🎧 Well, so typhoon signal number 10, the highest on the land here.

嗯，#台风#10号风球是本地最高预警信号。

bilibili 00:05:44

🎧 That means Hong Kong is now facing hurricane level up of wind and gusts literally.

意味着香港正直面#飓风#级别的狂风。

🎧 Even in the past hour, the Hong Kong of Servetry, the meteorological agency here has cropped up the center speed of 190 kilometres per hour, that's around 120 miles per hour at the center of typhoon regardless of what is a really strong thing.

过去一小时香港天文台测得台风中心风速达每小时190公里，即约120英里，这确实非常强劲。

🎧 Something that is really comparable to an American hurricane.

强度确实#堪比#美国#飓风#。

bilibili 00:06:19

🎧 So in the past hours, the tide of search that is a problem in Hong Kong, we have some coastal walkways and bankaments being flooded already.

🎧 Ukrainian President Vladimir Zelensky is hailing it as a big shift today.

乌克兰总统泽连斯基今日称赞此为重大转变。

🎧 President Trump has said that Ukraine is, quote, in a position to fight and win all of Ukraine back in its original form.

🎧 Writing on his true social network, President Trump said that Ukraine with the support of the European Union could retake all its territory from Russia and possibly even go further than that.

特朗普总统在其真实的社交网络上发文称，乌克兰在欧盟的支持下能够从俄罗斯手中夺回全部领土，甚至可能更进一步。

 00:08:21

🎧 And shortly after meeting with President Trump, the Ukrainian President was interviewed on Fox News speaking on the special report with Brett Baer.

与特朗普总统会面后不久，乌克兰总统接受了福克斯新闻专访，与布雷特·拜尔就特别报道进行对话。

🎧 Vladimir Zelensky said he thinks Trump has changed his position.

🎧 Today we had good conversation with President Trump and I think he understands for today that we can't just swap territories.

今日我们与特朗普总统进行了良好对话，我认为他已明白当前我们不能简单地#交换#领土。

 00:08:39

🎧 It's not fair.

这不公平。

🎧 It's not real.

这不现实。

▶ So you think his position has changed?

所以您认为他的立场改变了？

▶ Yes, I think so.

是的，我认为如此。

▶ And God bless.

愿上帝#保佑#。

▶ I really count on this on continuation of his attitude to the territorial question and the question on why was over and to him.

我真心期待他在领土问题及既往争议上态度的#延续#。

▶ I correspond to on Baidman has sent this update from New York.

我#获悉#拜德曼从纽约发回的这则更新。

▶ This is on the face of it a significant shift by President Trump saying that he thinks Ukraine can not just win back all of the territory that's occupied by Russia, but even he suggested go further than that.

表面看来这是特朗普总统的重大转变，他不仅认为乌克兰能收复俄占全部领土，甚至暗示可能更进一步。

 00:09:19

▶ Now, President Zelensky is hailing what Mr. Trump has said.

如今泽连斯基总统对特朗普的言论表示欢呼。

▶ He said that the two men had a good conversation that he believes that this now means in his view the US will be with Ukraine.

他表示双方进行了良好对话，并认为这意味着美国将站在乌克兰一边。

▶ He said until the very end.

他强调会坚持到底。

▶ So that matters.

因此这至关重要。

▶ And Mr. Zelensky also saying that he saw this as a shift in position by Mr. Trump much further back into the Ukrainian's camp.

泽连斯基还称此举标志着特朗普的立场转向更坚定地支持乌克兰。

▶ But of course the thing that matters most here is American weapons supply.

但最关键的因素仍是美国的武器供应。

▶ And since the end of the Biden administration, there hasn't been any new backing for funding by the US for arms.

自拜登政府任期结束以来，美国再未批准对乌军援资金。

▶ To Ukraine and there is virtually no possibility of a Republican Congress under Mr. Trump doing that.

而由特朗普领导的共和党控制的国会几乎不可能通过此类援助。

▶ And what we saw from Mr. Trump in his social media post was him saying that it was up to NATO and the Europeans to back Ukraine.

特朗普在社交媒体发文中表示支持乌克兰的责任应由北约和欧洲承担。

bilibili 00:10:18

▶ And what he means by that is continue to give the moms many of those bought from the Americans now, but he's expecting the Europeans and NATO to pick up the bill for this fight that he thinks that Ukraine can suddenly change the world.

其意图是让欧洲和北约为这场冲突买单——尽管他认为乌克兰可能突然改变世界格局。

▶ So really without that considerable backing from the US, it seems very unlikely that what Mr. Trump says he thinks can happen can really happen on the battlefield.

若没有美国的实质性支持，特朗普预想的战场局面恐怕难以实现。

▶ And so while Mr. Zelensky is championing what has been said, it doesn't seem that it will suddenly usher in any kind of change in the course of the war itself.

尽管泽连斯基大力推崇这些言论，但战争进程似乎不会因此突然转变。

bilibili 00:10:54

▶ Well, for one of this, let's speak with John Herbs, a former US ambassador to Ukraine.

对此我们连线美国前驻乌克兰#大使#约翰·赫布斯特。

▶ Ambassador, good to get your thoughts on this.

#大使#先生，很高兴听取您的见解。

▶ So what do you make of President Trump's about turn and sort of a more supportive rhetoric towards Ukraine getting its sovereignty back?

您如何看待特朗普总统的立场转变及其支持乌克兰恢复#主权#的言论？

▶ Well, this is a new development and a surprise of one.

这确实是个出人意料的新进展。

bilibili 00:11:12

▶ I think that one reason not not necessarily the main reason, but one reason why Trump has been consistent on this issue is because he always felt Russia was not going to be in a fight.

我认为特朗普在此问题上态度一贯的原因之一（未必是主因）是他始终认为俄罗斯不愿陷入持久战。

▶ He always felt Russia was never really going to win.

他一直觉得俄罗斯根本不可能真正获胜。

▶ And it's worth noting that when he was a senator, not that long ago, JD Vance and Mathematically, Russia was certainly win, which of course is not very smart analysis.

值得注意的是，不久前参议员JD·万斯曾用数学论证俄罗斯必胜，这显然不是明智的分析。

bilibili 00:11:35

▶ So for Trump to understand that the fact that Ukraine is not doing badly on the battlefield, which happens to be true, and that the Russian economy is in trouble, which happens to be true.

特朗普能认识到乌克兰在战场上表现不差（这符合事实），俄罗斯经济陷入困境（这也属实）。

▶ But in fact, with the right amount of level of support from the West, take back much of its territory, which is also true.

事实上若获得西方适当支持，乌克兰能收复大部分领土（这同样是事实）。

▶ Those are all positive things.

这些都是积极因素。

bilibili 00:11:53

▶ But as your correspondent pointed out, without other things happening, like significant new American weapons flowing to Ukraine, not necessarily paid for by the United States, this won't happen.

但如您记者所指，若没有美国向乌克兰输送重要新武器（未必由美方出资）等实际行动，这一切不会发生。

▶ So do you think we'll see more beyond the rhetorical support from President Trump then?

那么您认为特朗普后续会采取超越#口头#支持的实际行动吗？

▶ Well, I felt for some time we would because Trump has stated multiple times he wants to achieve a durable piece.

我预计会，因为特朗普多次声明要达成#持久#和平。

bilibili 00:12:20

▶ Trump has been stating since May, absolutely correctly, that Putin is the obstacle to peace in Ukraine, and he Trump has frustrated.

自五月起特朗普就一直正确指出普京是乌克兰和平的#障碍#，他本人对此感到挫败。

▶ And Trump, though, has been reluctant, and that's a blightword, to put serious pressure on the Kremlin.

但特朗普始终#不愿#对克里姆林宫施加实质性压力。

⏮ But at some point, are the Trump looks weak, or he puts that pressure on the Kremlin.

某刻他要么显得软弱，要么就对俄施压。

⏮ So I've always expected it would happen.

因此我始终预期后者会发生。

⏮ It's possible that this new rhetoric is a foreshadowing of that happening soon.

这番新言论可能预示着行动即将来临。

⏮ But given tough rhetoric in the past, not followed by forced-flexion, I say let's wait and see.

但鉴于过往强硬言论未伴随实际行动，我认为还需观望。

⏮ Yeah, and what do you think President Putin will be thinking then?

您认为普京总统会作何反应？

⏮ Do you think he'll also take a wait and see approach?

他会采取观望态度吗？

bilibili 00:13:03

⏮ Russian media was demonstrating, and I think Bloomberg had an article earlier this week or late last week saying that Putin came away from Alaska believing he didn't have to do anything to please Trump.

俄媒显示，彭博社本周初或上周末有文章称普京从阿拉斯加会晤后认为无需讨好特朗普。

⏮ He could manipulate Trump.

他能够#操纵#特朗普。

⏮ And I think that's right.

我认为这说法正确。

🎧 And I think Russian activity since Alaska has demonstrated that, the great increase of bombing of Ukrainian cities, the great increase in provocations against NATO.

阿拉斯加会晤后俄方行动印证了这点——大幅增加对乌城市轰炸，频繁挑衅北约。

 00:13:27

🎧 So Putin clearly believes that.

可见普京深信此点。

🎧 So he's not going to let what Trump said today changes mine.

因此他不会因特朗普今日言论改变策略。

🎧 But if Trump's accurate and tough words today are followed by action, over time, Putin may begin to understand that he cannot take more Ukrainian territory.

但若特朗普今日的强硬言论转化为行动，假以时日普京或会意识到他无法夺取更多乌克兰领土。

🎧 Well, President Trump did say that he would be supportive of NATO shooting down Russian aircraft that breaches airspace.

特朗普总统确实表示支持北约击落侵犯领空的俄军战机。

 00:13:51

🎧 Do you think that would give the green light to NATO to take a sort of all NATO ally countries to take a sort of stronger position against Russia in support of Ukraine?

这是否会为北约盟国采取更强硬反俄立场支持乌克兰开绿灯？

🎧 I think this will encourage them to take a greater position of greater strength and defending themselves against Russian provocations.

我认为这将鼓励他们以更强姿态防御俄罗斯挑衅。

🎧 But it's worth noting that Poland shot down Russian drones even before it had the slated state, Trump.

但需注意波兰在特朗普表态前就曾击落俄方无人机。

 00:14:15

▶ But Trump's response to those drones going to Poland a week ago was not a profile and strength.

而特朗普一周前对波兰无人机事件的反响并未展现坚定立场。

▶ So this kind of improves his stance on Russian provocations against NATO, and that's only to be welcomed.

因此当前表态改善了他对俄挑衅北约的#立场#，这值得欢迎。

▶ Ambassador, we'll leave it there.

#大使#先生，今日访谈到此为止。

▶ Thank you as always for your thoughts, John Herbst, to formally US Ambassador to Ukraine.

感谢您的见解，美国前驻乌克兰#大使#约翰·赫布斯特。

▶ And it is really catapulted into this national debate about free speech with, of course, many of his fellow late night comedians rallying around in his support, saying that this was outrageous that a comedian should be taken off the air.

此事迅速引爆全国性的言论自由辩论，众多深夜档同行喜剧演员纷纷声援，认为喜剧演员因言论遭停播实属骇人听闻。

▶ We find ourselves in a world where over 600 million people have no access to electricity at all, and over 2 billion people have no access to clean cooking fields.

当前全球有超过6亿人无电可用，超过20亿人缺乏清洁烹饪设施。

▶ So in the Africa region is actually the most affected, with about 600 million in the Africa region having no access to electricity.

非洲地区受影响最严重，约6亿非洲人无法用电。

▶ But the solutions are there.

但解决方案是存在的。

▶ We know technology wise is there to connect everybody to cleaner energy either to solar, hydro, or even green hydrogen coming up right now.

技术层面已能通过太阳能、水电乃至新兴的绿色#氢#能为所有人提供清洁能源。

bilibili 00:19:43

▶ But the funding does not relate to what we're saying.

但资金投入与需求不匹配。

▶ Not everybody is willing to play their part necessarily.

并非所有国家都愿尽责。

▶ We've seen the US, for example, pull out of a lot of funding initiatives, a lot of sustainability energy initiatives as well.

例如美国已退出众多资助计划及可持续能源倡议。

▶ Has that had a big impact on the goals that you've been talking about?

这是否对您提及的目标产生重大影响？

▶ I think the movement towards cleaner tech and mobility and cleaner energy is a movement that you can't stop now because it makes good economic sense.

我认为清洁技术、清洁交通和清洁能源的浪潮已不可阻挡，因其具备经济合理性。

bilibili 00:20:10

▶ Any time that we have any big global power are making decisions that seem contrary to the climate challenge.

但凡有大国做出看似#违背#气候应对的决策，

▶ It does have an effect.

确实会产生负面影响。

▶ But I think what it also calls on the flip side is that a lot of developing countries and emerging economies have seen that nobody's here to save you.

但另一方面，这也让许多发展中国家和新兴经济体意识到无人会施以援手。

▶ We also have a more serious and more astute voting public that are not willing to just say, OK, I'll be left behind to you.

民众也愈发清醒睿智，不愿坐视落后。

 00:20:34

▶ Find the best climate solution for me and I will just remain in poverty.

他们不愿接受“为我寻找最佳气候方案，而我甘守#贫困#”的局面。

▶ Things are changing and shifting.

形势正在转变。

▶ You mentioned 1.5 degrees.

您提到1.5摄氏度目标。

▶ There's a target for 2030 to reduce emissions.

2030年有减排目标。

▶ Is there a realistic target?

这是否现实？

▶ I think there are realistic targets, but we do always have to reconvene and say, how are we going to get to that target?

目标切实可行，但需不断审视达成路径。

 00:20:52

▶ I think we have to realize that we are seeing some successes coming up.

必须认识到我们已取得一些成功。

▶ The amount of gigawatts of renewables happening in China and India is at a rate that we never thought was possible.

中印两国可再生能源的吉瓦级增速超乎想象。

▶ The fact that two, day two or three, we live in an EV adoption.

如今电动汽车#普及率#日益提升,

▶ It is cheaper than any type of fossil benefits.

其成本已低于任何#化石#燃料车型。

▶ But how do we scale that up?

但如何扩大规模?

 00:21:11

▶ How do we have not just energy transition, but also a green industrial revolution at the same time?

如何同步实现能源#转型#与绿色工业革命?

▶ We're talking about the demands of energy.

我们探讨能源需求时,

▶ And we've seen a proliferation of AI data centers and advances in technology, which are mostly keenly felt in the developed world.

可见人工智能数据中心的#激增#和技术进步, 这在发达国家感受#尤为深切#。

▶ But they're putting a huge strain on the need for energy.

但这给能源需求带来巨大压力。

 00:21:31

▶ Do you see that as being a big concern?

您是否视其为重大隐忧?

▶ Absolutely.

当然。

🎧 I mean, if you think about how much energy that AI is going to use, just your, you know, a chat GPT search compared to a Google search, it is staggering.

仅对比ChatGPT搜索与谷歌搜索的耗能差异就令人震惊。

🎧 But we are also thinking companies like Google, IBM and the likes of them also think that they want to go to carbon free electricity by 2030.

但谷歌、IBM等企业也计划在2030年前实现无碳电力。

 00:21:53

🎧 This is also important.

这同样关键。

🎧 So it's not just about powering your system.

因此不仅要实现系统#可再生#供电，

🎧 We're renewable, but making sure your whole energy system is carbon free.

更要确保整个能源系统无碳化。

🎧 So while we are talking about connecting the most vulnerable energy transition, we do also have to make sure big companies and big energy consumers like the digital and the AI companies and climate tech companies also recognize that they have a responsibility to focus on carbon free electricity.

在关注脆弱群体能源转型的同时，也需确保数字企业、人工智能公司及气候科技公司等能耗大户认识到其追求无碳电力的责任。

 00:22:22

🎧 NASA says it hopes to send astronauts on a 10-day trip around the moon as soon as February next year.

美国国家航空航天局表示希望最早于明年2月开展为期10天的绕月载人飞行。

🎧 It's been 50 years since any country has flown a crewed lunar mission and the US Space Agency launched an uncrewed air spacecraft in November of 2022 in a mission which lasted

25 days.

距上次载人登月任务已过去50年，美国航天局于2022年11月发射的无人太空船在轨运行了25天。

▶ And they hope to do it all over again this time with a team of four astronauts on board.

此次他们希望以四名宇航员组成的团队重现壮举。

 00:22:44

▶ They're aim to test the rocket and spacecraft systems to lay the ground for a future lunar landing.

任务旨在测试#火箭#与#航天器#系统，为未来#月球##着陆#奠定基础。

▶ Before I'm this, I'm joined by Leroy Chow, astronaut and former commander of the International Space Station.

节目现场邀请到国际空间站前指令长、#宇航员#勒罗伊·周。

▶ Leroy, how exciting and how significant is this mission?

勒罗伊，此次任务有多令人兴奋？其意义何在？

▶ No, this is an exciting mission because this is the first time any astronauts will have been anywhere near a sister lunar space around the moon since 1972.

这确是一次激动人心的任务，因为这是自1972年以来宇航员首次近距离探访月球轨道。

 00:23:08

▶ So in a way, it is a bit of a repeat of the Apollo 8 mission of 1968 when we first orbited the moon, but they're going to be doing a lot more complex maneuvers doing different kinds of orbits around the moon, doing different kinds of tests.

某种程度上这是对1968年阿波罗8号首次绕月任务的复刻，但此次将进行更复杂的变轨操作、多种绕月轨道飞行及各类测试。

▶ And it's kind of a precursor to another human landing, hopefully in the next few years.

这可视为未来几年内再次载人#着陆#的#前奏#。

▶ So we'll have to see how it goes, but it is an exciting development for sure.

让我们拭目以待，这无疑是激动人心的进展。

bilibili 00:23:36

▶ And why is it important to do this and why is it important then to have the lunar landing mission to follow?

为何此次任务至关重要？后续#月球##着陆#任务又有何意义？

▶ Well, sure.

当然。

▶ There are a lot of reasons to go back to the moon with humans.

人类重返月球有多重意义。

▶ There's a lot of scientific reasons and we want to establish a lunar base, at least a lunar, a human-tended base where astronauts can go and do research.

科学价值重大，我们希望建立月球基地——至少是有人值守的基地供宇航员驻留科研。

bilibili 00:23:54

▶ We would like to establish out the South Pole, whether we believe there's water or there's evidence of water there.

计划在南极区域建站，探测该区域是否存在水或水迹。

▶ We want to develop the technologies, the techniques, and the operations that we can then apply to send a human mission to Mars.

旨在开发相关技术、工艺及操作流程，为载人#火星#任务积累经验。

▶ And so I'm hopeful that we will be getting to Mars in the not too distant future.

因此我#满怀希望#，在不远的#将来#我们终将抵达#火星#。

bilibili 00:24:14

▶ And this is a stepping stone, if you will, along the way.

不妨将这一步视为通往星辰的垫脚石。

▶ It is an important one.

这是至关重要的一步。

▶ We haven't been able to land or we haven't demonstrated the bill to the land, humans on another planet, or a planet like body since 1972.

自1972年以来，我们尚未实现或证明人类能在另一颗行星或类行星天体上着陆的能力。

▶ So we need to learn, relearn how to do that and relearn how to operate in that environment.

因此我们需要学习并重新掌握相关技术，适应那种环境的运作方式。

 00:24:35

▶ And technologies come a long way in that time.

在此期间科技已取得长足进步。

▶ How is that a change when it comes to space travel and potential lunar landings?

这对太空旅行及潜在#月球#着陆任务意味着怎样的变革？

▶ Yes, technology has changed a lot.

是的，科技已发生巨变。

▶ We've learned a lot about working in orbit environments on the International Space Station.

通过国际空间站，我们积累了丰富的#轨道#环境作业经验。

▶ We've learned a lot about other aspects of space and astronomy, but we have to relearn how to go land on something like the moon.

在太空与天文学其他领域也收获颇丰，但必须重新学习如何在月球这类天体着陆。

 00:25:02

▶ We have to learn how to build a base on something like the moon.

还需掌握在月球这类天体建立基地的技术。

▶ So we're going to apply those lessons to Mars.

这些经验将应用于#火星#探索。

▶ And that's the ultimate next goal is to put humans on the surface Mars.

下一阶段终极目标就是让人类踏上#火星#表面。

▶ We had the very exciting announcement by NASA that we had very strong evidence of past life on Mars.

NASA曾发布激动人心的公告，指出存在证明#火星#曾有生命的强有力证据。

▶ But we really need to get some of those samples back to Earth so that scientists can analyze them to see, you know, get a more definitive answer.

但亟需将部分样本带回地球，供科学家分析以获取更确切的答案。

 00:25:30

▶ And the way to do that, one way to do that is with humans.

实现这一目标的途径之一就是依靠人类。

▶ Humans are so adaptable.

人类具有极强的#适应性#。

▶ They're so flexible that we can go and do things that, you know, takes robots a lot longer to do.

#灵活应变#能力让我们能完成机器人需耗时极长的任务。

▶ If we get humans tomorrow, we can get samples back.

若能派遣宇航员，样本回收指日可待。

▶ We can do real time, you know, changes in direction of research.

还能实时调整研究方向。

▶ And we can ask some of those fundamental questions.

更可探索某些根本性问题。

 00:25:54
