🎧 And so this week we're announcing a gigantic installation, a gigantic investment in AI infrastructure.

因此本周我们将宣布建设#巨型##设施#，对AI#基础设施#进行#巨额#投资。

🎧 We're going to build 120,000 GPU AI supercomputer AI infrastructure here in the UK.

将在英国建设配备12万块GPU的AI超算基础设施。

 00:07:36

🎧 120,000 is approximately 100 times larger than the largest supercomputer in the UK today.

这个规模相当于英国现有最大超算的约100倍。

🎧 In that supercomputer, we help build.

我们参与建设的伊桑巴德超算。

🎧 It's called the Isambard.

名为伊桑巴德AI。

🎧 The Isambard AI is an incredible supercomputer and now we're going to build an AI infrastructure 100 times larger than that.

是卓越的超算系统，而新建的AI#基础设施#规模将是其100倍。

🎧 And so on top of that, that's about an 11 billion, 11 billion pounds investment for AI factories.

这项AI工厂建设项目总投资约110亿英镑。

 00:08:05

🎧 And so this is a big beginning.

因此这是一个重要的开端。

🎧 And from that we can then build the rest of the AI ecosystems, startups and research and so on and so forth.

由此我们可以构建人工智能生态系统、初创企业、研究等其他组成部分，#以此类推#。

▶ Fascinating, isn't it?

#令人着迷#，不是吗？

▶ Jensen Huang, their chief executive of Invidia.

英伟达首席执行官黄仁勋。

▶ Let's now turn our attention to the cost of borrowing because the Bank of England makes its latest decision on intratates at midday here in London.

现在让我们关注借贷成本——英国央行将于伦敦时间中午公布最新利率决议。

 00:08:53

▶ And those hoping for a cut, I'm afraid you may well be disappointed.

那些期待降息的人恐怕要失望了。

▶ The bank's policy makers are widely expected to leave rates on hold this time at 4% after narrowly voting to cut in August, despite an economy that is struggling to grow.

尽管经济增长乏力，但政策制定者普遍预计本次将维持4%利率不变——而八月份他们曾以微弱优势投票支持降息。

▶ They're worried about stubbornly high inflation, which remains at 3.8% last month, the highest rate in the developed world.

他们担忧居高不下的#通货膨胀#，上月通胀率仍达3.8%，居发达国家之首。

bilibili 00:09:14

▶ And across the Atlantic, the US Federal Reserve cut its main interest rate and signaled more to come amid worries about the state of the US jobs market.

在大西洋彼岸，出于对美国就业市场的担忧，美联储下调主要利率并暗示将继续降息。

▶ It was a politically charged event after months of pressure on the Fed from President Trump to reduce borrowing costs.

此前特朗普总统持续数月向美联储施压要求降低借贷成本，这使得本次降息充满政治色彩。

▶ And with one of his allies newly installed on the rate setting board, as Michelle Flurry explains.

随着其一位盟友新近加入利率制定委员会，正如米歇尔#弗勒里#所报道的。

bilibili 00:09:37

▶ After nine months on hold, the US Central Bank has cut interest rates by a quarter point, breaking its pause amid clear signs of weakness in the labour market.

▶ Officials also signaled the possibility of two more cuts this year.

官员们还暗示今年可能再降息两次。

▶ But the decision wasn't unanimous.

但该决定并非#全体通过#。

▶ Stephen Myron, a Trump appointee who just joined the board, pushed for a deeper cut.

刚加入委员会的特朗普任命官员斯蒂芬·迈伦主张更大幅度的降息。

bilibili 00:09:59

▶ Given Myron's ties to the President of Ocal Advocate for lower rates, his stance is raising eyebrows and putting added pressure on Fed Chair Jay Powell.

鉴于迈伦与主张降息的总统之间的关联，其立场引发侧目，也给美联储主席杰伊·鲍威尔带来额外压力。

▶ This is the first time I believe the Fed's board has had someone with executive branch ties in decades.

我相信这是数十年来美联储委员会首次出现与行政部门有关联的人士。

▶ Does this compromise the Fed's independence from day to day politics?

这是否会#损害#美联储独立于日常政治的地位？

▶ While the unemployment rate remains low, it has edged up.

虽然失业率仍处于低位，但已略有上升。

▶ Job gains have slowed and downside risks to employment have risen.

就业增长放缓，下行风险加剧。

▶ At the same time, inflation has risen recently and remains somewhat elevated.

与此同时，#通货膨胀#近期上升且保持较高水平。

▶ And that's starting to sound an awful lot like stagflation.

这开始听起来非常像滞胀。

▶ The toxic mix of stagnant growth and high prices not seen in America for 40 odd years.

这种增长#停滞#与高物价的#有毒#组合在美国已40多年未见。

bilibili 00:11:05

▶ And it puts Mr Powell in a tight spot since these forces typically demand opposite policy responses.

这使得鲍威尔陷入两难境地，因为这两种力量通常需要相反的政策应对。

▶ Michelle Flurry there.

米歇尔#弗勒里#报道。

▶ Well, let's bring in Bronwyn Curtis chair of the 24-income fund.

现在有请24收入基金主席布朗温·柯蒂斯。

▶ Also former chair of the oversight board at the office for budget responsibility, the UK government spending watched our good morning, Bronwyn.

她也是英国政府预算责任办公室#监督#委员会前主席。早上好，布朗温。

bilibili 00:11:26

▶ Good morning, Sally.

早上好，莎莉。

▶ And interesting, Michelle saying that stagflation is a possible concern in the US.

有意思的是，米歇尔提到滞胀可能是美国的隐忧。

▶ Is that a concern here?

英国是否存在这种担忧？

▶ We've also got slow growth but stubbornly high prices.

我们同样面临增长缓慢但物价居高不下的问题。

▶ Well, yes, of course we don't have a dual mandate, which the US does, where it's growth, well, you know, keep growth up and inflation down.

是的，当然我们不像美国那样有双重使命（即保持增长与控制通胀）。

 00:11:47

▶ Here it's really just inflation, but inflation isn't looking good.

英国央行主要关注#通货膨胀#，但通胀形势不容乐观。

▶ I mean, we're running at 3.8%.

目前通胀率达3.8%。

▶ And it's probably not picked yet, could pick at 4% and still average over 3% for the rest of the year.

可能尚未见顶，或升至4%，且今年剩余时间平均通胀率仍将超过3%。

▶ That's not just the only thing because inflation expectations, the bank of England had a poll last week, which says they're disturbingly high.

不仅如此，英国央行上周#调查#显示通胀预期高得令人不安。

 00:12:14

▶ And we've got wages running at 4.7%.

同时工资涨幅达4.7%。

🎧 So a rate cut is not on the cards, but just remember we've had five rate cuts since last summer.

因此降息可能性不大，但别忘了自去年夏天以来我们已降息五次。

🎧 So it probably is time to halt.

所以现在或许是时候#暂停#了。

🎧 And of course, what we have in the offing is another budget.

当然，我们即将迎来新一轮预算案。

🎧 Well, I was going to ask you about that, Bronwyn, because everybody is speculating like mad, including the markets.

我正想就此提问，布朗温。现在所有人（包括市场）都在疯狂猜测。

 00:12:36

🎧 It's moving markets, what's going to be in that budget, what's your thoughts on that and the impact on, you know, borrowing costs for the government, et cetera.

预算内容正在影响市场走势。您对其内容及其对政府借贷成本等方面的影响有何看法？

🎧 It's going to be a really difficult budget, because the office for budget responsibility actually cut its forecast for productivity.

这将是一份非常棘手的预算案，因为预算责任办公室实际下调了#生产力#预测。

🎧 That's the amount each person puts out, you know, actually you need that to go up all the time.

生产力即人均产出，这本应持续提升。

 00:13:03

🎧 And it's flat and they're cutting it.

但现在停滞不前，他们反而下调预测。

🎧 So it means that really we're not producing enough.

这意味着我们的实际产能不足。

▶ And when we do, we hit the buffer and then inflation will go up further.

而当产能提升时，我们会触及#缓冲带#，进而推高#通货膨胀#。

▶ So I think they've really got to cut spending this time.

因此我认为这次必须削减支出。

▶ Well, it's very difficult.

但这非常困难。

▶ But really, if you keep putting up taxes, you end up in a situation sometimes where you collect less taxes, because people just cut back and people leave.

实际上，若持续加税，最终可能反而减少税收，因为人们会缩减开支甚至离开。

 00:13:32

▶ And what difference does all this investment make in the long term for the UK economy?

这些投资对英国经济的长期影响如何？

▶ You know, all these announcements this week, £150 billion in total in US investments in the UK.

本周宣布的美国对英投资总额达1500亿英镑。

▶ I know it's all promises and pledges and the figures may be very, very different in years to come, but your thoughts on what that does for the UK economy long term?

我知道这些都是承诺，未来实际数字可能大相径庭，但您认为这对英国经济长期发展有何作用？

 00:13:55

▶ I think if it comes through, as they're talking about, it can only help.

若能如约落实，这必将产生积极影响。

▶ The UK economy needs investment.

英国经济亟需投资。

▶ We need investment badly.

我们非常需要投资。

▶ And I think that will help.

我认为这将大有裨益。

▶ And this is in an area where, you know, it's going to make a difference.

而且这些投资集中在能产生实际影响的领域。

▶ The trouble with things like investment in AI, often it comes in the longer term.

人工智能等领域投资的问题在于见效周期长。

▶ Now, you know, 10 to 15 years, rather than the next two to three years.

通常需要10到15年，而非两三年。

 00:14:24

▶ So the problems are in the near term, but it's always good to have that sort of investment coming in.

虽然当前面临短期问题，但这类投资总是值得欢迎的。

▶ Brahmin, thanks so much.

非常感谢您，布朗温。

▶ Lovely to see you.

很高兴见到您。

▶ Have a good day.

祝您今天愉快。

▶ See you again soon.

期待下次再见。

▶ Well, if we look at Wall Street, it was a choppy day with investors not sure whether to celebrate the prospect of more rates to come from the Federal Reserve or to worry about its comments about a weak labour market.

回顾华尔街：当日行情震荡，投资者既想为美联储进一步降息的前景欢呼，又对其关于劳动力市场疲软的言论感到担忧。

 00:14:47

 The S&P and Nasak both closing down.

标普指数与纳斯达克指数双双收跌。

 The Dow though did manage to end up rising, boosted by shares of financial companies, the likes of American Express that benefit from cheaper borrowing.

道指最终收涨，受美国运通等受益于低借贷成本的金融类股推动。

 Let's bring in Joshua Mooney, Hit Mahoney.

现在有请Scope Markets首席市场分析师约书亚·马奥尼。

 Chief market analyst at scope markets.

Scope Markets首席市场分析师。

 Joshua, I feel like every time I talk to you, I say, there's so much going on.

约书亚，每次与您交谈我都觉得市场风云变幻。

 00:15:08

 There's so much to be across in markets.

需要关注的因素实在太多。

 What's your take on this week?

您对本周行情有何见解？

 Yeah, I mean, this appears to be a case of by the room at Sell the Fact.

这似乎是"利好出尽是利空"的典型案列。

 People of course knew we were going to see a rate cut.

市场本就预期会降息。

▶ So it wasn't necessarily a surprise when it came into fruition.

因此当预期成为#现实#时并未引起太大震动。

▶ In actual fact, the devil was in the detail.

实际上，#魔鬼#藏在细节中。

▶ And whilst we, of course, have seen the Federal Reserve outline with their dot plot that they are likely to cut rates in the remaining two meetings.

虽然美联储通过点阵图暗示可能在今年剩余两次会议上继续降息。

bilibili 00:15:36

▶ And that has up confidence for that to happen if you look at market pricing.

观察市场定价可以发现对此已有充分预期。

▶ Next year, they only laid out one additional rate cut.

但明年他们仅计划再降息一次。

▶ So there's a split Federal Reserve markets have been anticipating much more easing for next year.

美联储内部分歧明显，而市场原本预期明年会有更多宽松政策。

▶ And that's why we've seen some jitters playing out within the stock market, especially within the likes of the Nasak, which is very heavily tech focused.

这就是股市（尤其是科技股集中的纳斯达克市场）出现波动的原因。

bilibili 00:16:00

▶ And therefore the likes of Nvidia in particular, really taking a hit yesterday.

因此，特别是像英伟达这样的公司，昨天确实遭受了重创。

▶ And in terms of those seated on the board of the Fed, how concerned are you about that?

就那些在美联储董事会任职的人而言，你对此有多担心？

▶ Well, look, I think it's going to be an interesting year.

嗯，看，我认为这将是有趣的一年。

🎧 Of course, Donald Trump has been going after the likes of Lisa Cook, the likes of Jay Powell.

当然，唐纳德·特朗普一直在针对丽莎·库克、杰伊·鲍威尔这类人。

 00:16:19

🎧 Well, Jay Powell is likely to be on his way in May anyway.

嗯，杰伊·鲍威尔反正很可能五月份就要离职了。

🎧 So that board is going to be reshaped gradually in the mold of Donald Trump.

因此，那个董事会将逐渐按照唐纳德·特朗普的#模式#进行重塑。

🎧 So he's already got Stephen Mirren in place who voted for 50 basis point cut.

所以他已经让斯蒂芬·米伦就位，此人投票支持降息50个基点。

🎧 Yesterday he was the outlier.

昨天他是个异类。

🎧 Essentially it's becoming politicised.

本质上，它正在变得政治化。

🎧 And it's just a question mark of quite how many people he can get into that position to be able to do his bidding for him.

现在的问题只是他到底能让多少人进入那个职位，来为他效命。

 00:16:47

🎧 Josh, have a good day.

乔希，祝你今天愉快。

让我们前往法国。

▶ 800,000 people are expected to take part in a day of protests and strikes against planned budget cuts.

预计将有80万人参加为期一天的抗议和罢工活动，以反对计划的预算削减。

▶ These were the scenes in Bordeaux on Wednesday as banks boarded up their windows in preparation.

bilibili 00:18:19

▶ Teachers, train drivers, pharmacists and hospital staff are among those expected to walk out on strike causing widespread disruption.

▶ President Macron and his new Prime Minister Sebastian Lekorneau are facing a political crisis as they try to plug France's worsening budget black hole.

马克龙总统和他的新总理塞巴斯蒂安·勒科尔努正面临一场政治危机，他们正试图填补法国日益恶化的预算黑洞。

▶ But unions want more public spending on services, more taxes on the wealthy and climb down on unpopular state pension reform.

但工会要求增加公共服务支出，对#富人#征收更多税，并在不受欢迎的国家#养老金#改革上让步。

 00:18:46

▶ Apart from the two public holidays, he's given up nothing in the horror show that a manuelle Macron has planned in his draft budget.

除了两个公共假日，他在马克龙在其预算草案中计划的这场恐怖秀中什么也没放弃。

▶ So we will mobilize until there's an adequate response.

因此，我们将#动员#起来，直到得到充分的回应。

▶ And the debate certainly won't take place just in Parliament.

▶ The budget will be decided in the streets.

 00:19:11

▶ Well, let's bring in Charlotte de Montpellier, who's Senior Economist, I.N.G. Economic Research, Morning Charlotte.

好的，让我们请进夏洛特·德·蒙彼利埃，她是ING经济研究公司的高级经济学家。早上好，夏洛特。

▶ So another day of disruption across France.

法国各地又将迎来混乱的一天。

▶ Will you take on the impact this is having?

你能否谈谈这正在产生的影响？

▶ Yeah, I mean, it really shows that the political situation is very difficult and also the budget situation.

是的，我的意思是，这确实表明政治形势非常困难，预算形势也是如此。

bilibili 00:19:31

▶ So there is a lot of social pressure, I would say, on the new government, the new Prime Minister, you should keep in mind that the new Prime Minister does not have a government yet.

所以我认为，新政府、新总理面临着巨大的社会压力，你应该记住，新总理还没有组建政府。

▶ They certainly don't have any agreement on the budget on what's going to be a reform or a plan for the new government.

他们当然还没有就预算、新政府将进行什么改革或计划达成任何协议。

▶ So it's a very tricky political situation.

所以这是一个非常棘手的政治局面。

bilibili 00:19:53

▶ It's a very, very tricky social situation as well.

这也是一个非常、非常棘手的社会局面。

▶ And it's basically a political mess, I would say, because basically we are in a situation in France where public deficit is much too high.

我可以说，这基本上是一团政治乱麻，因为基本上在法国，我们正处于公共赤字过高的境地。

🎧 And there is a need to bring it down.

有必要降低赤字。

🎧 And of course, this is not popular.

当然，这并不受欢迎。

🎧 And certainly not after years where actually public spending were used to support the public.

尤其是在多年来公共支出实际上被用来支持公众之后，就更不受欢迎了。

 00:20:18

🎧 And Charlotte, while all this is playing out, talk us through what's happening on financial markets and the cost to the French government of servicing its debt.

夏洛特，在这一切发生的同时，请给我们讲讲金融市场的情况以及法国政府偿还债务的成本。

🎧 Yeah, so I mean, the issue with the budget is there and very clearly going to remain there.

是的，我的意思是，预算问题存在，而且很明显将继续存在。

🎧 And that's of course a work for financial markets.

这当然是金融市场关注的问题。

🎧 And so this means that basically spreads have been increasing.

所以这意味着利差基本上一直在扩大。

 00:20:42

🎧 They are staying quite high compared to what was the case before.

与之前的情况相比，它们保持在相当高的水平。

🎧 So if you compare the cost for France to borrow money with other countries in Europe such as Germany, but also other countries such as Spain and Italy.

因此，如果你比较法国与欧洲其他国家（如德国）以及西班牙和意大利等其他国家的借款成本。

🎧 So clearly, there is an increase in the cost of borrowing.

很明显，借贷成本增加了。

🎧 And the issue is that very clearly today, there is no end inside of this problem.

问题在于，今天非常清楚的是，这个问题看不到尽头。

bilibili 00:21:04

🎧 And probably the budget discussion will remain very difficult with a deficit that will be very high to high next year.

而且预算讨论很可能仍然非常困难，因为明年#赤字#将非常高。

🎧 And I don't know the government will probably try to reach 5% of deficit GDP, which is higher than what they were saying before.

我不知道政府可能会试图将#赤字#占GDP的比例达到5%，这比他们之前说的要高。

🎧 They were aiming at 4.6% so of course, the risk is that market remains very, very cautious there and a bit worried about the financial situation of France and the public financial situation.

他们之前的目标是4.6%，所以当然，风险在于市场对此仍然非常、非常谨慎，并且有点担心法国及其公共财政状况。

bilibili 00:21:33

🎧 And Charlotte, very briefly, obviously in France, we have seen this kind of civil disobedience before this action on a wide scale.

夏洛特，简单说一下，显然在法国，我们以前也见过这种大规模公民抗命行动。

🎧 I was just thinking of the Gilles Gierre protests recently in recent years.

我刚才想到的是近年来的“黄背心”抗议活动。

🎧 President Macron was able to write that storm.

马克龙总统当时能够渡过那场风暴。

🎧 How is this different, this particular set of protests?

这次特定的抗议活动有什么不同？

▶ I would say, I mean, in the past, the storm was finished because there were some contests from the government.

我想说，我的意思是，过去风暴之所以结束，是因为政府做出了一些让步。

bilibili 00:22:04

▶ And also, at the end, decide to not use some sort of taxation or to not cut back in public spending.

并且最终决定不采用某种税收或者不削减公共支出。

▶ The issue is that it cannot continue always like that and especially in a time where public finance are under scrutiny.

问题在于不能总是这样继续下去，尤其是在公共财政受到#严格审查#的时候。

▶ So I mean, probably will be the result of this, but will be very difficult to continue like that for a long period of time.

所以我的意思是，这可能将是这次的结果，但很难像这样持续很长时间。

bilibili 00:22:26

▶ Charlotte, thanks for talking to us today.

夏洛特，感谢您今天与我们交谈。

▶ Charlotte Demonpellier from ING Economic Research, now to gender equality in the workplace, because today has been designated international equal payday by the UN.

来自ING经济研究的夏洛特·德·蒙彼利埃。现在关注工作场所的性别#平等#问题，因为今天被联合国指定为国际同酬日。

▶ According to the World Economic Forum, the UK has now risen to fourth in the equal pay rankings behind Iceland, Finland and Norway.

根据世界经济#论坛#的数据，英国在同等薪酬排名中现已升至第四位，仅次于冰岛、芬兰和挪威。

bilibili 00:22:48

▶ It's not all good news, though, because new research from the HR firm Bright Mine says women are far less likely to receive a bonus than men, and when they do, it is usually smaller.

不过，并不全是好消息，因为人力资源公司Bright Mine的新研究表明，女性获得奖金的可能性远低于男性，而且即使获得，金额通常也更小。

▶ Well, Bar, Humbitman is content manager for HR, Straszy and practice at Bright Mine.

嗯，巴尔·洪比特曼是Bright Mine公司人力资源、战略与实践的内容经理。

▶ Hello to you.

你好。

▶ Tell us more about your findings.

请告诉我们更多关于你们的发现。

 00:23:07

▶ Good morning.

早上好。

▶ So we found that 14.2% of men are likely to receive a bonus compared to 9.4% of women.

我们发现，14.2%的男性有可能获得#奖金#，而女性的这一比例仅为9.4%。

▶ So that shows a real gender bonus to the parity.

这表明在#奖金#方面存在真正的性别差距。

▶ And we've also found that men's bonuses are worth 9.5% of salary, whereas for women, that's 6%.

我们还发现，男性的奖金相当于其薪水的9.5%，而女性则为6%。

▶ So you can really see that men's bonuses are 1.8 times higher than that of women.

所以你可以清楚地看到，男性的奖金是女性的1.8倍。

 00:23:38

▶ Why do you think that is?

你认为这是为什么？

▶ There are so many reasons.

原因有很多。

▶ I'm going to highlight two reasons.

我将重点说明两个原因。

▶ So one of the reasons is gendered occupational segregation.

其中一个原因是性别职业#隔离#。

▶ And that's where the jobs that men perform are predominantly based in sectors that are higher paid and that attract bonuses, like in finance and technology,

而男性从事的工作主要集中在高薪且享有奖金的行业，比如金融和科技领域，

▶ whereas the jobs that women are predominantly based, like care and education,

而女性从事的工作则#主要#集中在护理和教育等领域，

 00:24:07

▶ they don't tend to attract bonuses as much as the jobs performed by men.

这些岗位的奖金待遇通常不如男性从事的工作。

▶ And we also see that.

这一点我们也观察到了。

▶ So sorry to just stop me there, Bar.

抱歉打断一下，巴。

▶ Where you say that, actually the jobs that men are doing tend to be the jobs where there is a bonus structure in place.

你提到男性从事的工作往往设有#奖金#机制。

▶ So is this actually gender inequality we're seeing here or just the way things are?

那么这究竟是性别不平等，还是社会自然形成的现象呢？

 00:24:33

▶ There are cultural and societal norms in place.

这背后存在着文化和社会规范的影响。

▶ So over time, men have tended to go into roles where they simply attract bonuses.

长期以来，男性更倾向于进入能获得奖金的领域。

▶ So even we see women and men going into universities doing the same degrees,

即使男女在大学攻读相同专业，

▶ but actually men, if they're doing a maths degree, men tend to end up in finance roles,

但事实上，攻读#数学#学位的男性往往最终进入金融行业，

▶ whereas women might end up in education.

而女性则可能进入教育领域。

 00:24:59

▶ So there's lots we can do in society to address that.

因此社会可以采取多种措施来解决这个问题。

▶ For example, as employers, you can partner with colleges, schools, universities,

例如雇主可以与学院、中小学及大学建立合作，

▶ role model, your senior female leaders in those positions.

让担任这些职位的女性高管成为榜样。

▶ And you know, you can show women that actually there are positions for them in your organisation.

让女性看到在你们的#组织#中确实有适合她们的职位。

▶ OK.

好的。

▶ Bar, thank you for talking to us.

巴，感谢您的分享。

bilibili 00:25:22

▶ It's interesting.

这很有趣。

▶ It is interesting.

确实引人深思。

▶ And the gap is closing though, which is good news.

不过差距正在缩小，这是个好消息。

▶ Good to talk to you.

很高兴与您交流。

▶ Thank you very much.

非常感谢。

🎧 I will see you very soon.

我们很快再见。

🎧 Hello there.

大家好。

🎧 There's been a distinct or terminal flavour to the weather story of Labour.

近期英国天气呈现出#明显#且#阶段性#的变化特征。

🎧 Over the next few days, we could see a return to some summer-like weather,

未来几天或将回归夏日天气,

🎧 turning increasingly warmer,

气温逐渐升高,

🎧 particularly across central and southeast England.

尤其在中英格兰和#东南部#地区。

 00:26:07

🎧 It's behind this weather front.

这是受此天气锋影响。

🎧 We're going to tap into some warm air coming up from the near continent.

我们将迎来来自欧洲大陆的暖空气。

🎧 But for Thursday, some sherry outbreaks of rain,

但周四将出现零散降雨,

🎧 a damp, drizzly start across southwest England and Wales,

英格兰#西南部#和威尔士将以潮湿的毛毛雨开场,

🎧 some heavier bursts of rain,

部分地区雨势较大，

🎧 moving into Northern England and Northern Ireland.

并向北英格兰和北爱尔兰移动。

🎧 Windy in the far north west of Scotland with some scattered showers here,

苏格兰西北端将出现#大风#和#零星#降雨，

🎧 00:26:26

🎧 but Easton Scotland, along with central and southeast England,

但东苏格兰与中英格兰及#东南部#地区，

🎧 we'll see some sunshine and some warmth with temperatures here around 19 degrees for Aberdeen,

将迎来阳光和暖意，阿伯丁气温约19度，

🎧 23 Celsius for Norwich.

诺里奇23摄氏度。

🎧 But that conveyor belt of rain will continue to drift up the far north west

但降雨带将继续向西北远端#漂移#，

🎧 and that's going to continue to tap into some very warm air coming up from the Azores.

并持续引入来自亚速尔群岛的暖湿气流。

🎧 00:26:46

🎧 So, the best of the sunshine is likely to be through East Anglia and south east England.

因此东英吉利和英格兰东南部阳光最盛。

🎧 A little more cloud, generally through England and Wales,

英格兰和威尔士大部云量稍多，

🎧 some heavy, persistent rain across the north west of Wales and Northern England.

威尔士西北部和北英格兰将有强#持续性#降雨。

▶ Sunshine over Northern Ireland and Scotland here,

北爱尔兰和苏格兰地区放晴,

▶ we'll see warmth with highs again of 19 degrees,

气温再度攀升至19度,

bilibili 00:27:03

▶ but it's not out of the question that one of two spots across East Anglia and the southeast could have a high of 25 or 26 degrees,

东英吉利与东南部个别地区甚至可能达到25-26度高温,

▶ that's the high 70s.

约合华氏70多度。

▶ We just about cling onto some sunshine and warmth in the southeast on Saturday,

周六#东南部#地区勉强#维持#晴暖天气,

▶ but it's all changed for the second half of the weekend.

但周末后半段将全面转阴。
