Today's report looks at the fires that raged in Turkey, Greece and Cyprus this year, and finds climate change is partly to blame.

今天的报告审视了今年在土耳其、希腊和塞浦路斯肆虐的大火，发现气候变化是部分原因。

 00:16:12

The researchers say it set the conditions for fires by reducing the region's winter rainfall by about 14%.

研究人员称，气候变化通过将该地区冬季降雨量减少约14%而为火灾创造了条件。

They found the scorching temperatures just before the fires were made 13 times more lightly, and the hot, dry and windy conditions that drove the fires spread were made 10 times more lightly, and more than 20% more intense by global warming.

他们发现，火灾发生前的酷热高温因全球变暖而发生的可能性提高了13倍，而推动火势蔓延的炎热、干燥和多风条件发生的可能性提高了10倍，强度增加了20%以上。

And the scientists warn verses to come, unless planet warming emissions are dramatically reduced.

▶ So the first and most important thing to say is that the international evidence, as well as the evidence that we have so far, is that people tend to make pretty good choices.

所以，首先要说的也是最重要的一点是，国际证据以及我们目前掌握的证据都表明，人们往往会做出相当好的选择。

 00:26:33

▶ Last year, 86% of the people we supported sustained a move on out of homelessness and interstate warehousing.

▶ Nobody is claiming that simply giving money directly to homeless people will end homelessness.

没有人声称直接给无家可归者钱就能终结无家可归现象。

 00:27:14

▶ It's a novel way of helping some people on the evidence so far, is that it can work.

这是一种帮助某些人的新颖方式，根据目前的证据来看，它是有效的。

▶ I love you.

我爱你。
