▶ Mel, good morning.

梅尔，早上好。

▶ So this hearing went on for three hours and we saw what you call a rare moment of bipartisan backlash against Kennedy, against some of his policies, the people he appears appears to be surrounding himself with in lieu of scientific experts who are respected by the mainstream medical community for lawmakers just what seemed to be the most central issues here.

所以这场听证会持续了三个小时，我们看到了你所说的两党罕见地一致反对肯尼迪，反对他的一些政策，反对他似乎用那些受主流医学界尊重的科学专家之外的人围绕在自己身边，对立法者来说，这里最核心的问题似乎是什么。

▶ >> Well, I would say the overarching concern of that hearing yesterday from senators on both sides of the aisle, we should mention was the policy that has been instituted towards vaccines.

>> 嗯，我想说昨天听证会上两党参议员最主要的关切，我们应该提到的是已经制定的疫苗政策。

▶ and they drilled in on a number of different issues that they say are extremely concerning towards them.

他们深入探讨了许多他们表示极为关切的的不同问题。

 00:03:38

▶ One of them being the CDC's decision under Kennedy's watch to cancel research for some critical vaccine research research that contributed to the creation of the COVID vaccine under Trump's first term.

其中之一是疾控中心在肯尼迪任内取消某些关键疫苗研究的决定，这些研究曾在特朗普第一个任期内为COVID疫苗的诞生做出贡献。

▶ Uh they also were really concerned with the changing recommendations for the COVID vaccine and arguing that this has really limited availability in a number ofies.

呃，他们还对COVID疫苗不断变化的建议深感担忧，并认为这确实限制了许多地方的可用性。

▶ Kennedy tried to deny that, but no doubt it is clear that because of these changing recommendations, these changing policies, it is having a real impact on people's day-to-day lives when they go to the pharmacy.

肯尼迪试图否认这一点，但毫无疑问，由于这些不断变化的建议和政策，当人们去药房时，这对他们的日常生活产生了实实在在的影响。

 00:04:14

▶ And finally, they also really raised concerns about some of the personnel shakeups, not just the firing of the CDC director, but also this key advisory board.

最后，他们还对一些人事变动表示严重关切，不仅是解雇疾控中心主任，还有这个关键的咨询委员会。

▶ Kennedy promised that he would not touch that board, uh, this board of people who make recommendations about vaccines.

肯尼迪曾承诺他不会动那个委员会，呃，这个负责提出疫苗建议的委员会。

▶ He promised that when he initially got confirmed, but when he got into the job, he actually fired that entire panel and replaced it with vaccine skeptics.

他在最初获得确认时承诺过，但当他上任后，他实际上解雇了整个小组，并用疫苗怀疑论者取而代之。

bilibili 00:04:38

▶ And so there's a lot of concern about what that panel is going to do going forward in terms of recommendations, recommendations, not just about COVID, but about other critical vaccines.

因此，人们非常担忧该小组未来在建议方面会做什么，不仅是关于COVID的建议，还有关于其他关键疫苗的建议。

▶ So it was certainly a bipartisan grilling from both sides of the aisles yesterday.

所以昨天确实是来自两党的一次两党严厉盘问。

▶ >> Mel Kennedy appeared to strike a different tone at this hearing specifically when it comes to these vaccines.

>> 梅尔，肯尼迪在这次听证会上似乎采取了不同的语气，特别是在这些疫苗问题上。

bilibili 00:04:57

▶ So he told Colorado Senator Michael Bennett, for example, that vaccines developed with mRNA technology.

例如，他告诉科罗拉多州参议员迈克尔·贝内特，使用mRNA技术开发的疫苗。

▶ Of course, that was used for these co shots that they cause serious harm and death.

当然，那被用于这些co疫苗，它们导致严重伤害和死亡。

▶ That's something that's not supported by clinical trial data or the scientific community.

这是临床试验数据或科学界所不支持的说法。

▶ And obviously, uh, he people try to get answers out of him on that.

显然，呃，人们试图就此从他那里得到答案。

 00:05:15

▶ At the end of the day, was the health secretary able to back up any of the drastic changes that he's made to vaccine recommendations or to the leadership at the CDC?

归根结底，这位卫生部长能否为他针对疫苗建议或疾控中心领导层所做的任何 drastic 改变提供支持？

▶ Well, certainly not to the liking of the scientific community or the senators that were grilling him at yesterday's hearing.

嗯，当然不能让科学界或昨天在听证会上盘问他的参议员们满意。

▶ I mean, he really struggled to answer some basic questions, particularly as it relates to the COVID vaccine.

我的意思是，他确实难以回答一些基本问题，特别是与COVID疫苗有关的问题。

 00:05:36

▶ Uh, he struggled to back up a lot of his assertions.

呃，他难以支持他的许多主张。

▶ He continued to say misleading things about the vaccines.

他继续就疫苗发表误导性言论。

▶ Uh so overall I would say there was a lot of unhappiness with his performance.

呃，所以总的来说，我认为他的表现令很多人不满。

▶ But we should point out that performance yesterday was for an audience of one and that is President Donald Trump who likes to see fighters.

但我们应该指出，昨天的表现是给一个人看的，那就是喜欢看到斗士的唐纳德·特朗普总统。

 00:05:54

他喜欢看到人们与国会议员针锋相对。

▶ So while it may have not been satisfactory for the senators or the scientific community, certainly that was a pleasing performance for President Donald Trump.

因此，虽然这可能不能让参议员或科学界满意，但对唐纳德·特朗普总统来说，这无疑是一场令人愉快的表演。

▶ >> And some of those Republican senator questions were also clearly for an audience of one as well.

>> 而且其中一些共和党参议员的问题显然也是给一个人看的。

 00:06:09

▶ So Mel, ahead of this hearing, the former CDC director Susan Minarz published an op-ed in the Wall Street Journal accusing Kennedy of politicizing public health.

那么梅尔，在这次听证会之前，前疾控中心主任苏珊·米纳兹在《华尔街日报》发表了一篇专栏文章，指责肯尼迪将公共卫生政治化。

▶ She wrote that before she was fired, she was quote, "to told to preapprove the recommendations of a vaccine advisory panel newly filled with people who have publicly expressed antivaccine rhetoric."

她写道，在她被解雇之前，她被要求预先批准一个疫苗咨询委员会的建议，该委员会新近充满了公开表达反疫苗言论的人。

▶ Kennedy was asked about this.

肯尼迪被问及此事。

 00:06:31

▶ He spoke about her fire firing at the hearing.

他在听证会上谈到了解雇她的事。

▶ What did he say in response?

他对此作何回应？

▶ Well, he was completely combative and defensive and in fact, he denied that that meeting ever took place.

嗯，他完全是一副好斗和防御的姿态，事实上，他否认那次会议曾经发生过。

▶ He said he has never had a private one-on-one meeting with the CDC director.

他说他从未与疾控主任举行过私人一对一会议。

▶ And then he defended the decision uh to get rid of her.

然后他为 uh 解雇她的决定辩护。

 00:06:48

▶ He said that his goal stepping into this role was to restore the trust and credibility at the CDC.

他说他担任这一角色的目标是恢复疾控中心的信任和信誉。

▶ He talked a lot about the missteps that the CDC made during the COVID era, some of the things that they recommended that later turned out to be perhaps unnecessary and really used that as his argument for why some of these people deserve to be ousted.

他谈了很多疾控中心在COVID时代犯下的错误，他们推荐的一些事情后来被证明可能是不必要的，并真正以此作为他 argument 为什么其中一些人应该被赶下台的理由。

▶ But we should point out that the CDC director was just confirmed this summer by the Senate to that role as CDC director.

但我们应该指出，这位疾控中心主任今年夏天才刚被参议院确认为疾控中心主任。

 00:07:14

她在COVID那年并不是主任。

▶ So clearly she had enough confidence from President Trump to be nominated to that role in the beginning.

所以很明显，她最初得到了特朗普总统足够的信任才被提名担任该职务。

▶ Uh so just an extremely combative defensive performance from the secretary yesterday.

呃，所以部长昨天只是一场极其好斗的防御性表演。

▶ >> We also discussed this, reported this earlier this week that over a thousand staff members at the CDC, they're calling for Kennedy to step down.

>> 我们本周早些时候也讨论并报道过，疾控中心有一千多名工作人员呼吁肯尼迪下台。

bilibili 00:07:34

▶ Uh Georgia Senator Raphael Waro told Kennedy, you know, right to his face yesterday that that he should resign.

呃，佐治亚州参议员拉斐尔·沃诺昨天当面告诉肯尼迪，他应该辞职。

▶ Are there any signs that his future is in jeopardy or as you point out, did that is that audience of one still happy?

是否有任何迹象表明他的未来岌岌可危，或者如你所指出的，那位唯一的观众是否仍然满意？

▶ none of them actually went so far as to say that he should step down.

但没有人真正走到要求他下台的地步。

▶ And perhaps most importantly, as we were talking about, Trump seems to still have confidence in his secretary.

也许最重要的是，正如我们之前谈到的，特朗普似乎仍然对他的部长有信心。

▶ Just listen to Trump last night talking about the hearing.

听听特朗普昨晚关于听证会的讲话。

 00:08:08

▶ >> He's uh he's got a different take and we want to listen to all of those takes.

他呢，他有不同的看法，我们想听听所有这些看法。

▶ But I I heard he did very well today.

但我我听说他今天表现得很好。

▶ But it's not your standard uh it's not your standard talk.

但这不是你标准的，呃，不是你标准的讲话。

▶ I would say that and that has to do with medical and vaccines.

我会这么说，而这与医学和疫苗有关。

▶ But if you look at what's going on in the world with health and look at this country also with regard to health, I like the fact that he's different.

但如果你看看世界上在健康方面发生的事情，再看看这个国家在健康方面的情况，我喜欢他与众不同这一点。

 00:08:32

▶ >> So at this point, Trump expressing confidence in the secretary, which means his job is safe, at least for now, guys.

>> 所以在这一点上，特朗普表达了对部长的信心，这意味着他的职位是安全的，至少目前是这样，各位。

▶ >> Mel, thank you so much.

>> 梅尔，非常感谢你。

非常感谢。

▶ >> Well, for more reaction from the medical community now, let's bring in NBC News medical analyst, Dr. Vin Gupta.

>> 那么，现在为了获得医学界的更多反应，我们请来NBC新闻医学分析师文·古普塔博士。

▶ Dr. Gupta, always great to see you.

古普塔博士，总是很高兴见到您。

bilibili 00:08:47

▶ Um, let's start just with your reaction as a doctor to some of the claims from yesterday.

嗯，首先从您作为医生的角度，谈谈对昨天一些说法的反应。

▶ Specifically, I want to talk related to vaccines and some other common medical treatments like anti-depressants that were made by Health Secretary Kennedy yesterday.

具体来说，我想谈谈与疫苗以及卫生部长肯尼迪昨天提出的其他一些常见医疗方法（如抗抑郁药）相关的说法。

▶ How would you characterize his views?

您如何描述他的观点？

▶ >> Well, Savannah, good morning.

>> 嗯，萨凡纳，早上好。

bilibili 00:09:04

▶ I you know I'm taking this uh from an ICU on the west coast and so uh I've had a chance to confer with a lot of my colleagues in the medical community across the country uh to a tea uh we all think it's dangerous and delusional and uh it's it's emar I'm embarrassed for the uh secretary of health uh and here's why you know he's linking mRNA vaccine technology Savannah to the onset of the chronic disease epidemic as though it happened just a few years ago which is absurd.

你知道，我是在西海岸的一间ICU里进行这次连线的，所以我有机会与全国医学界的许多同事进行了商议，我们完全一致地认为这是危险和妄想的，我为卫生部长感到尴尬，原因如下：你知道，他将mRNA疫苗技术萨凡纳与慢性病流行的开始联系起来，就好像这是几年前才发生的一样，这很荒谬。

这次会议本来应该是为了什么？

▶ >> Well, it's supposed again this meeting typically in most normal uh Democratic and Republican administrations.

>> 嗯，在大多数正常的，呃，民主党和共和党政府中，这个会议通常。

▶ This meeting is is meant to just issue typical standard recommendations from the advisory committee on immunization practices that then the CDC endorses.

这个会议的目的是由免疫实践咨询委员会发布典型的标准建议，然后CDC予以认可。

▶ And then to your point, insurance companies then say, "Okay, we're going to cover that as we always cover it for patients across the country regard depending on what insurance they have because there's an uncertainty now injected.

▶ >> NBC News senior White House correspondent Garrett Hake joins us now with more on this.

>> NBC新闻高级白宫记者加勒特·哈克现在加入我们，带来更多相关信息。

▶ So Garrett, what are we learning about why the president's expected to rebrand the Defense Department?

那么加勒特，关于总统为何预计要为国防部重塑品牌，我们了解到什么？

▶ I mean, in reality, what does it actually mean?

我的意思是，实际上，这到底意味着什么？

▶ Is this marketing or or is it something else?

这是营销还是别的什么？

▶ Yeah, look Joe, this is a little bit less than meets the eye in terms of this executive order.

是的，你看，乔，就这项行政命令而言，这有点名不副实。

▶ The president is essentially setting up Department of War as a nickname for the Pentagon and saying that Pete Hgset and other officials there can use Secretary of War and related titles while they seek to have the name changed through Congress, which is the only way that you can actually change the name of a cabinet department.

总统实质上是将“战争部”设为五角大楼的昵称，并说皮特·赫格塞特和其他那里的官员可以使用“战争部长”及相关头衔，同时他们寻求通过国会来更改名称，而这才是实际更改内阁部门名称的唯一途径。

但总统对此一直相当公开。

bilibili 00:15:00

▶ He likes the branding.

他喜欢这个品牌。

▶ He thinks Secretary of War, Department of War sounds more Marshall and strong.

他认为战争部长、战争部听起来更元帅、更强硬。

▶ And so that's the way he wants to brand it for the time being.

所以这是他暂时想要塑造的品牌形象。

▶ But again, it's really just a nickname signed on a piece of paper today.

但再说一次，这真的只是今天签在纸上的一個暱稱。

🎧 >> Uh Garrett, we also want to ask you about some other news here.

>> 呃，加勒特，我们还想问你一些其他新闻。

🎧 Um this has to do with conversation been happen quite a bit.

嗯，与此前已经进行过不少讨论的话题有关。

 00:15:19

🎧 The the National Guard in DC.

华盛顿特区的国民警卫队。

🎧 So now the District of Columbia has filed a lawsuit against the Trump administration for doing that, for deploying the National Guard.

所以现在哥伦比亚特区已经对特朗普政府这样做、部署国民警卫队提起了诉讼。

🎧 What's being argued in this suit and how's the White House responding?

这场诉讼中争论的焦点是什么？白宫如何回应？

🎧 All of this is particularly confusing because of the unique way in which DC is structured.

所有这一切尤其令人困惑，因为DC的组织结构很独特。

 00:15:36

🎧 Here you have an elected attorney general who represents the district in lawsuits and handles some of the criminal cases here in DC filing this lawsuit saying that the deployment of the guard here is illegal.

这里有一位民选的检察长，代表该地区处理诉讼并在DC这里处理一些刑事案件，他提起了这项诉讼，称在这里部署警卫队是非法的。

🎧 Uh that it

呃，称它

🎧 Shouldn't be done and that it should be a message to the rest of the country that it can happen here, it can happen elsewhere.

不应该这样做，而且它应该向全国其他地区传递一个信息，即它可能发生在这里，也可能发生在其他地方。

 00:15:54

▶ That's not exactly right in terms of how the guard in DC is actually structured.

就华盛顿特区国民警卫队的实际结构而言，这并不完全正确。

而且华盛顿特区的市长明显不是这起诉讼的一部分。

▶ She's been praising the way that uh the crackdown on crime here has so far kind of worked in the District of Columbia.

她一直在赞扬这里打击犯罪的方式迄今为止在哥伦比亚特区取得的效果。

▶ And so you've got a situation where the White House says this is a distraction.

所以你遇到的情况是，白宫称这是一种干扰。

 00:16:13

▶ They believe that they will ultimately win this lawsuit and that this is essentially a political move by an elected attorney general here in the district.

他们相信他们最终将赢得这场诉讼，并且这本质上是该地区一位民选总检察长的政治举动。

▶ Garrett, we understand that the immigration detention facility that's located in the Florida Everglades known as Alligator Alcatra has gotten a lot of attention.

加勒特，我们了解到，位于佛罗里达大沼泽地的移民拘留设施，被称为“短吻鳄阿尔卡特拉斯”，受到了很多关注。

▶ Now, it is expected to remain open, at least for now.

现在，预计它将继续开放，至少目前是这样。

 00:16:31

▶ That's because a federal appeals court put on hold a lower court judge's order who said shut down operations there.

这是因为联邦上诉法院暂停了一位下级法院法官要求关闭该设施运营的命令。

▶ So, we got a lot of back and forth here legally.

所以，我们在法律上有很多来回拉锯。

▶ What's the latest?

最新情况是什么？

▶ What can you tell us?

你能告诉我们什么？

▶ >> Yeah, I mean, you pretty much have it here, Joe.

>> 是的，乔，你基本上已经掌握了情况。

▶ This original lawsuit that went before a federal judge basically said that this facility didn't meet environmental standards.

这起最初提交给联邦法官的诉讼基本上是说，该设施不符合环境标准。

 00:16:49

▶ It wasn't properly reviewed.

它没有经过适当的审查。

▶ The first district judge in Florida said, "All right, we're going to shut it down."

佛罗里达州的第一地方法院法官说："好吧，我们要关闭它。"

▶ Now, the appeals court here says, "We can leave this facility open while the case continues."

现在，这里的上诉法院说："我们可以在案件审理期间让该设施继续开放。"

▶ The White House is touting this as a victory.

白宫将此吹嘘为一场胜利。

▶ They think this was a sort of a pretext, this environmental case, to try to shut down an immigration policy that some folks in Florida don't like.

他们认为这起环境案件是一种借口，试图关闭佛罗里达州一些人不喜欢的移民政策。

 00:17:09

⏮ Regardless, this facility will remain open in the interim while this case proceeds.

无论如何，在该案进行期间，该设施将暂时保持开放。

⏮ >> All right, Garrett Hake, lot to cover this morning.

>> 好的，加勒特·哈克，今天早上有很多内容要报道。

⏮ Thank you.

谢谢你。

⏮ Well, in a series of rare interviews, a dozen federal judges are speaking out over their frustration with the Supreme Court.

在一系列罕见的采访中，十几名联邦法官公开表达了他们对最高法院的失望。

⏮ >> 10 of these 12 judges told NBC News that the Supreme Court needs to explain its rulings better, specifically when overturning contentious lower court rulings involving the Trump administration.

>> 这12名法官中有10人告诉NBC新闻，最高法院需要更好地解释其裁决，特别是在推翻涉及特朗普政府的有争议的下级法院裁决时。

 00:17:35

⏮ Some of them say they worry that the practice is undermining the judiciary system at a sensitive time.

他们中的一些人说，他们担心这种做法正在一个敏感时期损害司法系统。

⏮ For more on this, let's bring in NBC News senior Supreme Court reporter Lawrence Hurley, who's done fantastic reporting here.

有关此事的更多信息，让我们请进NBC新闻高级最高法院记者劳伦斯·赫利，他在这方面做了非常出色的报道。

⏮ Lawrence, good morning.

劳伦斯，早上好。

▶ Thanks for joining us.

感谢您的加入。

▶ So, these judges interviewed, they pointed to a pattern they say has emerged between the Trump administration and the Supreme Court with one of these judges calling this pattern inexcusable.

那么，这些接受采访的法官指出了一种他们所说的在特朗普政府和最高法院之间出现的模式，其中一名法官称这种模式是不可原谅的。

bilibili 00:18:00

▶ Walk us through their concerns here.

请向我们详细说明他们的担忧。

▶ Yeah, I mean, as you just heard in the last segment, you know, there's there's so many of these cases coming up where courts are intervening to block uh Trump administration policies that are themselves, you know, because of Trump's aggressive use of executive power.

是的，我的意思是，正如你刚才在上一段中听到的，你知道，有这么多案件出现，法院介入阻止特朗普政府的政策，这些政策本身，你知道，是因为特朗普激进地使用行政权力。

▶ And so, the courts are stepping in.

所以，法院正在介入。

bilibili 00:18:19

▶ They're saying, "Okay, let's put this on hold while we figure out whether it's legal or not."

他们说："好吧，在我们弄清楚这是否合法之前，先暂停一下。"

▶ Uh, and then the Trump administration quickly appeals up to the Supreme Court, which obviously has a conservative majority.

然后，特朗普政府迅速上诉到最高法院，最高法院显然拥有保守派多数。

⏮ And the court in many of these cases is then swiftly reversing the lower court or at least putting it on hold.

而在许多此类案件中，最高法院随后迅速推翻下级法院的裁决，或者至少暂停其执行。

🎵 00:18:35

⏮ And in some of those rulings which are not your traditional kind of Supreme Court cases that take months to decide and have oral arguments and long rulings, they're actually decided via very short uh orders that sometimes don't have any explanation of the legal grounds for why the order is being blocked.

其中一些裁决不是那种需要数月时间决定、进行口头辩论和发布长篇裁决的传统最高法院案件，它们实际上是通过非常简短的命令决定的，这些命令有时没有任何关于为何阻止该命令的法律依据的解释。

⏮ And then the case goes back to the lower courts again and the Trump administration touts a huge victory.

然后案件又回到下级法院，特朗普政府则吹嘘取得了一场巨大胜利。

⏮ Um, and this is coming at a time where lower court judges face a lot of criticism from Trump administration officials and uh, MAGA world people on social media in quite harsh terms.

嗯，而这正值下级法院法官面临特朗普政府官员和社交媒体上MAGA世界人士相当严厉的批评之时。

🎵 00:19:10

⏮ And so some of these judges think that the Supreme Court is sort of playing into that rhetoric in a way by not really being careful when it's overturning these rulings.

因此，其中一些法官认为，最高法院在推翻这些裁决时不够谨慎，在某种程度上是在迎合那种言论。

⏮ They think the court should be more careful what it says.

他们认为法院应该更注意自己的言辞。

⏮ It should be more consiliatory towards lower court judges.

它应该对下级法院法官更富有和解精神。

▶ Basically, they're all on the same team.

基本上，他们都在同一个团队。

bilibili 00:19:27

▶ They're all part of the third branch.

他们都是第三部门的一部分。

▶ Uh, and they should be sticking together more even when the court is overturning them.

呃，即使法院推翻他们的裁决，他们也应该更加团结。

▶ >> As you mentioned in your reporting, emergency rulings used to be real rare.

>> 正如你在报道中提到的，紧急裁决过去非常罕见。

▶ They're becoming increasingly common with so many issues popping up we've never really seen before this year.

随着今年出现了许多我们从未真正见过的问题，它们正变得越来越普遍。

bilibili 00:19:42

▶ These cases fall under what's known as the shadow docket.

这些案件属于所谓的“影子案卷”。

▶ Might sound like something out of a spy novel.

听起来可能像间谍小说里的东西。

▶ So, first explain what that means and how many key Trump related cases have we seen in this docket?

那么，首先解释一下这是什么意思，以及我们在这个案卷中看到了多少与特朗普有关的关键案件？

是的。

▶ So, I think just the other day we had like the 23rd Trump administration filing on the emergency docket or shadow docket.

所以，我想就在前几天，我们收到了特朗普政府第23次在紧急案卷或影子案卷上的申请。

bilibili 00:20:03

▶ These are cases where um you know there not like a traditional appeal.

这些案件，嗯，你知道，不像传统的上诉。

▶ It comes up really quickly.

它出现得非常快。

▶ The court isn't hearing arguments.

法院不听取口头辩论。

▶ Then it's not sort of heavily briefed, you know, with lawyers making all the different arguments and then when the ruling comes out, it's not in the form of a uh full written opinion.

然后它也没有经过充分的案情摘要，你知道，律师们提出所有不同的论点，然后当裁决出来时，它不是以完整的书面意见的形式出现。

bilibili 00:20:21

▶ And it's these cases that are at an early stage where a judge has made some decision uh to put a government action on hold and the Trump administration obviously wants to pursue their policies but the judges are saying wait hold on a sec let's see if it's legal or not.

正是在这些案件的早期阶段，法官做出了一些决定，暂停政府的某项行动，而特朗普政府显然希望推行其政策，但法官们说等一下，让我们看看这是否合法。

▶ Um and so the Supreme Court then has to sort of decide at this preliminary stage of the litigation whether to allow that the policy to go forward or not.

嗯，所以最高法院然后不得不在诉讼的这个初步阶段决定是否允许该政策继续进行。

▶ And this has been a kind of recurring theme.

这一直是一个反复出现的主题。

在拜登政府期间也发生过。

🎧 But the uh the rate at which the Trump administration is going to the court and the rate at which the court is granting those requests has really skyrocketed this year.

但是，呃，特朗普政府向法院提出申请的频率以及法院批准这些请求的频率在今年确实飙升了。

🎧 I think they've granted 17 of the requests so far on a whole manner of issues about immigration, about firing federal workers, about independent agencies.

我想他们到目前为止已经批准了17项请求，涉及各种各样的问题，关于移民、解雇联邦工人、独立机构等。

🎧 Uh and so uh you know we're see going to see more of that in the months to come and this is why some of these judges you know are kind of raising concerns about it.

呃，所以，呃，你知道我们在未来几个月会看到更多这样的情况，这就是为什么一些法官，你知道，对此提出担忧。

🎧 Uh Lawrence, have any of the Supreme Court justices addressed these concerns?

呃，劳伦斯，有最高法院大法官回应这些担忧吗？

🎧 Well, actually, uh, yesterday, uh, Justice Brett Kavanaugh, um, after our story was published, um, he was speaking at a conference in Memphis, according to reports, and, uh, he made some kind of consolatory type comments towards lower court judges and repeated some stuff he said before about how, yeah, maybe the court could do a better job, uh, of explaining itself, but he also made, you know, uh, pains to say that, you know, he thought lower court judges are doing a good job.

嗯，实际上，呃，昨天，呃，布雷特·卡瓦诺大法官，嗯，在我们的报道发表之后，嗯，据报道，他在孟菲斯的一个会议上发言，并且，呃，他对下级法院法官发表了一些安慰类型的评论，并重复了他之前说过的一些话，关于法院也许可以更好地解释自己，但他也，你知道，费力地表示，他认为下级法院法官做得很好。

bilibili 00:21:47

⏮ Uh and actually last night Justice Amy Coney Barrett also was speaking in public and she said uh she kind of paid tribute to lower court judges too.

呃，实际上昨晚艾米·康尼·巴雷特大法官也在公开场合发言，她说她也向下级法院法官表示了敬意。

⏮ So there's signs that you know Supreme Court justices are aware uh that there's some concerns within the judiciary.

所以有迹象表明，你知道最高法院大法官意识到司法部门内部存在一些担忧。

⏮ >> Lawrence, again, thank you so much for bringing your exclusive reporting to us so strong.

>> 劳伦斯，再次非常感谢你为我们带来如此有力的独家报道。

bilibili 00:22:06

⏮ We appreciate it.

我们非常感谢。

⏮ >> Justices are even reading it.

⏮ All right.

⏮ Well, the West battles a new round of wildfires.

嗯，美国西部正在应对新一轮的野火。

⏮ The Justice Department is suing one of California's biggest utility companies.

司法部正在起诉加州最大的公用事业公司之一。

⏮ In two separate lawsuits, the DOJ says that Southern California Edison's equipment is to blame for sparking fires, including the deadly Eaton fire, which tore through Los Angeles earlier this year.

在两起独立的诉讼中，司法部称南加州爱迪生公司的设备是引发火灾的原因，包括今年早些时候席卷洛杉矶的致命伊顿大火。

 00:22:28

 NBC News correspondent Liz Croitz has the details.

NBC新闻记者利兹·克罗伊茨带来详细报道。

 Eight months since the eaten fire ravaged parts of East Los Angeles, killing 19 people and destroying more than 9,000 homes, the DOJ accusing one of the state's largest utility companies of starting it.

自伊顿大火肆虐东洛杉矶部分地区、导致19人死亡并摧毁9000多所房屋以来，已经过去了八个月，司法部指控该州最大的公用事业公司之一引发了火灾。

 >> Southern California Edison negligently failed to properly maintain its power and transmission lines.

>> 南加州爱迪生公司疏忽大意，未能妥善维护其电力和输电线路。

 00:22:51

 Negligence that had deadly and very costly consequences.

这种疏忽造成了致命且代价极其高昂的后果。

 In two lawsuits against SoCal Edison, the US government says they're seeking more than $77 million in damages for both the Eaton fire in Altadena and the 2022 Fairview fire in Riverside County, alleging a troubling pattern of negligence.

在对南加州爱迪生公司的两起诉讼中，美国政府表示，他们为阿尔塔迪纳的伊顿大火和河滨县2022年的费尔维尤大火寻求超过7700万美元的赔偿，指控其存在一种令人不安的疏忽模式。

 While investigators have not officially ruled on the cause of the Eden fire, videos like this one have emerged, showing flames at the base of an electrical tower in the early minutes of the blaze.

虽然调查人员尚未正式确定伊顿大火的起因，但像这样的视频已经出现，显示火灾最初几分钟，一座电力塔底部出现火焰。

 00:23:21

▶ >> We believe that the evidence is clear that Edison is at fault.

▶ Yes, we do have the potential to see kind of some weather to interrupt those outdoor plans and switch things up.

 00:24:17

▶ We may be feeling a little bit more like fall by the time the weekend's over depending on where you are.

请注意这条阵雨和雷暴带。

▶ It was a whole lot more robust about 6 hours ago working across the Northeast.

 00:24:32

▶ That has since cleared out and we've just got some of these lighter showers lingering across Maine.

那之后已经消散，我们现在只有一些较弱的阵雨 lingering across Maine.

▶ But here comes this next area that we're going to watch.

但接下来我们要关注的区域来了。

▶ We've got the heavy rain centered across parts of Michigan right now.

▶ And that's that secondary cold front that we're going to be tracking through the weekend and really by early Sunday morning.

那就是我们将要追踪到周末，确切说是周日凌晨的次级冷锋。

 00:24:48

▶ Um it'll be closer to the east coast.

嗯，它将更靠近东海岸。

▶ But between now and then, we've got a couple of pockets of rain and potentially strong storms to track.

但在现在到那时之间，我们还有几片降雨区和潜在的强风暴需要追踪。

▶ Here's where the severe storms will be later today across parts of the Tennessee Valley.

这是今天早些时候田纳西河谷部分地区将出现严重风暴的位置。

▶ And notice there's still some rain that we're going to have to deal with.

并且请注意，我们仍然需要应对一些降雨。

▶ And then by the time we get into tomorrow, really the second half of the day, we start to see that ramp up. the showers, the thunderstorms arrive in the northeast and we'll see the periods of heavy rain along with the chance for some of those stronger storms to develop as well.

然后到明天，确切地说是下午，我们开始看到降雨增强，阵雨和雷暴抵达东北部，我们将看到 periods of heavy rain along with the chance for some of those stronger storms to develop as well.

 00:25:12

▶ Here's the area we're watching for the strong to severe weather today.

这就是我们今天关注的可能出现强到恶劣天气的区域。

▶ Nashville, Lexington, Knoxville.

纳什维尔、列克星敦、诺克斯维尔。

▶ I'd have a way to get those alerts.

我会想办法获取这些警报。

▶ Not a a super large chunk of the country, but still the strong wind gusts and the hail and maybe even a couple of isolated brief tornadoes are on the table through this afternoon and into this evening.

虽然不是全国很大一块区域，但直到今天下午和傍晚，强阵风、冰雹，甚至可能几场孤立的短暂龙卷风都有可能发生。

 00:25:29

▶ Now, switching gears, talking tropics, because we've got tropical disturbance 91L that we are keeping a close eye on.

现在，换个话题，谈谈热带地区，因为我们正在密切关注热带扰动91L。

▶ And you'll notice 90% chance of developing and we will likely see a tropical depression by the by the time we get through the weekend.

你会注意到它有90%的发展几率，我们很可能在周末结束时看到一个热带低气压。

▶ Now, this still has a long way to go.

现在，它还有很长的路要走。

▶ We're going to be keeping a close eye on that here for the next couple of days.

我们将在未来几天密切关注它。

 00:25:47

▶ We um potentially will be watching it into next week to see how it could impact parts of the Caribbean or down the line the United States.

我们嗯可能会一直关注到下周，看看它如何影响加勒比海部分地区或最终影响美国。

▶ Too early to tell on that, but we've also got Hurricane Kiko, category 3.

现在判断还为时过早，但我们还有三级飓风基科。

▶ This is a a Pacific storm that we're watching and we'll watch this to potentially impact Hawaii down the line.

这是我们正在关注的一场太平洋风暴，我们将关注它最终可能对夏威夷产生影响。

 00:26:03

▶ Again, we've still got some time with this.

同样，我们还有一些时间。

▶ Notice that's Tuesday as it's approaching maybe Monday approaching the Hawaiian Islands with some heavy rain.

请注意，那是周二，因为它正在接近，也许是周一接近夏威夷群岛，并带来一些大雨。

▶ We'll see the surf be impacted and potentially some some coastal flooding.

我们将看到海浪受到影响，并可能发生一些沿海洪水。

▶ But this is something that we'll keep a close eye on through the weekend as well.

但这也是我们将在整个周末密切关注的事情。

bilibili 00:26:18

▶ And last but not least, we've got post-tropical Lena.

最后但同样重要的是，我们有后热带气旋莉娜。

▶ Now, why we care about this is because it's increasing those rain chances across parts of the Southwest.

我们关心这个是因为它增加了西南部部分地区的降雨几率。

▶ We've got a flash flood risk that's marginal today across a good chunk of the country.

今天全国很大一部分地区存在轻微的 flash flood risk。

▶ It's that tropical moisture accompanied by the monsoonal moisture and just some daytime heating that's really going to give us the chance to see some pockets of heavy rain that could potentially impact folks weekend plans through that region.

正是那股热带湿气，伴随着季风湿气以及一些白天的加热，真的将给我们带来看到一些局部大雨的机会，这可能会影响该地区人们的周末计划。
