸大其词——仅仅针对贸易对话而言——但杰科会议确实至关重要，因为它首先重新确立了政治#接触#机制。

▶ We've seen that at the highest level in the last year of the first year of the Labour government re-engagement.

我们在工党政府执政首年的最高层级会议上见证了这种重新#接触#。

 00:18:15

▶ And in many ways, resetting that relationship.

并以多种方式重置了双边关系。

▶ And number two, it also looks to chip away at really challenging market access barriers for real wins for business.

其次，它也在着力消除极具挑战性的市场准入壁垒，为企业带来切实利益。

▶ So the trade secretary is soon to announce about a billion pounds of trade investment deals for the next five years.

贸易大臣即将宣布未来五年价值约十亿英镑的贸易投资协议。

▶ So that is incredibly significant.

因此这具有极其重大的意义。

▶ And that combination is exactly what businesses have been calling for.

这种组合正是企业界一直呼吁的。

 00:18:36

▶ And let's just say, you know, this is the first time we've had formal trade dialogues with the second largest economy on the planet for the last in seven years.

值得一提的是，这是我们七年来首次与全球第二大经济体举行正式贸易对话。

▶ So, you know, this is a significant moment in the UK-China relationship, especially at a time in the UK government.

所以说这是中英关系的重要时刻，尤其当前英国政府的核心使命就是经济增长。

▶ Number one mission is growth.

头等要务就是经济增长。

▶ Yeah, absolutely.

确实如此。

 00:18:51

▶ It certainly is.

这确实是。

▶ But again, for Peter Kyle, who is literally just in the job as business secretary, has to tread this very carefully, doesn't he?

但刚就任商业大臣的彼得·凯尔必须非常谨慎地#把握#分寸，不是吗？

▶ Because, although, of course, the focus is on trade with China, he's got to keep the US in the back of his mind and our relationship with them.

因为尽管重点是对华贸易，他仍需时刻考量与美国的关系。

▶ And of course, the tariffs deal we have with them currently.

以及当前与美国达成的关税协议。

bilibili 00:19:12

▶ He doesn't want to undermine that in any way.

他绝不希望以任何方式#破坏#这种关系。

▶ Yeah, absolutely.

确实如此。

▶ And I think one of the big questions is, do we need to choose between the US and indeed China?

关键在于：我们是否必须在中美之间做出选择？

▶ And I think for the last few years, we've sort of seen a battleground of extremes in the UK-China relationship, sort of hawkish, xenophobia, where any form of engagement is seen as a risk.

过去几年我们看到中英关系陷入极端对立的战场——鹰派排外主义将任何形式的接触都视为风险。

▶ And on the other side, it's like the unfettered naive access in regards to just pure economic engagement.

而另一极端则是完全不受约束的#天真#接触，只追求纯粹经济#往来#。

▶ So, so Peter Kyle needs to go into this very pragmatically, quite clear-eyed understanding that there's risks of engagement with China, but engage.

因此彼得·凯尔需要以务实态度应对，清醒认识到对华#接触#存在风险但仍坚持交往。

▶ We actually mitigate a lot of those risks through engagement, and we can make better decisions for the UK.

我们恰恰通过#接触#来#化解#多数风险，从而为英国做出更明智的决策。

 00:19:48

▶ And indeed, Peter Kyle has five days into this job, we've had a major reshuffle here in the UK.

事实上彼得·凯尔上任刚五天，英国就进行了重大#改组#。

▶ And actually, I think this is a really important demonstration that we've got to clear a more coherent strategy towards China from the UK.

这实际上是非常重要的#宣示#——英国必须制定更#连贯#的对华战略。

▶ And actually taking these concrete steps towards UK trade is really, really important.

而采取这些促进英国贸易的具体措施确实至关重要。

 00:20:06

▶ So, we absolutely welcome Peter Kyle's engagement with China going into them quite clear-eyed, pushing on these market access barriers, which have a real significant impact for UK PLC.

我们完全欢迎彼得·凯尔以清醒认知开展对华交往，着力突破这些对英国企业具有重大影响的市场准入壁垒。

▶ Okay, Stephen Lynch, thank you for your time.

好的，斯蒂芬·#林奇#，感谢您接受采访。

▶ We will keep a very close eye on Peter Kyle's trip to Beijing.

我们将密切关注彼得·凯尔的北京之行。

▶ Let's stay on the subject of trade.

让我们继续关注贸易话题。

 00:20:26

▶ Trading between African nations is drastically lower than trade between other continents, accounting for around 14 to 18 percent.

非洲国家间贸易额相比其他大洲#急剧#偏低，仅占贸易总量的14%至18%。

▶ But great efforts are being made to boost regional integration.

但各方正大力#推动#区域#一体化#进程。

▶ The continent's largest trade fair is drawing to a close today in the Algerian capital of Algiers, where around 35,000 people have been attending with more than 2,000 exhibitors there.

非洲最大贸易展会今日在阿尔及利亚首都阿尔及尔闭幕，吸引约3.5万名参会者及超2000家参展商。

 00:20:55

▶ And the aim is to try and create an estimated $44 billion in trade and investment deals.

展会目标是促成约440亿美元的贸易与投资协议。

▶ So, how has it gone?

那么成效如何？

▶ Well, Dr Yemi Kail is chief economist and managing director of research and trade intelligence at Afresan Bank Group, which is one of the organizers of this fair.

本次展会主办方之一非洲银行集团首席经济学家兼研究与贸易情报董事总经理耶米·凯尔博士将为我们解析。

▶ Hello to you.

您好。

▶ Hello, Sally.

您好莎莉。

▶ So, has it been a good week?

本周展会是否成功？

 00:21:19

▶ Yes, I think all we have seen so far is actually one of the best trade fairs.

我认为这确实是迄今最成功的贸易展会之一。

▶ This is the fourth one.

这是第四届展会。

▶ This share of the volume of people that came in, the number of connections that we have seen.

参展人数和达成的合作数量都创下纪录。

▶ That's exactly what the trade fair is supposed to achieve.

这正实现了贸易展会的宗旨。

▶ I think there's a lot of literature out there that links directly links expanding into African trade with Africa's growth and development.

大量研究都表明非洲贸易扩张与非洲增长发展存在直接关联。

 00:21:45

▶ And this is one of the things that Afresan Bank in partnership with the African Union and the FCA CPSPTariat is trying to introduce, so as a way to remove some of the banking constraints that limit into a country like you said, it's hovering between 50 to 18 percent on pay to other countries.

这正是非洲银行与非盟等机构合作试图解决的问题——消除银行业限制因素（如您所说跨境支付比例徘徊在15%-18%）。

▶ So, that's been extremely successful so far.

目前这方面取得极大成功。

▶ Okay.

明白了。

 00:22:07

▶ And just to talk us through some of the main reasons why it's so low at the moment, trade between African countries.

请分析当前非洲国家间贸易水平偏低的主要原因。

🎧 I think we did a study, China, understand why into African trade was low.

我们曾开展研究探寻根源。

🎧 One of the major reasons was infrastructure.

主要原因是#基础设施#不足。

🎧 As you know, Africa is an infrastructure of financing gap, about $800 billion.

非洲存在约8000亿美元的基础设施资金缺口。

🎧 It's a lot easier for African countries to trade with Europe to send their goods to Europe to Asia down to trade within the continent because of such infrastructure both to next.

由于基础设施匮乏，非洲国家与欧亚贸易反而比大陆内部贸易更便利。

 00:22:39

🎧 That's one of the reasons.

这是原因之一。

🎧 There was also payment systems to African countries to trade within themselves.

其次是支付体系问题。

🎧 They will need foreign currencies, usually the dollar.

非洲国家内部贸易需使用美元等外汇。

🎧 That was one of that challenge.

这构成挑战。

🎧 So when does the global crisis and dollars are living the continent, the best place living the continent, even though the demand in African countries still remain because they don't have that intermediary, that dollar to transact.

当全球危机导致美元流出非洲时，尽管各国需求仍在，却因缺乏美元交易中介而无法维持正常贸易。

▶ They are unable to continue business as usual.

因此难以维持正常商业往来。

▶ So, on that reason why it's just kept this low.

这是贸易额持续低迷的另一原因。

▶ Another reason we found was due diligence.

我们还发现#尽职调查#不足。

▶ Many African, well, market intelligence and due diligence.

许多非洲国家缺乏市场情报和#尽职调查#能力。

▶ Many African countries, not even realize what is being produced by other African countries.

它们甚至不了解其他非洲国家的生产能力。

▶ So in Nigeria, there was no note that what is imports from the country in Europe is actually produced in South Africa or in Kenya.

例如尼日利亚不知道从欧洲进口的商品实际产自南非或肯尼亚。

▶ They don't have that information.

它们缺乏这类信息。

▶ And even if they have that information due diligence and showing that the person they are treating is a problem that don't have it.

即便获得信息，也因尽职调查缺失无法验证交易对象可靠性。

▶ So there are several other different reasons which are trying to tackle.

我们正着力解决这些多重因素。

▶ And can I ask you at this event, did you all talk about President Trump's tariffs policy?

请问展会上是否讨论了特朗普总统的关税政策？

▶ Because I know for some African countries, it's actually quite devastating.

我知道这对某些非洲国家造成严重冲击。

bilibili 00:23:52

▶ We've spoken to business leaders in Africa, certainly places like Lusutu where the high tariffs could possibly put them out of business.

我们采访过莱索托等地的商界领袖，高关税可能使他们破产。

▶ Well, overall, the direct impact of the tariffs are not significant on the continent.

总体而言关税对非洲大陆直接影响有限。

▶ And that's because Africa's direct, direct trading as a group with the US is after quite a small several five percent.

因为非洲整体对美贸易额仅占5%左右。

bilibili 00:24:16

▶ But then, like you said, there are some countries, so to South Africa, it's Wattini that have bigger exposure.

但如您所说，南非等少数国家确实面临较大#风险敞口#。

▶ Very few of them have bigger exposures to the US.

只有极少数国家对美国存在较大风险敞口。

▶ And they have been significantly affected.

这些国家受到严重影响。

▶ And African markets come in to provide some form of support during this time, not just supporting in terms of financing, but also helping them to find mitigation pathways or that trading or the outlets for their for their for their commodity.

非洲市场在此期间提供支持，不仅通过融资援助，还帮助寻找风险缓释途径和商品贸易出口。

 00:24:41

🎧 So, yes, depending on the countries that you look at, there are some of them are significantly affected, both as a continent as a whole, they are not.

因此具体影响因国而异，但整个非洲大陆受影响程度不深。

🎧 If you look at the trade data for the first half of 2025, we actually see the African countries actually still grew even stronger this year than it did last year.

2025年上半年贸易数据显示非洲国家增速实际上超过去年同期。

🎧 And I was partly as a result of newer markets as well as greater commitment to interact with country on the day of the FDA.

这部分得益于新市场开拓及各国加强互动的承诺。

 00:25:05

🎧 Dr. M. E. Kale, thank you for your time.

梅·凯尔博士，感谢您接受采访。

🎧 Good to get your take.

很高兴听取您的见解。

🎧 What's going on in Africa?

非洲正在发生的变化确实引人关注。

🎧 Really interesting.

非常有趣。

🎧 Let's just take you live to northern France, Laurent Conn, where you can see protesters.

现在切换到法国北部洛朗康的直播画面，可见抗议者聚集。

🎧 We did talk about the fact that today is a day of action, civil protesters.

我们曾提到今天是公民抗议行动日。

🎧 They're outside an Amazon warehouse.

他们正围堵亚马逊#仓库#。

bilibili 00:25:25

▶ So, France bracing itself for protests across the country and railways and stations on the roads.

法国正严阵以待全国范围的抗议活动，涉及铁路公路交通枢纽。
