▶ This is BPC News.

这里是BPC新闻。

▶ This Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu told local media that Israel will allow Palestinians to leave Gaza if they want, denying claims they are being pushed out.

以色列总理本杰明·内塔尼亚胡告诉当地媒体，如果巴勒斯坦人愿意，以色列将允许他们离开加沙，否认他们被驱逐的说法。

▶ As the IDF moves ahead with plans to occupy further territory in the strip, Mr. Netanyahu spoke to the Israeli broadcaster, I-24 News.

随着以色列国防军推进占领加沙地带更多领土的计划，内塔尼亚胡先生对以色列广播公司I-24新闻发表了讲话。

 00:11:27

▶ Give them the opportunity to leave, first of all to leave combat zones and generally leave the Gaza strip if they want.

给他们离开的机会，首先是离开战斗区，如果他们愿意，可以离开加沙地带。

▶ Some of Mr. Netanyahu did not lay out the specifics of any plan to facilitate any such movement, but a poll of Gaza's back in May found that more than half 56 percent were not willing to leave.

内塔尼亚胡先生没有详细说明任何促进此类行动的具体计划，但5月份对加沙的一项民意调查发现，超过56%的人不愿意离开。

▶ While 43 percent said they would be willing to leave Gaza after the war, that poll conducted by the Palestinian Center for Policy and Survey Research.

而43%的人表示他们愿意在战后离开加沙，这项调查由巴勒斯坦政策与调查研究中心进行。

 00:11:56

▶ There's been a new wave of displacement from Gaza City over the past few days.

过去几天，加沙城出现了新一轮流离失所潮。

▶ Aerial attacks are intensifying there, as Israeli forces prepared to move in.

随着以色列军队准备进入，那里的空袭正在加剧。

▶ As civil defense said, the residential areas of Zaitun and Sabra continue to be hit by bombs and drone strikes.

民防部门表示，Zaitun和Sabra的居民区继续遭到炸弹和无人机袭击。

▶ Local health officials confirmed 89 Palestinians have been killed in the latest 24-hour reporting period.

当地卫生官员证实，在最新的24小时报告期内，有89名巴勒斯坦人丧生。

 00:12:18

▶ We have our State Department correspondent Tom Bateman with us in the studio now.

我们现在请到了国务院记者Tom Bateman在演播室。

▶ Tom, first of all, tell us a bit more about what the Prime Minister has been saying, Prime Minister Netanyahu, about the displacement of Gaza.

首先，汤姆，请详细介绍一下内塔尼亚胡总理关于加沙民众流离失所的言论。

▶ He said things like this before that Palestinians can leave Gaza.

他此前曾表示巴勒斯坦人可以离开加沙。

▶ He frames it as a free choice as a voluntary issue.

他将此描述为自由选择的自愿行为。

 00:12:36

▶ Now of course, as that polling showed under bombardment, the vast majority of homes damaged or destroyed in Gaza knower to live.

当然，正如民调显示的，在轰炸下，加沙大部分被损毁或摧毁的房屋已无法居住。

▶ Absolute humanitarian catastrophe.

这是绝对的人道主义灾难。

▶ It's unsurprising and it's thought perhaps up to a million Palestinians to stay there would choose to leave.

毫不意外的是，据估计可能有高达百万巴勒斯坦人选择离开。

▶ But the fundamental point is they want to come back.

但关键在于他们希望回归。

 00:12:53

▶ It's their home.

那是他们的家园。

▶ We know from our own Palestinian colleagues who were fortunate enough to be able to get out at various points during the war.

我们从一些巴勒斯坦同事处得知，他们在战争期间有幸撤离。

▶ In the end they want to go back.

但最终他们仍想返回。

▶ It's where they're from and their families and it's their home.

那是他们的故土、家人所在，是他们的家。

▶ So the point about what Mr Netanyahu says is it is misleading because for two reasons, first of all, it isn't accurate to say people have a free choice to leave under that scale of bombardment.

因此，内塔尼亚胡的言论具有误导性，原因有二：其一，在如此规模的轰炸下，称人们有自由选择离开权利并不准确。

 00:13:19

▶ Of course, people do so because they're fundamentally being compelled but they want to write the right to return.

当然，人们离开是因为被迫，但他们要求的是回归的权利。

▶ But the second reason is more fundamentally about the history of the conflict.

其二则更关乎冲突的历史根源。

▶ It's often been pointed out by Palestinians.

巴勒斯坦人常指出：

▶ If we can leave Gaza with free choice, we choose to go back to our family homes in Israel in what is now Israel.

若我们真能自由选择离开加沙，我们会选择回到如今以色列境内的祖居。

 00:13:39

▶ The places from which their families were fled or forced to leave during the war surrounding Israel's creation in 1948.

这些地方是1948年以色列建国战争中他们家人逃离或被驱逐的故土。

▶ Now that's a fundamental issue and it goes to the very heart of this conflict.

这是根本问题，也是冲突的核心。

▶ 90% of the population of Gaza are registered refugees from 1948 or their descendants and it's why it's such a driver of the conflict.

加沙90%人口是1948年登记的难民或其后代，这正是冲突的深层动因。

 00:13:58

▶ And why there is no trust over this issue, either among Palestinians or many Arab countries where Mr Netanyahu says things like people can leave freely given the circumstances.

因此，无论巴勒斯坦人还是许多阿拉伯国家，对内塔尼亚胡所谓“人们可自由离开”的言论毫无信任。

▶ At the same time, Israel is under increasing pressure over the targeted strike that killed six journalists.

与此同时，以色列因定点空袭导致六名记者丧生而承受越来越大压力。

▶ What is the US saying about this?

美国对此有何表态？

bilibili 00:14:16

▶ Well, we had the first chance today to put some of these questions to the State Department and the spokeswoman Tammy Bruce during a press briefing.

今日我们首次有机会在国务院记者会上向发言人塔米·布鲁斯提出这些问题。

▶ Now, an Al Jazeera correspondent in Washington, Ahmed Al-Hazan asked her a length about this, talked about his colleagues who were killed.

半岛电视台驻华盛顿记者艾哈迈德·哈桑详细追问此事，提及遇害的同僚。

▶ He said he had 11 colleagues among the more than 230 killed in Gaza by Israel during the course of the war and pushed the spokeswoman on that particular issue, put to her the claims by the IDF that Anas Al-Sharif was a Hamas militant that led a rocket cell for which, you know, as he put to her, there has been no credible evidence produced.

他表示，战争期间以色列在加沙杀害的230多人中包括他的11名同事，并质疑以军称死者阿纳斯·沙里夫是哈马斯火箭部队头目的说法缺乏可信证据。

▶ Now in answer to that, she said simply, as a matter for the Israeli government, I refer you to the Israeli government and repeated the Israeli government lines.

对此，发言人仅回应称此事属以色列政府管辖，并重复以方说辞。

▶ So I picked up on that and asked her about the issue of the US's own accountability.

于是我追问美国自身的责任问题。

🎧 You've said on the killing of these journalists that you refer us to the government of Israel.

您将这些记者遇害事件推给以色列政府。

bilibili 00:15:13

🎧 Yes.

是的。

🎧 One of the worst if not the worst single attack on journalists in modern history, this particular incident on Sunday.

这是现代史上最恶劣的针对记者的袭击之一。

🎧 As of all the journalists have been killed, probably many of them by American weapons that supply put the US out.

所有遇害记者中，很可能多人死于美国提供的武器。

🎧 Well, I'm sorry.

抱歉。

🎧 I respect you too enough to not project something that serious, sensing probably.

出于尊重，我不愿妄加揣测如此严重之事。

🎧 Let's leave that out.

暂且不谈这点。

bilibili 00:15:35

🎧 The majority of weapons that are used have been supplied by the United States, courtesy of the US taxpayers.

多数使用武器由美国纳税人出资提供。

🎧 There is a very strong accountability issue for the American government.

美国政府对此负有重大责任。

那么，美方是否启动内部程序调查此事是否符合战争法？

▶ Well, obviously there's many internal processes.

显然存在多种内部程序。

bilibili 00:15:58

▶ I'm discussing with you a suggestion about who to reach out to, who has the answers for you.

我只是建议您该向谁寻求答案。

▶ And that is due to the fact that more than aware, of course there's internal processes, which I will not be discussing with you because of the nature of them and the importance of the diplomatic work that is continuing to this day to stop that carnage.

由于程序性质敏感且外交工作仍在继续以阻止屠杀，具体细节不便透露。

▶ So the internal process is not made clear there.

因此内部程序未予明确说明。

bilibili 00:16:21

▶ I mean, the last administration came under heavy criticism, not least from its own base over its relationship with Israel during the course of the war, but within the State Department there were mechanisms that they often referred to about investigating the way US weapons who used largely those processes have been shut down by the State Department under the Trump administration.

上届政府因战时对以关系饱受批评，国务院原有调查美制武器使用情况的机制，但特朗普任内已叫停。

▶ Okay.

好的。

▶ Really interesting, exchange and interesting reporting there.

这场交锋和报道非常精彩。

▶ Yes, thank you for having me.

感谢邀请。

▶ Acute malnutrition is really the process that happens in the body when you're not eating enough and you become sick and you're trying to fight infections and then your nutrient needs increase and then you're less able to fight that infection.

急性营养不良是身体因摄入不足对抗疾病时，营养需求增加却愈发力不从心的恶性循环。

 00:19:12

▶ It really becomes a vicious cycle.

这形成恶性循环。

▶ And it's a slide into that final stage of starvation where children and adults experience organ failure and ultimately die.

最终滑向器官衰竭致死的饥饿终局。

▶ But the reality is especially for young kids, the youngest, the babies, the toddlers, they never even make it to the stage of starvation because many succumb to illnesses far earlier in the acute malnutrition process.

但现实中，婴幼儿往往在达到饥饿阶段前就死于营养不良引发的疾病。

 00:19:38

▶ What are the symptoms or perhaps some of the indicators that will display malnutrition, acute malnutrition?

急性营养不良的症状或指标有哪些？

🎤 I mean, there are the obvious ones, physical appearance, but what else do you and your team look out for?

除明显体表特征外，您还关注哪些？

🎤 Yes, well, it's driven by multiple things.

这由多重因素导致。

🎤 The essentials for life are what ultimately lead us to being healthy, so food, water and healthcare.

健康取决于食物、水和医疗等生存要素。

 00:20:02

🎤 And so any one of these things, a lack of any of these things, can ultimately lead to malnutrition.

任一要素缺失都会引发营养不良。

🎤 For example, if we don't have stable, sustained access to food and it has to be healthy food, especially for young kids who are growing rapidly or pregnant and lactating women, they need high quality nutrient dense food.

例如，若无法持续获得健康食物——尤其是快速发育的儿童或孕产妇所需的高营养食物。

🎤 They need clean water, especially babies.

他们需要洁净水，婴儿尤甚。

 00:20:27

🎤 If they're not able to be breastfed, mothers need clean water to make formula, for example.

若无法母乳喂养，母亲需净水冲调奶粉。

🎤 And then healthcare because illness itself is a massive driver of malnutrition.

医疗也关键，因疾病本身会加剧营养不良。

▶ If we're not able to treat underlying illness, especially in the most vulnerable people, they will eventually develop malnutrition as well.

若无法治疗基础疾病，弱势群体终将营养不良。

▶ So any of these factors can lead to malnutrition.

因此任一因素都可能导致营养不良。

 00:20:48

▶ And what we see is just a loss of weight and illness and this becomes quite extreme by the time you've developed severe acute malnutrition.

我们观察到体重骤降和疾病恶化，严重急性营养不良时已非常极端。

▶ And we're seeing a lot of this in Gaza right now.

加沙正普遍如此。

▶ How quickly can acute malnutrition be reversed?

急性营养不良能否快速逆转？

▶ And if at all, of course with children, toddlers as you're describing, they're reaching a really dire state.

尤其您描述的婴幼儿已处危急状态。

 00:21:13

▶ Yes, well, it takes weeks for anybody to reach that stage of acute malnutrition, especially severe acute malnutrition.

通常需数周才发展至急性（尤其严重急性）营养不良阶段。

▶ And we're seeing it right now in the past month, the looking at the data that came in from July at the highest rate yet.

但七月数据显示，过去一个月恶化速度前所未有。

▶ So we know we're really on the precipice of a catastrophe.

我们正站在灾难边缘。

▶ I mean, we're already seeing that across Gaza.

加沙已处处如此。

bilibili 00:21:38

▶ Can you tell us a bit more about how this is impacting your colleagues?

这对您的同事有何影响？

▶ We heard Mohammed speaking a bit earlier about his experience.

穆罕默德刚才提及他的经历。

▶ Yes, well, I think what feels different to me about this crisis is when we see famine and we are very careful not to call something a famine unless it's reached the absolute highest levels of food insecurity and acute malnutrition in young children and rates of mortality.

此次危机的特殊之处在于：我们通常慎用“饥荒”一词，除非儿童粮食不安全、急性营养不良和死亡率达最高级。

bilibili 00:22:05

▶ That's a word that's quite reserved for emergencies.

这是专用于紧急状况的术语。

▶ It's only been used three or four times in the last 15 years.

过去15年仅用过三四次。

▶ But what's different about this time is that our colleagues are themselves hungry and starving.

但此次不同在于，我们的同事自身也在挨饿。

▶ Our nurses and doctors working in clinics are treating patients not just having missed one or two meals, but having not eaten for days.

诊所医护治疗患者时，自己已数日未进食。

bilibili 00:22:27

▶ They have to go home as my colleague has gone home and ask their partners to our children have food.

他们像穆罕默德一样回家询问孩子是否吃上饭。

▶ And so I think that is what's really what's so different about this famine and this situation in Gaza that we don't typically see in other famine situations.

这就是加沙饥荒的独特之处。

▶ Should not just before we let you go, what is your message then to the international community?

最后，您想对国际社会说什么？

 00:22:50

▶ Political pressure.

施加政治压力。

▶ I think that ultimately our elected officials work for us and we have aid.

我们选出的官员应履行职责，援助物资已就位。

▶ It's prepositioned on the border in Egypt, in Jordan.

它们被预置在埃及、约旦边境。

▶ What we really need is the ability to get that aid where it needs to go.

关键是要让援助抵达需要之处。

▶ Okay.

好的。

▶ Jeanette Bailey, thank you so much for joining us and sharing your perspective with us tonight.

珍妮特·贝利，感谢您今晚的分享。

▶ Thank you.

谢谢。
