

Queensland Teachers' Historic Strike: Demanding Fair Pay and Better Conditions

【教师怒吼！澳大利亚昆士兰5万教师大罢工：薪资过低·校园暴力·过劳危机】

Summary: Queensland teachers have staged the largest strike in the state's history, with 50,000 educators walking off the job to protest an 8% pay offer over three years, which they say would make them the lowest-paid teachers in Australia. Beyond wages, teachers cite classroom violence, severe staff shortages, and unsustainable workloads as key reasons for the protest. Despite schools remaining open with skeleton staff, only 13% of students attended, highlighting widespread community support. The union warns of further action if demands are unmet, while the government claims negotiations are ongoing.
