

Bloomberg Business Week Daily: Fed Policy, UN Speeches, and Market Moves

【彭博社商业周刊 20250924 鲍威尔未就10月降息发出明确信号 | 特朗普联合国抨击多国 | 中东停火前景黯淡】

Summary: Federal Reserve Chair Jerome Powell delivered his first public remarks since last week's policy decision, offering no clear signals on the potential for an October rate cut. Against the backdrop of the UN General Assembly and Climate Week in New York, President Trump assailed the United Nations, labeling climate change a "con job" and criticizing the world body's ineffectiveness. Meanwhile, global leaders grappled with the ongoing Israel-Hamas war, with discussions on Palestinian statehood and ceasefire efforts facing significant hurdles. US stocks held onto losses following Powell's comments, with major indices dipping.

▶ So Mike fetcher Jay Powell today we had Stephen Myer on yesterday.

那么迈克，今天鲍威尔讲话后，我们昨天刚听过斯蒂芬·迈尔的看法。

▶ He's the newest member of the Fed.

他是美联储最新成员。

▶ Dumb question, but hey, I'm just going to go there because I'm you know, why not?

可能是个蠢问题，但既然提到，何不一探究竟？

▶ How different are the views that we got from a Fed governor, Myron, versus Fed Chair Jay Powell?

美联储理事迈伦的观点与主席杰伊·鲍威尔#相比#有何不同？

▶ It's it's hard to compare the two of them because of the position that Powell is in.

因鲍威尔的职位特殊，二人很难直接比较。

bilibili 00:04:57

▶ And he didn't really say anything.

而他今日并未实质透露新信息。

▶ Different than he did last week.

与上周表态并无差异。

▶ I can't account for what the stock market is doing, but the bond market in the futures markets in terms of Fed rate cuts haven't changed.

我无法解释股市反应，但债券市场及期货市场对美联储降息的预期并未改变。

▶ He basically just said status quo.

他基本只是重申现状。

▶ We're looking at the data.

我们正关注数据。

▶ Steve, Myron obviously made the case that we should be cutting significantly.

史蒂夫·迈伦则明确主张应大幅降息。

 00:05:20

▶ There's much more of a contrast between him and what we heard from Rafael Bostic and Alberto Musallam yesterday than there is between him and Powell.

他与昨天拉斐尔·博斯蒂克和阿尔贝托·穆萨拉姆的观点对比，远甚于其与鲍威尔的差异。

▶ And I don't think you can really take anything away from what Powell said today, because if you look at he spoke last Wednesday, and since then we've had one jobless claims report and a couple of PMIs, and that's the only economic data.

我认为鲍威尔今日讲话无甚新意，因其上周三发言后，仅有一份失业金申请报告和几项PMI数据出炉，经济数据面并无变化。

▶ So there hasn't been anything that would change your view one way or another.

故无任何因素能改变其原有立场。

 00:05:49

▶ And he didn't change his view.

他也确实未改变观点。

▶ You said you can't comment on the equity market, but I'm still going to ask you about it, Mike, because at 1258, this headline crossed.

您虽言不评论股市，但我仍想请教：因在12:58出现这条消息。

▶ Jay Powell was saying at 1258, some asset prices elevated versus historical levels.

杰伊·鲍威尔在12:58称，部分#资产#价格较历史水平偏高。

▶ By many measures, equity prices are fairly highly valued.

多项指标显示股价处于较高估值。

▶ And since then, we've actually seen the S&P 500 move lower and sort of stay lower.

此后标普500指数确实走低并维持低位。

bilibili 00:06:12

▶ Is it rare for him to comment on equity price valuation evaluations?

他评论股价估值是否罕见？

▶ And maybe that's the one thing that people took seriously out of this.

或许这正是市场认真对待的一点。

▶ It's not that the Fed is going to do anything about it, but it's sort of a jawboning warning.

并非美联储会采取行动，而更像是一种口头警告。

▶ This is it's not the same level as Alan Greenspan and irrational exuberance, but it is a Powell version of that.

虽未达艾伦·格林斯潘“#非理性#繁荣”的级别，但堪称鲍威尔式的警示。

bilibili 00:06:37

▶ Maybe a little bit of a warning.

或许略带警告意味。

▶ But he also goes on to say, and others on the Fed have that we don't really have any major financial system dangers out there.

但他后续补充道（其他美联储官员也提及），金融体系目前并无重大风险。

▶ And so I suspect the equity markets will get over this and come back as soon as Nvidia sneezes or something like that.

因此我推测股市会消化此事，一旦英伟达等权重股有动静，市场便会回升。

▶ You know, they'll I start buying again.

投资者会重新入场。

▶ I mean, there's a lot of it to do that.

毕竟有诸多支撑因素。

 00:07:04

▶ You know, I think so many investors and we've heard from various market watchers that they expect a bunch of rate cuts.

如您所知，许多投资者及市场观察者预期会有一系列降息。

▶ Is it that Jay Powell is not committing to more rate cuts?

是否因鲍威尔未承诺进一步降息？

▶ We've got a couple more meetings this year.

今年还有几次会议。

▶ He's not.

他并未承诺。

▶ Well, people are always wanting the Fed to promise them what's going to happen.

市场总希望美联储给出明确承诺。

▶ It's much easier to invest if you know exactly what's going to happen in the future, how that works.

若确知未来路径，投资会轻松得多。

 00:07:27

▶ We walked out of the the press conference, the Fed decision last Wednesday with the markets expecting two more cuts, basically because that was what was in the DOT plot.

上周三美联储决议发布会后，市场预期还有两次降息，主要因点阵图显示如此。

▶ The ACP was a little more iffy on it, but that's what the markets set up for.

但ACP（此处疑似口误，应指SEP-经济预测摘要）对此更显犹豫，但市场据此定价

▶ And Powell did not disabuse that.

而鲍威尔并未否定这一预期。

▶ If the Fed doesn't like where the markets are, they find ways to sort of point that out and to steer them in the right direction.

若美联储不满市场定价，会通过引导修正预期。

 00:07:55

▶ And he didn't do any steering today.

而他今天并未进行任何政策引导。

▶ So one can assume that their view is we are leaning towards rate cuts unless something happens to talk us out of it.

因此可以推断他们的观点是：除非出现扭转局面的情况，否则我们倾向于降息。

▶ And that's what we have to wait and see.

而这正是我们需要观望的。

▶ Rate cuts as a result of a job market that he said is not solid anymore.

由于他所说的就业市场不再稳固，降息成为可能。

▶ And also saying we're in a low fire, low higher economy.

同时还提到我们正处于低通胀、低增长的经济环境中。

bilibili 00:08:16

▶ Job creation has dropped very sharply.

就业岗位创造已急剧下滑。

▶ Rate cuts because of that, we don't know.

是否会因此降息，我们尚不可知。

▶ Yes, that's well, they look at the labor market and especially unemployment as a signal for what the economy overall is doing, because obviously, if companies are seeing margins compressing, they've got to keep them up.

确实如此，他们将劳动力市场尤其是失业率视为整体经济状况的信号灯，因为显然如果企业利润受压，就必须设法维持。

▶ They might let people go and then people don't have money to spend and the economy slows down and you get into the whole recession scenario.

企业可能裁员导致民众无钱消费，经济放缓进而陷入全面衰退。

bilibili 00:08:40

▶ Nobody's saying about recession anymore at this point, but that's what the Fed worries about.

眼下虽无人再提#衰退#，但这正是美联储所担忧的。

▶ And so they're thinking that they're better off propping up the labor market right now because they think inflation is going to gradually dissipate.

因此他们认为当前支撑劳动力市场更为稳妥，因为预计#通胀#将逐渐#消散#。

▶ It'll go up some more because of tariffs, but they're not thinking it's going to be a huge impact.

关税可能推高通胀，但他们认为影响不会太大。

▶ The out they're leaving is we could be wrong.

他们预留的退路是：我们可能判断失误。

🎧 So if that's the case, we don't want to commit right now to say we're absolutely cutting rates, but we're leaning that direction.

故而若真如此，我们不愿现在承诺必然降息，但正朝此方向倾斜。

🎧 So this rock in this hard place.

这真是进退维谷。

🎧 So if inflation persists, Mike, and we do see continued weakness in the labor market or things steepen in terms of the labor market coming undone, what does the Fed do?

那么迈克，若通胀持续而劳动力市场又持续疲软或加速恶化，美联储该如何应对？

 00:09:25

🎧 What do they fight or do they try to improve that mandate?

他们会对抗通胀还是试图完善那项#使命#？

🎧 Do they pay attention to it?

是否会关注此事？

🎧 That's the conundrum.

这就是两难困境。

他们过去曾表示，此类情境下应优先解决最棘手的难题。

🎧 But in this case, they don't know.

但这次他们无从判断。

🎧 We haven't had a situation like this with tariffs since, you know, Smoot-Hawley.

要知道自斯姆特-霍利关税法以来，我们从未遭遇如此关税形势。

 00:09:48

▶ And so they're kind of making it up as they go along.

因此他们可谓边走边摸索。

▶ And they're going to have to be flexible is kind of what they're trying to tell everybody.

他们试图传达的是：必须保持#灵活性#。

▶ Don't get too comfortable one way or another.

切勿固守任何单一立场。

▶ And let's see how.

且静观其变。

▶ How this goes.

事态如何发展。

▶ And we can fix.

我们能够调整。

▶ We can act on either one.

可对任一情况采取行动。

▶ We're going to talk about President Trump at the U.N. in just a moment.

稍后我们将讨论特朗普总统在联合国的情况。

 00:10:06

▶ I was listening to you on Bloomberg TV just I think in the last hour or so.

约一小时前我刚在彭博电视上听到您的分析。

▶ You noted that there were some politics in his comments today, meaning Fed Chair Jay Powell, something about a cheap shot.

您指出他今日言论带有政治色彩——这里指美联储主席杰伊·鲍威尔，涉及所谓"恶意攻击"。

▶ But what do we need to know here?

我们需了解哪些要点？

▶ Well, there were a couple of remarks he made.

他确实发表了若干评论。

▶ We've had people, especially Governor Mirren and the president in recent weeks talking about the Fed getting a way out of its lane and doing a lot of things that it shouldn't be doing and they should get out of all this stuff.

近期有多人（尤其是米伦州长和总统）批评美联储越权行事，涉足许多不应干预的领域。

 00:10:34

▶ And Powell put a paragraph in his speech today saying we had to do these things because in 2008 and then with the pandemic, the world was going to blow up, the financial world was going to blow up, and we couldn't let that happen.

而鲍威尔今日演讲中专门用一段辩解：我们不得不采取这些措施，因为2008年及疫情期间全球金融体系濒临崩溃，我们绝不能坐视不管。

▶ It's not that we wanted to grab all this.

并非我们热衷揽权。

▶ It's that we we had to do this.

而是情势所迫。

▶ And then later on, he was asked about whether their political kind of the standard question they get.

随后他被问及那个老生常谈的政治立场问题。

 00:10:58

▶ And he gave the standard answer no, we just do what's best for the country.

他照例否认，称只做对国家最有利的事。

▶ And then he added, the people who are saying that are taking cheap shots, which is the first time you really see the guy, you get a little annoyed at what's going on out there.

但补充道"那些指责者是在恶意攻击",这是他首次明显流露出对外界纷扰的厌烦。

▶ He is always under control, but he just let that one slip.

他向来克制,这次却失言了。

▶ All right.

好吧。

▶ Good stuff.

精彩分析。

 00:11:21

▶ And certainly an important speech today.

今日演讲无疑至关重要。

▶ Mike, thank you so much.

迈克,非常感谢。

▶ Bloomberg TV and Radio International economics and policy correspondent Michael McKee.

彭博电视与国际广播电台#经济#与政策#记者#迈克尔·麦基。

▶ We should keep in mind that we really saw a lot of unity at the most recent Fed meeting, some dissenters, the meeting beforehand.

需知最近美联储会议展现出高度#团结#,而#先前#的会议还有异议者。

▶ Meantime, if you're at the U.N. this morning, there were no calls for unity.

#与此同时#,今晨联合国会场却无人呼吁#团结#。

 00:11:39

▶ Instead, President Trump assailed the United Nations and other countries in a grievance laden speech that accused the world body of offering nothing but empty words labeled climate change a con job and warned open borders risked destroying nations.

相反，特朗普总统在充满怨气的演讲中抨击联合国及其他国家，指责该组织只会空谈，称气候变化是骗局，并警告开放边境会摧毁国家。

▶ He also criticized the organization that housed his morning address, and his seven words dealt with the leaders of each and every one of these countries and never even received a phone call from the United Nations offering to help in finalizing the deal.

他还批评承办其晨间演讲的机构，用七句话点评各国领导人，抱怨联合国连协助达成协议的电话都未曾打过。

▶ What is the purpose of the United Nations?

联合国有何存在意义？

 00:12:11

▶ The U.N. has such tremendous potential.

联合国本具#巨大#潜力。

▶ I've always said it.

我常强调此点。

▶ It has such tremendous, tremendous potential.

它拥有如此#巨大#、#无比巨大#的潜力。

▶ But it's not even coming close to living up to that potential.

但实际表现与潜力相去甚远。

▶ For the most part, at least for now, all they seem to do is write a really strongly worded letter and then never follow that letter up.

多数时候（至少目前）他们似乎只会撰写措辞强硬的信件，而后便无下文。

▶ It's empty words, and empty words don't solve war.

空谈无益，空话无法止战。

 00:12:36

▶ That, of course, was President Trump.

以上自然是特朗普总统所言。

▶ President Trump, excuse me, addressing the U.N. General Assembly this morning.

抱歉，是特朗普总统今早在联合国大会的发言。

▶ Do want to mention a headline crossing President Trump to meet with the head of France, Mr. Macron, and also the head of Uzbekistan while in New York City.

需插播一条快讯：特朗普总统在纽约期间将会见法国首脑马克龙及乌兹别克斯坦首脑。

▶ So these headlines are going to continue to come with more on the president's speech.

关于总统演讲的新闻将持续更新。

 00:12:54

▶ Want to go right to it.

现在连线现场。

▶ Josh Wingrove is in the house, not in D.C.

乔希·温格罗夫已就位——并非在华府。

▶ He's Bloomberg News senior White House correspondent.

他是彭博新闻社资深白宫#记者#。

▶ Josh, you covered the president, all his twists and turns.

乔希，您长期跟踪报道总统的种种动向。

▶ This was an interesting speech.

本次演讲颇有意思。

▶ It was.

确实。

▶ It's great to be here.

很荣幸来到节目。

▶ Great to have a person is a rare treat for us here.

能邀请到您实属难得。

bilibili 00:13:09

▶ Look, the Trump show hits the road every once in a while and, you know, the aperture opens.

要知道"特朗普秀"偶尔巡演时，#视野#便会打开。

▶ And welcome.

欢迎来到。

▶ Welcome to the second term.

欢迎来到第二任期。

▶ You know, he hit a lot of themes that he did previously in this, although probably more strongly than in the past.

他重提了许多过往主题，但语气可能较以往更强烈。

▶ Basically, he sort of assailed the U.N. over, as he mentioned, climate and immigration is two big topics going so far as to basically completely dismiss the notion of climate change as a hoax, but also on immigration, saying that it's the single biggest political issue of our era.

本质上，他主要就气候和移民两大议题抨击联合国，甚至全盘否定气候变化斥为骗局，同时称移民是这个时代最重大的政治问题。

▶ So trying to draw a line in the sand, but Trump being Trump, he talked about the teleprompter not working.

虽试图划清界限，但特朗普本色不改——他提到提词器失灵。

▶ This was sort of a bit of his in the campaign.

这颇有他竞选时的风格。

▶ Let's just say it's open to interpretation whether that was actually the case or not.

是否属实可任人解读。

▶ The U.N. said the teleprompter was working fine.

联合国称提词器运行正常。

▶ Oh, it was, yes.

哦，确实如此。

▶ But then was griping about about the escalator that was not working fine.

但接着他又抱怨扶梯故障。

bilibili 00:14:00

▶ That was not I can confirm the escalator was not was not working and then later was working.

这点我可证实：扶梯最初确实故障，后来修复了。

▶ It seemed to get under his skin.

这似乎惹恼了他。

▶ And that's when he went off about the renovation that he wished he'd done and told them, you know, you could be walking on marble, you're walking on terrazzo flooring.

于是他开始吐槽场馆装修，说本希望由他改造，嘲讽道“你们本该走大理石地面，现在却走水磨石”。

▶ You know that, right?

明白吗？

▶ So, you know, it's it was a journey, a weave, as President Trump likes to say.

总之如同特朗普总统爱说的，这是段#迂回#之旅。

bilibili 00:14:20

▶ But I think it just underscores not only his long standing disdain for the U.N.

但这不仅凸显他对联合国一贯的#蔑视#，

▶ Remember, the U.S. is delinquent right now, and it's fine to support the U.N.

须知美国目前拖欠会费，尽管支持联合国本无错。

特朗普未流露改变意向，且新增诸多不满。

▶ In particular, he thinks he you know, he's obviously gently, somewhat campaigning for a Nobel Prize.

特别是他显然在隐晦地为诺贝尔奖造势。

 00:14:39

▶ He talks about ending seven wars and he's wondering where the U.N. has been.

他提及终结七场战争，质疑联合国何在。

▶ He sort of wanted credit for it, said they didn't get a phone call, but Trump being Trump, you know, he got off stage, sat down with Guterres and then was all smiles and nice.

他想揽功却称未获联合国致电，但下台后与古特雷斯会谈时又笑容可掬——这正是特朗普的典型作风。

▶ So.

总之。

▶ Bigger picture lens, I suppose, even mentioning other leaders who he had said things about but then had run into personally essentially saying, you know.

从更广视角看，他甚至提到曾批评过又偶遇的别国领导人， essentially saying, you know.

 00:14:59

▶ I ran into this person.

"我遇到这位领导人，

▶ I can't believe we'd be talking about And it's kind of a for you.

难以置信我们会交谈"——这对您而言应不陌生。

▶ Who covers Trump?

长期报道特朗普者，

▶ It covers the president.

即报道总统的记者，

▶ It's not surprising because that's the way he is.

对此习以为常因这是他一贯风格。

▶ But for world leaders who are sitting there, who are not necessarily accustomed to following every comment that he makes, especially at the U.N., this was unconventional.

但对在座不常关注其言论的世界领导人而言，尤其在联合国场合，这确实非同寻常。

 00:15:19

▶ I think that that's I think that's fair to say.

我认为此评中肯。

▶ I mean, if you're being sort of re onboarded into a Trump speech after maybe six years that had been since his last one, for sure, this is going to take you by storm.

若时隔六年重听特朗普演讲，势必令人震撼。

▶ I do think that there are things to watch that will make news today for sure beyond the speech, including the bilateral with President Zelensky, which it should be wrapping up just as we speak right now or just has wrapped up.

除演讲外，今日还有值得关注的新闻点，比如与泽连斯基总统的双边会谈——此刻应刚结束或即将结束。

 00:15:41

▶ Trump has really shifted on Zelensky a lot.

特朗普对泽连斯基的态度已大变。

▶ He said today that it's remarkably brave what the Ukrainians are doing.

他今日盛赞乌克兰人的行动非常勇敢。

▶ That is a big shift in tone from January and so that when we're watching, you sort of tacitly endorse the notion of native nations shooting down Russian planes, does that have to do with the recent violations of airspace that we've seen?

这与一月份的语气大相径庭，当我们观察到您似乎默许主权国家击落俄罗斯战机的立场时，这是否与近期出现的领空侵犯事件有关？

▶ I think I personally would read that more as a Trump sort of hand-waving type of comment.

我个人更倾向于将这解读为特朗普那种漫不经心的表态方式。

▶ I would not read that as an emphatic shift in U.S. policy.

我不认为这是美国政策的一次# emphatic#（显著）转变。

▶ Sort of he sort of danced around the drone issue.

他有点像是在drone（无人机）问题上打太极。

▶ He demonstrated again at a separate answer today.

今天在另一个回答中他再次展现了这种态度。

▶ But he did say flatly, yes, he thinks that NATO's should have the right to shoot down Russian planes, not drones, if they incur on native airspace.

但他确实明确表态支持北约有权击落侵犯主权的俄罗斯飞机（非无人机）。

bilibili 00:16:19

▶ So we'll see.

我们拭目以待。

▶ As you know, this is speaking of long grievances, it wasn't just the U.N. native, of course.

如您所知，这涉及长期积怨，当然不仅限于联合国层面。

▶ He has had sort of a bumpy ride with, but he's been more productive as of late, in particular, touting the increased defense spending pledges from Europe and Canada and other, you know, allies generally.

他与北约的关系曾有些波折，但近期成效显著，特别是成功推动欧洲、加拿大等盟友增加国防开支承诺。

▶ So I think I think, you know, that one, we've got a lot of eyes on this Macron meeting could be interesting.

因此我认为与马克龙的会晤备受关注，可能很有看头。

 00:16:40

▶ He made a little bit of news last night wandering the streets of New York, upset about the president's motorcade.

他昨晚因对总统车队不满而夜游纽约街头，制造了些新闻。

▶ What we can all relate to that everybody knows a city bike is the way to go during a U.N. General Assembly.

我们都深有同感——联合国大会期间骑自行车才是明智之选。

▶ So if only he had had a helmet, maybe would have seen the French leader in the city.

要是他当时戴了helmet（头盔），或许我们就能在城里看到这位法国领导人了。

▶ But we can help you, you know.

不过我们可以帮忙牵线。

 00:16:58

▶ Lovely.

太好了。

▶ Yes.

是的。

▶ Yeah, we get off.

好的，我们先聊到这。

▶ But no, that'll be doing it.

但没错，今天就到这里。

▶ Trump is hosting a reception tonight.

特朗普今晚将举办招待会。

▶ We don't actually know who's going, so we don't know if this is sort of a friends only thing like, you know, melee and the other whatevers or if it's a broader thing.

我们尚不清楚嘉宾名单，不确定这是小范围亲友聚会还是更开放的活动。

▶ So we'll see.

且看后续。

▶ We don't know right now whether they'll let the press in, but I'll be there waiting, hoping, praying.

目前不确定是否允许媒体进场，但我会在外守候期盼。

 00:17:17

▶ So, Josh, keeping posted.

乔希，保持联系。

▶ Hey, I'll be here outside waiting for you as seen by me and your city.

我会在会场外等你，就像我和你的城市所见的那样。

▶ Is your city back?

你回城里了吗？

▶ Yeah.

是的。

▶ I mean, against everything else that's going.

毕竟眼下事务繁杂。

▶ We're still doing stories about the H1-B visas.

我们仍在报道H1-B签证相关新闻。

🎧 I mean, there's just so much.

要处理的信息实在太多。

🎧 Josh, when you look at the president, I don't know how you guys do it because there's so much coming at you top of the White House agenda right now, because sometimes I feel like watching your guys.

乔希，观察总统动态时，我真不知你们如何应对白宫议程的密集轰炸，有时感觉光是追踪你们的报道就应接不暇。

 00:17:38

🎧 But don't look at here, which is maybe something impactful.

但别忽略这里可能存在的重大动向。

🎧 I don't know.

我拿不准。

🎧 How are you sussing out kind of what matters right now when it comes to the White House?

你们如何甄别当前白宫事务的轻重缓急？

🎧 I mean, Trump always likes to flood the zone.

毕竟特朗普向来喜欢用信息淹没舆论场。

🎧 That's been a consistent theme throughout his presidencies.

这是他执政期间的惯用手法。

🎧 I think on the H-1B thing, this is a big change, and it's a little unclear to me whether they're shifting it on the fly.

就H-1B签证而言，这是重大变革，但我不确定他们是否在临时调整方案。

 00:17:56

🎧 Remember, they had their big announcement Friday.

记得他们周五刚发布重大声明。

🎧 Everyone's brains exploded on Saturday.

周六就让人大跌眼镜。

🎧 They started to, let's say, a detail, critics might say walk back some of the things.

随后开始——说得委婉些——修正部分内容，批评者可能称之为立场退缩。

🎧 For instance, Secretary Lutnick said things on Friday that have not ultimately been the policy.

例如卢特尼克部长周五的发言最终并未成为政策。

🎧 And then today, the new development is sort of getting rid of the lottery system.

而今天的新动态是拟取消lottery（抽签）制度。

 00:18:12

🎧 We knew that was happening.

我们早知有此意向。

🎧 TRUMP It signaled before the whole hundred thousand dollar fee thing that that was happening.

特朗普在十万美元费用提案之前就已释放信号。

🎧 But this is a huge change.

但这是翻天覆地的变化。

🎧 And so the you know, whether it's impact on the tech sector, on health care, all this is really up in the air right now.

其对科技行业、医疗领域的影响目前都悬而未决。

🎧 And it's, you know, part and parcel, obviously, with a complete overhaul of the American immigration system as he sees it.

显然，这与他设想中美国immigration（移民）体系的全面overhaul（改革）密不可分parcel（组成部分）。

 00:18:31

▶ So, you know, people that have H-1Bs now are breathing a sigh of relief because there was a moment there where they were like, oh, shoot, we got to get back on U.S. soil, you know, in ours, but doesn't look like that's the case.

所以现有H-1B持有者暂时松了口气，因为曾有时刻让他们以为必须立即返美，但目前看来并非如此。

▶ So for now, that's the shiny thing we're looking at.

眼下这是我们关注的焦点。

曾任职于美国国际开发署和国务院等机构。

▶ So she's got a great perspective on Monika, great to have you.

因此她对莫妮卡有独到见解，欢迎您。

▶ Mona, rather great to have you here with us.

莫娜，非常荣幸您能做客节目。

▶ In terms of the meetings this week, what you're hearing so far, do you think anything will come out in terms of progress toward ending the war between Israel and Hamas?

就本周会议安排和您目前所知，您认为以哈停战能否取得进展？

⏮ No, unfortunately, I don't see any near-term prospect for a cease fire.

不幸的是，我认为近期没有停火可能。

⏮ We're sort of watching this weird paradox where there's growing momentum for the declaration of a Palestinian state, and yet nothing could be further from the reality on the ground, certainly in Gaza and beyond.

我们正目睹一个怪异悖论：巴勒斯坦建国宣言势头渐起，但加沙等地的实地局势却与之南辕北辙。

⏮ So then is the recognition symbolic?

那么这种承认是否仅具symbolic（象征）意义？

⏮ And if it is symbolic, does it do more than just make Israel feel isolated?

若是symbolic（象征性）的，其作用是否不止于让以色列感到isolated（孤立）？

⏮ Well, it's certainly symbolic.

这当然是symbolic（象征性的）。

⏮ It's hard.

很难说。

⏮ As I said, it doesn't translate to anything concrete on the ground.

如我所言，它未能转化为实地具体变化。

⏮ It certainly has had, I think, the effect of isolating Israel.

但我认为这确实产生了孤立以色列的效果。

⏮ And in a way, though, I think therefore, having Israel also entrench its position further.

某种程度上，这也促使以色列进一步固守立场。

▶ Prime Minister Netanyahu has been very clear that he is in no way, shape or form interested in seeing a Palestinian state come to fruition.

内塔尼亚胡总理已明确表示他绝无可能支持巴勒斯坦建国。

▶ What about financial pressure and economic pressure on Israel in particular?

特别是对以色列施加的金融和经济压力方面呢？

▶ I mean, the EU, Israel's biggest trading partner, is discussing suspending Israel's preferential commerce benefits, although some key German politicians have expressed their disapproval.

欧盟作为以色列最大的贸易伙伴，正在讨论暂停以色列的#优惠##贸易#待遇，尽管德国一些关键政要已表示反对。

▶ We've also talked about, you know, the money that Israel is spending on this war and the impact it's having on its economy.

我们也讨论过以色列在这场战争上的开支及其对经济的冲击。

 00:24:01

▶ How much of a financial and economic cost, how much more can Israel endure?

以色列还能#承受#多少财政和经济代价？

▶ Let's start there.

让我们从这里开始探讨。

▶ Or is that putting pressure for them to also bring an end to this?

或者说这也在施压他们结束冲突？

▶ Putting aside the impact on human life.

暂且不论对生命的影响。

▶ Which is significant.

这种影响是巨大的。

▶ But I think, as you rightly point out, first, we're still a ways from, I think, concerted EU action against Israel because of, you know, the kind of the opposition of countries like Germany.

但正如你正确指出的，首先由于德国等国的反对，欧盟距离对以色列采取一致行动还有很长的路。

 00:24:31

▶ My own view is barring significant leverage from the United States as the primary ally and supporter of Israel, it's really hard to see how any of these measures are going to have a real impact on Israeli decision making.

我的观点是，除非以色列主要盟友和支持者美国施加重大影响力，否则很难看出这些措施如何能真正影响以色列的决策。

▶ What kind of leverage is that in the form of.

这种#影响力#具体以什么形式体现？

▶ Funds is in the form of weapons.

资金是以武器形式提供的。

▶ What's the leverage?

所谓的#影响力#是什么？

 00:24:53

▶ Well, I mean, I think arms sales are often raised as a key leverage measure that the U.S. could take, restricting arms sales, maybe defense only selling defensive weapons or perhaps a full embargo on arms sales.

我认为军售常被提及为美国可采取的关键施压手段，比如限制军售、可能只出售防御性武器或全面禁运。

▶ These are certainly measures that have been discussed by Democrats in Congress.

这些确实是国会民主党人讨论过的措施。

▶ But again, we haven't seen those take on any momentum.

但同样，我们尚未看到这些措施形成任何#势头#。

bilibili 00:25:14

▶ And in fact, if anything, the Trump administration is actually proposing increased arms sales to Israel.

事实上，特朗普政府反而提议增加对以色列的军售。

▶ What would you say to the folks out there?

对此你想对公众说些什么？

▶ And we heard from the president who said those who want peace should be united with one message release the hostages.

我们听到总统表示，渴望和平的人们应团结一致呼吁释放人质。

▶ Now, just release the hostages.

立即释放人质。

▶ Those there's critics out there who say the ball right now is in Hamas's court.

有批评者指出当前主动权在哈马斯手中。

bilibili 00:25:33

▶ They can end this by releasing the hostages.

他们可以通过释放人质来结束这一切。

▶ Well, there's reporting that Hamas is proposing a limited 60 day cease fire in exchange for a partial release of the hostages and then perhaps additional releases as the cease fire goes on at the end of the day.

有报道称哈马斯提议有限停火60天，以换取部分人质释放，并可能在停火期间逐步释放更多人质。

▶ You know, yes, of course, Hamas on the ground is a critical element in this, but Israel is as well.

当然，哈马斯是关键因素，但以色列同样如此。

 00:25:57

▶ And there really needs to be perhaps movement on the part of Israel as well towards some kind of a of a cease fire negotiation, positive movement in the direction of a cease fire.

以色列方面也确实需要朝着停火谈判采取行动，向停火方向做出积极举动。

▶ You know, I think, you know, on the flipside to what Tim said, I mean, why why wouldn't Israel say, yeah, cease fire?

我想从蒂姆观点的另一面看，以色列为何不同意停火呢？

▶ Let's bring let's bring those folks home?

让我们接同胞回家？

 00:26:15

▶ Well, let's be clear.

我们需要明确一点。

▶ We're saying Israel as though it's a unitary actor, which of course, is not the case.

我们谈论以色列时仿佛它是单一行为体，但事实并非如此。

▶ So there have been massive demonstrations in Israel by across the political spectrum and certainly by hostage families really demanding that the Israeli government do more to reach

以色列各政治派别特别是人质家属已举行大规模示威，强烈要求政府采取更多行动促成协议。

▶ And it's really, you know, Prime Minister Netanyahu and those directly around him who have really, you know, put the brakes on any effort to actually move those negotiations along.

而实际上是内塔尼亚胡总理及其核心圈层一直在阻碍谈判取得进展。

▶ On that, we're going to be joined a little later in our program just at the 4:00 hour by Ethan Bronner.

关于这点，我们将在四点整的节目中连线伊桑·布朗纳。

▶ Typically, he joins us from Tel Aviv, but he's bringing the Tel Aviv view to New York.

通常他从特拉维夫连线，但这次他将把特拉维夫视角带到纽约。

▶ He's going to be in our studio a little later.

稍后他会来到我们演播室。

▶ So we'll get an update from him on what's happening on the ground in Tel Aviv right now, too.

我们将通过他了解特拉维夫当地的最新情况。

bilibili 00:27:02

▶ Yeah.

好的。

▶ Looking forward to that.

期待这次连线。

▶ One thing I wanted to ask you, Mona, I mean, I don't want to sound naive, but why why has this really gone on for so long?

莫娜，我想问你一个问题，可能听起来天真，但冲突为何持续如此之久？

▶ You know, before this war, we were talking about Netanyahu, the prime minister of Israel, maybe losing his job.

战前我们还在讨论内塔尼亚胡可能下台。

▶ You know, there was so much pushback against him.

他当时面临巨大反对声浪。

你长期研究该地区。

🎧 You understand conflict.

深谙冲突问题。

🎧 And I just wonder, you know, why it's going on for so long.

我只是困惑冲突为何持续这么久。

🎧 And really, what what do we get on the other side of this beyond a lot of loss?

除了巨大损失之外，我们最终能得到什么？

🎧 Enormous loss and devastation.

损失和破坏是巨大的。

🎧 I mean, unfortunately, conflicts take on dynamics of their own.

不幸的是，冲突会形成自身的#动态机制#。

🎧 And I think we've seen that in Gaza where, you know, there's efforts that have been made to move toward a ceasefire.

在加沙我们看到，尽管各方为推动停火做出努力。

 00:27:57

🎧 Of course, let's not forget, just a couple of weeks ago, Qatar was in the midst of mediating between Israel and Hamas when Israel unleashed strikes on Doha that immediately suspended that mediation.

但别忘了，几周前卡塔尔正调解以哈冲突时，以色列对多哈发动空袭导致调解立即中止。

当一方认为能继续获取实地优势时，很难真正让对手回到谈判桌妥协。

⏮ And I think certainly in the case of both Hamas and Israel, we're not seeing either side ready to sort of give up or surrender, come to the table and reach some sort of conclusion to this conflict.

显然在哈马斯和以色列案例中，双方都未准备放弃或投降，通过谈判终结冲突。

 00:28:42

⏮ As Carol mentioned in the introduction, you've spent decades working on the Middle East and North Africa.

如卡罗尔介绍所言，你数十年致力于中东和北非事务。

⏮ You've focused on conflict analysis, governance and stabilization, conflict prevention, USAID, U.S. State Department, and much more.

⏮ If you were advising U.S. leaders right now and Israeli leaders right now to end this conflict, how would you advise them?

若你现在建议美国和以色列领导人结束冲突，会如何建言？

 00:29:05

⏮ I would say that the most significant military gains have already been made.

我会指出最重要的军事目标已经达成。

⏮ And this isn't me.

这不是我个人的判断。

⏮ This is the opinion of senior leadership in the Israeli military.

这是以色列军方高层的看法。

▶ That net net of the the the costs of continuing this conflict are greater than any benefit.

继续冲突的净成本已超过任何收益。

▶ This is the moment to move toward a conclusion.

此刻正是走向终结的时机。

▶ It will be now two years this October.

到今年十月就满两年了。

 00:29:32

▶ Since October seven, there are still some 20 Israeli hostages alive still in Gaza.

自10月7日以来，仍有约20名以色列人质活在加沙。

▶ It's time to bring this conflict to an end so that they can come home and the region can move towards stabilization.

是时候结束冲突让人质回家，让地区走向稳定。

▶ You know, we talked about the cost to Israel, financial, economic and other.

我们谈过以色列付出的财政经济等代价。

▶ The war has decimated also the Palestinian economy.

战争也摧毁了巴勒斯坦经济。

冲突爆发以来已有超过6.5万巴勒斯坦人死亡。

▶ And that's, again, according to the Hamas run health ministry.

这个数字同样来自哈马斯管理的卫生部门。

▶ I mean, there is costs on all sides.

各方都付出了代价。

▶ Yeah, and Carol raises a good question.

卡罗尔提出了一个好问题。

▶ When we were talking about this ad ahead of time, which is essentially, okay, what's left or of a, you know, quote unquote, Palestinian state at the end of this conflict, what happens in Gaza?

 I'm Charlie Palatine.

我是查理·帕拉廷。

 That is a Bloomberg business flash.

以上是彭博商业快讯。

 All right, Charlie, we are staying on the UN General Assembly because along with it, it is also climate Week NYC.

好的查理，我们继续关注联合国大会，因为同期还有纽约气候周。

 00:34:12

 Both came together really this morning during President Trump's address at the U.N. where he talked about a lot, including what he called the green scam.

这两场活动在今早特朗普总统的联合国演讲中交汇，他谈及诸多议题，包括他所谓的绿色骗局。

 I know the U.N. official stated in 1989 that within a decade, entire nations could be wiped off the map by global warming.

我知道联合国官员曾在1989年宣称十年内全球变暖可能让整个国家从地图上消失。

 Not happening.

但这并未发生。

 You know, it used to be a global call, and now they could just call it climate change, because that way they can't miss.

要知道过去他们鼓吹全球变暖，现在改称气候变化，这样就不会说错。

 00:34:38

 It's the greatest con job ever perpetrated on the world, in my opinion.

在我看来这是有史以来最大的全球#骗局#。

 If you don't get away from this green scam, your country is going to fail.

若不摆脱这个绿色骗局，你们的国家将会失败。

▶ Right.

没错。

▶ That again, was President Trump earlier today at the UN General Assembly.

以上是特朗普总统今日早在联合国大会的发言。

▶ There's a lot going on when it comes to climate this week, Tim, and we've got a good view on the intersection of climate science, capital markets and product innovation.

蒂姆，本周气候领域动态频繁，我们对气候科学、资本市场和产品创新的交汇点有深入观察。

 00:35:00

▶ Olivia Albrecht is with us.

奥利维亚·阿尔布雷希特正在我们节目现场。

▶ She's with Automator, She's CEO and founder.

她是Automator的首席执行官兼创始人。

▶ She previously served as CEO at Aspiration, a climate finance and Oaktree portfolio company, offering sustainability solutions for consumers, businesses and investors.

她曾担任Aspiration公司的CEO，这家气候金融公司是橡树资本#投资组合#企业，为消费者、企业和投资者提供可持续解决方案。

▶ Before that, she spent a decade at PIMCO, most recently as head of ESG, a business Strategy.

此前她在PIMCO工作十年，最近担任ESG业务战略负责人。

 00:35:17

▶ Olivia, good to see you back with us.

奥利维亚，欢迎再次做客。

▶ A carbon investment manager, your firm.

贵公司是碳投资管理机构。

🎧 I'm wondering how the role changes during an administration such as this versus a previous administration that doesn't necessarily call climate change a scam?

我想知道在当前政府（将气候变化称为骗局）与不这么做的上届政府期间，这个角色有何不同？

🎧 Yeah, major differences, I suppose, from a U.S. perspective.

从美国视角看确实存在显著差异。

🎧 I guess I always like to start in the context of carbon, which is a $1 trillion asset where most of the assets are actually in the compliance markets, which are local regional networks of it's treated schemes.

讨论碳市场时我总喜欢从整体背景切入——这是万亿美元资产类别，其中大部分属于合规市场，即区域性碳排放交易体系。

 00:35:50

🎧 And that is not changing based off of who's in the White House.

这不会因白宫主人更迭而改变。

🎧 In the United States, a lot of work and a lot of attention is focused on the voluntary markets, where these are voluntary actions by corporations, which again are not in a not swayed by who's in the White House.

在美国，大量工作和关注点集中在自愿市场，这些是企业自愿行为，同样不受执政者影响。

🎧 And we see that there's still a lot of conviction in the carbon markets more broadly.

我们看到更广泛的碳市场依然充满#信心#。

 00:36:11

🎧 And again, when you think about it in the context of a $1 trillion market, with the bulk of it being in these regional ETF schemes or these carbon tax schemes across these regions, there's not much change as it relates to this space.

再说回万亿美元市场，其中主体是区域性ETF计划或碳税计划，这个领域其实变化不大。

▶ So major companies are buying carbon credits, all continuing as it has that we've seen over the last few years.

因此大企业购买碳信用额的行为持续如常，与过去几年情况一致。

▶ Again, when you bifurcate out the trillion dollar marketplace with 95, 90 plus percent of the market being the compliance markets, those are regulated assets.

若将这万亿美元市场拆分，95%以上属于受监管的合规市场资产。

bilibili 00:36:40

▶ So to do it, they have to do it well.

企业必须妥善履行义务。

▶ We spent a lot of time talking about in the carbon markets where there's a lot of attention is going to be in the smaller portion, which is a couple billion dollar marketplace on the voluntary side.

我们花很多时间讨论碳市场中受关注的较小板块——规模数十亿美元的自愿市场。

▶ And what you're seeing and as we discussed before, is there is a pullback in terms of the communication of the work that a lot of major corporations are doing, but nonetheless, they continue to buy carbon.

如我们之前讨论的，虽然大企业在宣传方面有所收敛，但它们仍在持续购买碳信用。

▶ What we're seeing is that they're actually making longer term investments, investments, signing long term five year offtake, really leaning into this space.

实际观察到的是，它们正在做更长线投资，签订五年期长期承购协议，真正深耕这一领域。

▶ But they're doing it more quietly than they were perhaps a few months ago.

但操作方式比几个月前更为低调。

▶ Is more quietly the only change or is the the actual rate of what they're buying and how they're buying changed Now, I think what you're seeing is that the the quantum of what is being purchased and signed up for long term offtake is actually increasing the quality is increasing.

低调是唯一变化吗？实际购买量和购买方式是否改变？我认为当前可见的是长期承购的购买量在增加，质量在提升。

 00:37:27

▶ The longevity of of the contracts are actually increasing.

合同的#期限#也在实际延长。

▶ Nobody's talking about it, though, but it's very quiet.

但无人公开讨论，非常沉寂。

▶ Why?

为何如此？

▶ Why is it quiet?

为何保持沉默？

▶ Just is.

就是这样。

▶ As you can imagine, I think everyone is is looking to ensure that they're out of the spotlight, out of the crosshairs, and quietly doing the work that they know that they should be doing.

可以想象，大家都想避开聚光灯和舆论靶心，默默做自己认为该做的事。

 00:37:45

▶ One other area beyond carbon, I think that you're seeing here at Climate Week is this convergence of traditional energy and renewable energy or alternative energy.

除碳市场外，气候周展现的另一个趋势是传统能源与可再生能源或替代能源的融合。

▶ We're really they're coming under one tent.

它们确实正在整合。

▶ We heard yesterday from the chair of the Energy Dominance Council from the Trump administration talking about the three priorities of the administration.

昨天我们听到特朗普政府能源主导委员会主席阐述三大执政重点：

▶ One is to have abundant domestic energy where there's traditional and renewable energy coming together to power air, which we don't even know how big that requirement is going to be to supplying our allies with all the residual energy that we produce here in the U.S. and ensuring that there are deals being struck with our allies.

一是实现国内能源充裕，让传统与可再生能源共同供能（其需求规模尚不可知）；二是用美国剩余能源供应盟国；三是确保与盟国达成协议。

▶ And then third, which is a little bit of a wildcard card, is nuclear energy dominance.

第三点稍显意外，是核能主导地位。

▶ And that is a big focal area for the administration as well.

这也是政府重点关注的领域。

bilibili 00:38:32

▶ So energy dominance, what's the reality when it comes to traditional forms of energy, carbon infused energy versus renewable, whether it's green, whether it's wind, whether it's solar?

那么能源主导的现实情况如何？传统能源、含碳能源与可再生能源（无论是绿色能源、风能还是太阳能）之间关系怎样？

▶ I know nuclear kind of plays within it, although some would say you got to worry a little bit about the waste and so on and so forth.

我知道核能也参与其中，尽管有人担忧核废料等问题。

▶ But I mean.

但我想说...

bilibili 00:38:51

🎵 Folks are not turning their back on renewables.

人们并未放弃可再生能源。

🎵 And as there been any shift, because, you know, Tim, you often bring up the president is very vocal about how he feels about when I know there was a ruling today that that is allowing a project to go through.

是否有任何转变？蒂姆你常提到总统对此态度鲜明。我知道今天有项裁决允许某个项目推进。

🎵 I think the one in Rhode Island is Orsted shares are higher as a result.

罗德岛那个项目应该是？沃旭能源股价因此上涨。

 00:39:06

🎵 So it's just, you know, trying to understand, as we say, the narrative that sometimes we're hearing in public versus what's going on behind the scenes.

所以正如我们常说的，需要理解公开言论与幕后实际的差异。

🎵 It's still moving ahead in terms of the renewable and green space.

#可再生#和绿色领域仍在持续推进。

🎵 The reality is that the renewable space has turned to be economically comparable to a lot of traditional energy sources at this point.

现实情况是，#可再生#能源领域目前已在#经济#上#媲美#许多传统能源来源。

 00:39:25

🎵 So without subsidies from the US government or from governments around the world, these projects are viable, they're economically viable, they compete, but they have to have they compete in areas where there is heavy wind flow and there is sun, abundant sun, and there is abundant kind of energy sources from these renewable spaces, but nonetheless, they're economically viable.

因此即使没有美国政府或各国政府的补贴，这些项目仍具可行性——它们在经济上可行且具有竞争力，但必须布局在风能充沛、阳光充足、拥有丰富可再生资源的地区。尽管如此，它们确实具备经济可行性。

▶ So they'll persist despite rhetoric.

所以无论舆论如何，它们都将#持续存在#。

▶ But are they economically viable without government support, without government tax incentives?

但若没有政府支持和税收优惠，它们是否仍具备#经济# #可行性#？

 00:39:54

▶ Yes, I think in a lot of instances you see that these are economically viable.

是的，我认为大量实例表明它们确实具有#经济# #可行性#。

▶ You see less and less subsidies being flown, flown into major solar renewable energy projects at this point.

眼下投入大型太阳能#可再生#能源项目的补贴正日益减少。

▶ I'll ask the question another way.

我想换个方式提问。

▶ Are they viable with tariffs?

加征关税后它们还能#生存#吗？

▶ I suppose you could say, you know, again, when you think about it from the all of the above solution said there's going to be parts of the United States that are going to have economically viable renewable energy projects that have no oil and gas.

我认为，从综合能源方案的角度来看，美国部分地区确实会发展不依赖油气、经济可行的可再生能源项目。

 00:40:22

▶ And there's going to be parts of the United States that have oil and gas but don't have consistent sunshine or consistent wind flow.

而另一些地区虽拥有油气资源，却缺乏持续日照或稳定风力。

▶ So it really just depends upon where you are in the United States.

因此这完全取决于你身处美国的哪个区域。

⏮ And absolutely, when you think about, you know, the role of tariffs coming in, any import is going to be impacted.

当然，考虑到关税的作用，所有进口产品都会受到影响。

⏮ And so therefore, you come to the same conclusion, which is energy dominance from a domestic supply chain, the cost of power.

由此我们得出相同结论：能源自主需依靠国内供应链，这与电力成本息息相关。

 00:40:46

⏮ And the president talked about it being more expensive here.

总统曾表示美国电价更高。

⏮ Is it because of air that power is more expensive?

是因为环保要求导致电价更高吗？

⏮ Is he right?

他说得对吗？

⏮ In terms of the big picture?

从宏观层面看？

⏮ I think it's very regional, right.

我认为地域差异很大。

⏮ The cost of energy.

能源成本。

⏮ And from California, the cost of energy is is high.

加州能源成本高昂。

⏮ Then there's parts of Texas.

而德克萨斯州部分地区。

▶ We were recently in a part of Texas where folks who are taking power from the grid at certain times of day are actually getting paid to take the energy off of the grid because there's an oversupply largely from renewable energy projects, plus all of the fossil fuel industry across Texas.

我们近期在德州某地看到，由于可再生能源项目及全州化石燃料产业导致电力过剩，居民在特定时段从电网取电反而能获得补偿。

▶ So it's so localized and is so regionally dependent based off of a lot of state and local regulations and taxes, less so than at a federal level.

可见电力成本高度本地化，受州地级法规税政影响远大于联邦层面。

▶ And then I think you can say the same across Europe and across other parts of the world as well.

欧洲乃至全球其他地区也是如此。

▶ It's very localized.

地域性特征极为显著。

▶ And then we want more time.

接下来我们还有时间。

▶ What would be your advice to your investors?

您对投资者有何建议？

▶ I mean, based on what you are seeing and just got about 30 seconds here.

根据您的观察，我们只剩30秒。

▶ Look, I think we're really focused on doing more with less.

我认为重点在于"少投入多产出"。

▶ Looking at your supply chain and trying to find ways to to clean the supply chain, but also utilize more assets in your supply chain.

审视供应链，寻求清洁化方案的同时提高资产利用率。

bilibili 00:41:57

▶ There's a lot of waste when economic boom is in place.

经济#繁荣#期往往伴随大量浪费。

▶ And now if you see a little bit of a contraction and you have to do more with less to find ways to clean up your operations and create more efficiency.

当下若出现收缩迹象，则需通过优化运营提升效率，实现降本增效。

▶ Interesting.

有意思。

▶ All right.

好的。

▶ She is the CEO and founder of are two are to meet her.

她是"Are Two"公司的CEO兼创始人。

▶ Olivier Albrecht joining us here in studio.

奥利维尔·阿尔布雷希特来到我们演播室。

bilibili 00:42:14

▶ I'm so glad.

非常高兴。

▶ Thank you for coming back because I know we couldn't get to you yesterday and it were really glad to.

感谢再次光临，昨天未能连线成功，今天能相聚实在欣喜。

▶ When we come back, a check on trading in some stocks on the move.
