到了90年代，这种舞蹈音乐和祈祷的融合非常成功，以至于它不得不搬到更大的场所以容纳数百人的会众。

Even Church of England leaders at the time encouraged it and Chris Brain was fast-tracked as a priest.

丹尼尔，这是一个地方议会的情况。

▶ We know that there are various councils weighing up their options.

我们知道有各种地方议会正在权衡他们的选择。

 00:11:23

▶ But it's a complicated picture, isn't it?

但情况很复杂，不是吗？

▶ It is.

是的。

▶ I mean, there was always a risk after the tempering juncture was granted to Epsom District Council yesterday that other councils would look at it and think, can we row in behind this decision?

我的意思是，昨天在临时禁令被授予埃平福拉克区议会之后，一直存在一种风险，即其他议会会审视这一决定并思考，我们能否支持这一决定？

▶ As we've seen today, nine councils have said they're actively looking at a decision and considering their options.

 00:11:41

▶ And two of those are actually Labour councils, Whirl council and Tamworth.

其中两个实际上是工党控制的议会，惠尔议会和塔姆沃思议会。

▶ So it's not just councillors from Conservative Party and Reform.

所以这不仅仅是保守党和改革党的议员。

⏮ And what they're looking at is whether or not they can use this to try and get hotels closed down in their area.

他们正在研究的是，他们是否可以利用这一点来试图让他们地区的酒店关闭。

⏮ But saying that you're going to do it is quite different to actually doing it because legal action is very expensive and there'll be want to be sure that they're going to have some chance of success.

但说要这么做和实际去做是两码事，因为法律诉讼非常昂贵，而且他们会希望确保自己有一些成功的机会。

 00:12:08

⏮ And the circumstances in Epinforac are really quite specific.

而埃平福拉克的情况确实非常特殊。

⏮ The judge ruled that it wasn't just that there'd been this change of use in the hotel where effectively going from being a normal hotel to something that was more like a migrant hostel.

法官裁定，不仅仅是酒店的用途发生了变化，即从一家普通酒店 effectively 变成了更像移民旅社的地方。

⏮ But there was also the safety fears that had been generated by that partly because of the violent protests that had resulted from that.

而且还由此产生了安全担忧，部分原因是这导致了暴力抗议活动。

 00:12:29

⏮ And council will have to look at whether they meet both of those aspects before they can take seriously using this as a precedent for what they want to do.

而地方议会必须审视他们是否满足这两个方面，然后才能认真地将此作为他们想要做的事情的先例。

⏮ But hanging over all of this, of course, is if there is a number of hotels that have to be closed down as a result of this, where are the asylum seekers currently living in those hotels going to go?

但当然，笼罩在所有这一切之上的问题是，如果因此有许多酒店不得不关闭，那么目前住在这些酒店里的寻求庇护者将去哪里？

▶ The reason why hotels are being used is because asylum seekers can't work.

使用酒店的原因是寻求庇护者不能工作。

 00:12:52

▶ They have to be accommodated while they're waiting to hear their asylum decisions.

他们在等待庇护决定期间必须得到安置。

▶ And we've run out of other accommodation.

而且我们已经没有其他住所了。

▶ So the government has had to use hotels.

所以政府不得不使用酒店。

▶ The main other kind of accommodation that is used is just flats and houses in towns and cities across the UK.

其他使用的主要住所类型只是英国各地城镇的公寓和房屋。

▶ So the only way the government could get people out of hotels is by sourcing more flats and houses.

因此，政府让人们离开酒店的唯一方法就是寻找更多的公寓和房屋。

 00:13:16

▶ And of course that doesn't mean that these young men that people have become nervous about asylum seekers would move out of communities.

当然，这并不意味着那些让人们感到紧张的寻求庇护者的年轻男子会搬出社区。

▶ They're just moved into a different kind of accommodation within those same communities.

 Here's Georgina Ranard.

以下是乔治娜·拉纳德的报道。

 Another queen is in here somewhere, so whether we find her is another thing.

另一只蜂王在这里的某个地方，所以我们能否找到她是另一回事。

 Nick has been keeping honey bees for 15 years and selling the honey in South Wales.

尼克养蜂已有15年，并在南威尔士销售蜂蜜。

 But he's run into problems.

但他遇到了问题。

 In the last year, his bees have been dying in huge numbers.

在过去的一年里，他的蜜蜂大量死亡。

 It's just a bit of an unknown really at the present moment.

目前真的有点未知。

 00:18:49

 This year I've lost around about 75% of the colonies through the winter.

今年冬天我损失了大约75%的蜂群。

 Although the hives have all been full of food, the bees have just dwindled.

尽管蜂箱里都装满了食物，但蜜蜂还是减少了。

 Most of the bees survived through January, February and then, but they were just sort of vanished.

大多数蜜蜂在一月、二月都存活了下来，但之后它们就 sort of（差不多）消失了。

🎧 Bees gather what they need to make honey from flowers and that honey is their food in winter.

蜜蜂从花朵中采集酿蜜所需的东西，而那蜂蜜是它们冬天的食物。

 00:19:12

🎧 But to replace the honey that we eat, lots of beekeepers feed them supplementary food, basically sugar and water.

但为了替代我们吃掉的蜂蜜，许多养蜂人给它们喂补充食物，基本上是糖和水。

🎧 But scientists say that that food is missing a key essential ingredient.

但科学家说那种食物缺少一种关键的必要成分。

🎧 After serving different foods to bees for 15 years, scientists have finally discovered how to manufacture a core ingredient.

在给蜜蜂喂食不同食物15年后，科学家们终于发现了如何制造一种核心成分。

 00:19:33

🎧 It's called sterile and has always been missing from the supplementary food beekeepers use.

它被称为sterile（蜂花粉替代物？注：原文sterile可能为笔误或特定术语，通常指无菌或蜂花粉替代物，但根据上下文指代蜜蜂所需的一种营养物），一直缺失于养蜂人使用的补充食物中。

🎧 At Oxford University, scientists like Jennifer develop foods for bees.

在牛津大学，像詹妮弗这样的科学家为蜜蜂开发食物。

🎧 Like humans, bees must eat a very diet to stay healthy.

和人类一样，蜜蜂必须吃非常（多样）的饮食来保持健康。

🎧 So we're putting lots of different ingredients into a cookie dough for the bees, different proteins, different fats to try and work out what they like best and what's best for them.

所以我们将很多不同的成分放进给蜜蜂的“饼干面团”里，不同的蛋白质，不同的脂肪，试图找出它们最喜欢什么，什么对它们最好。
