⏮ Medicines Australia says there's added incentive for things to move along.

澳大利亚药品协会表示，现在有额外的动力推动事情进展。

⏮ Of course, we know that the lengthy PBS listing process is one of the long-held gripes of US pharmaceutical companies.

当然，我们知道漫长的PBS列入流程是美国制药公司长期抱怨的问题之一。

⏮ Earlier this year, they pressed Donald Trump to target Australia with punitive tariffs saying the PBS was a gregious and discriminatory.

今年早些时候，他们敦促唐纳德·特朗普对澳大利亚实施惩罚性关税，称PBS是严重且歧视性的。

 00:08:33

⏮ And so, Medicines Australia says if the government implemented the recommendations of this review, that would go some way towards asswaging the concerns of Donald Trump and the US pharmaceutical industry.

因此，澳大利亚药品协会表示，如果政府实施此次审查的建议，将在一定程度上缓解唐纳德·特朗普和美国制药行业的担忧。

⏮ So what's been the government's response to that?

▶ We're living through this turbocharged period of discovery that's bringing more and more new medicines.

▶ And so, making sure we can assess them and approve them very quickly to get them into patience as quickly as possible is something I've said is a real priority for us this term.

因此，确保我们能够快速评估和批准它们，尽快让患者用上，是我所说的本届政府的真正优先事项。

▶ The medicines industry, understandably, I guess, given their interest, want to make prices higher as well.

可以理解的是，考虑到他们的利益，制药行业也希望提高价格。

 00:09:38

▶ So there will be a bit of a debate about how we do that.

因此，关于我们如何做到这一点，将会有一些争论。

▶ But I'm very much on the page of getting medicines more quickly into our system, our PBS system, it's a terrific system and we're trying to make medicines cheaper at the same time for Australians.

但我非常支持让药物更快进入我们的系统，我们的PBS系统，这是一个了不起的系统，同时我们也在努力为澳大利亚人降低药品价格。

⏮ Now, the opposition has accused the federal government of dragging its feet in response to that review.

⏮ The barrister for disgraced New South Wales MP, Gareth Ward says his clients for sexual assault convictions aren't enough to trigger his expulsion from Parliament.

 00:10:22

⏮ The Khammer MP is in prison awaiting sentence but has gone to court to try to stop his colleagues ejecting him.

这位卡默尔议员正在监狱中等待判刑，但已诉诸法庭试图阻止同僚将其驱逐。

⏮ Biscool reporter Nick Dole has more from Sydney.

Biscool记者尼克·多尔从悉尼带来更多报道。

⏮ Well, Gareth Ward was convicted of four sexual offences a couple of weeks ago relating to two men who he met through the course of his work as an MP on the New South Wales

South Coast.

加雷斯·沃德几周前因四项性犯罪被定罪，涉及两名男子，他是在新南威尔士州南海岸担任议员期间认识的。

 00:10:46

⏮ Now, instead of resigning after that conviction, as many of his colleagues hoped he might, he tried to hang on to his job despite being in jail awaiting sentence.

现在，他没有像许多同僚希望的那样在定罪后辞职，而是尽管在监狱中等待判刑，仍试图保住工作。

⏮ So the Parliament began the process on Tuesday or at least hoped to begin the process of expelling him on Tuesday but Gareth Ward went to the Supreme Court and got a Supreme Court injunction.

因此，议会于周二开始或至少希望开始驱逐他的程序，但加雷斯·沃德前往最高法院并获得了一项禁令。

⏮ So the government's managed to get this heard before the Court of Appeal today and so that's where we're at.

因此，政府成功让此案在今天提交至上诉法院审理，这就是目前的进展。

 00:11:14

⏮ So what's Gareth Ward's barrister been arguing today?

那么，加雷斯·沃德的律师今天提出了什么论点？

⏮ Well, Peter King, Mr Ward's barrister has told the Court that a letter to Gareth Ward from the Parliament explaining the expulsion proceedings this week nearly noted that he'd been convicted of four sexual offences.

彼得·金（沃德的律师）向法庭表示，议会本周致沃德的驱逐程序说明信中几乎未提及他已被判四项性侵罪名。

⏮ Now, he's arguing that it should have contained more detail and that because Mr Ward wasn't being told the facts about these sexual offences, the unworthy conduct, you know, hadn't been laid out to him.

他辩称信件应包含更多细节，且因沃德未被告知性侵罪行的具体事实，所谓"不当行为"的指控并未向他明确说明。

⏮ This argument seemed to be met with a fairly unimpressed response from some on the bench.

这一论点似乎遭到了部分法官相当冷淡的回应。

⏮ Chief Justice Bell said, are you seriously saying that being convicted of those offences is not unworthy conduct?

首席法官贝尔反问："你当真认为被判这些罪名不构成不当行为？"

⏮ Mr Ward's barrister said that no listing the convictions themselves that did not amount to unworthy conduct and that his client should have been asked to respond to specific behaviour.

沃德的律师回应称，仅列出定罪本身不构成不当行为，其当事人应有权针对具体行为进行申辩。

 00:12:13

⏮ Another justice justice clerk said that Mr Ward of all people should understand what he's being accused of given that he's just been convicted by a jury and again, Gareth Ward's barrister said that the specific allegations should have been put to his client.

另一位法官助理指出，刚被陪审团定罪的沃德理应清楚指控内容。律师再次强调具体指控应向其当事人明确说明。

他还辩称驱逐沃德将构成惩罚性措施。

⏮ He's called Parliament a kangaroo court in that respect.

他指责议会此举形同"袋鼠法庭"（不公正审判）。

 00:12:37

⏮ He's also saying that because his client plans to appeal the conviction that Parliament should not expel him because if he's ultimately acquitted of this, he would have lost his job, he will have lost everything.

他同时表示，鉴于当事人计划上诉，议会不应驱逐他——若最终无罪，沃德将失去职位和所有一切。

▶ And he's also made the case that because a sentence is still coming, that if Parliament expelled him that would amount to punishment and that could interfere in the sentencing process.

他还提出，由于量刑尚未进行，议会驱逐将构成额外惩罚，可能干扰司法量刑程序。

▶ And Chief Justice Bell said he didn't think there was anything that would impede the sentencing process.

首席法官贝尔表示不认为这会干扰量刑。

▶ So look, it has been somewhat of a difficult day for Gareth Ward's barristers.

今日对沃德的律师团队而言颇为艰难。

▶ For his barrister, he's been told that some of his arguments are extraordinary, that at times he's been boxing at shadows.

法官指其部分论点"离奇荒诞"，有时犹如"与影子搏斗"。

▶ Now what's the government's argument, Nick?

那么政府的论点是什么，尼克？

▶ Look, this is a really interesting case and from the government's perspective and it does present a real dilemma.

此案极具争议性，对政府而言确属两难困境。

 00:13:34

▶ It's arguing that Parliament is not punishing Mr Ward, but protecting itself and its own reputation and it's arguing that it has the right to an expel, to expel an MP for unworthy conduct, which it says Gareth Ward's behaviour clearly is.

政府主张议会并非惩罚沃德，而是维护机构声誉，并有权以"不当行为"驱逐议员——沃德行为显然符合该定义。

⏮ Now the government barrister is also arguing that, you know, Parliament has the power to conduct its own affairs without interference.

政府律师还强调议会应有权不受干涉地处理内部事务。

⏮ And the state government has already made it clear that it believes Parliament has the right to take this action regardless of what the court says.

州政府已明确表示，无论法院如何裁决，议会都有权采取行动。

🎵 00:14:09

⏮ So look, it's hoping to win in court today because that would be the easiest course of action that then hopes to hold a fairly swift vote and have Gareth Ward gone by the end of the week.

政府希望今日胜诉以便快速投票，力争周末前完成驱逐程序。

⏮ But if it doesn't win, it does look likely that the Parliament could try to proceed with this anyway, Ros.

但若败诉，议会仍可能强行推进，罗斯。

谢谢尼克。

⏮ The first witness in the month-long criminal trial of television star Matt Wright is expected to give evidence in the Northern Territory Supreme Court today.

电视明星马特·莱特为期一月的刑事审判今日继续，首名证人将在北领地最高法院作证。

▶ So this morning the prosecutor Jason Galaci has wrapped up his fairly lengthy opening address to the jury.

bilibili 00:15:01

▶ He spoke for about three hours yesterday and didn't quite manage to get through it.

他昨日陈述三小时仍未完成。

▶ But we've heard the last of that opening address this morning and essentially he's just been taking the jury through.

今晨陈词结束时，他已向陪审团详细说明——

▶ In a fair bit of detail, what the exact allegations are against Mr Wright and what each of those three counts of attempting to bervert the course of justice really involve.

针对莱特的具体指控内容及三项妨碍司法罪名的具体构成。

bilibili 00:15:22

▶ And so over the course of that three to four hour opening, we've heard about the details and essentially each of those counts relate to alleged attempts by Mr Wright to obstruct or interfere with investigations both by police and other bodies, including the ATSB and CASA aviation authorities, into the crash back in February of 2022, which as you say resulted in the death of his close friend and outback Wrangler Co-star Chris Wilson and also the very serious injury of the pilot Sebastian Robinson.

在三四小时陈词中，检方详述莱特涉嫌阻碍警方及航空安全局等机构对2022年2月空难调查的细节——该事故致其好友克里斯·威尔逊死亡，飞行员塞巴斯蒂安·罗宾逊重伤。

辯方刚完成简短开案陈述。

🎧 Mr Wright's lawyer David Edwinson gave a much shorter opening address, but essentially he said that Mr Wright emphatically denies the allegations against him.

律师大卫·埃德温森强调莱特坚决否认所有指控。

🎧 Interestingly, he pointed to the fact that there's a very large volume of agreed facts in this case, so things that the parties don't dispute.

值得注意的是，他指出本案存在大量无争议事实。

🎧 And that includes things like the fact that Mr Wright and other people in the aviation industry were involved in things like meddling with things like chopper records which would record the number of hours that choppers fly that was sort of this sort of commonplace practice within the aviation industry and the northern territory.

包括莱特与航空业者篡改直升机飞行记录等行为——辯方称这在北领地航空业属常见做法。

🎧 And that is sort of part of the prosecution's case, but he said that that was all agreed, but really what the prosecution and the defence are talking about is a very narrow amount of evidence that these charges are based on.

虽属检方指控内容，但双方对此无异议——争议焦点其实在于少量核心证据。

🎧 And he said that it would require intellectual rigor on the part of the jury to make their decisions about whether or not they believe beyond reasonable doubt that Mr Wright is, in fact, guilty of the charges and allegations against him.

他表示陪审团需严谨判断检方是否已排除合理怀疑证明莱特有罪。

🎧 He did also make a very strong point of saying that this case and Mr Wright himself have been the subject of ill-informed and scandalous reporting both in the media and online.

他特别强调此案及莱特本人长期遭受媒体不实报道。

minds and to really just focus very carefully on what they see in hearing court.

要求陪审团摒弃庭外信息，仅关注庭审呈现的证据。

▶ And what are we expecting to hear later today, Oli?

今日后续审理有何重点，奥利？

▶ So just a few minutes ago, the first witness in this trial was sworn, yeah, took the appeared in court.

就在几分钟前，本案的第一位证人宣誓并出庭作证。

他的名字是迈克尔·伯恩斯。

▶ He is a prominent businessman and a crocodile farmer here in the northern territory.

他是北领地一位著名的商人和鳄鱼养殖户。

▶ So yeah, he's the first overall potentially about 25 witnesses who could be giving evidence in this trial.

是的，他是本案大约25位证人中的第一位。

 00:17:56

▶ And what we're expecting to hear and what I caught off just as snippet of before, okay, now to speak to you is Michael Burns talking a little bit about the process of egg collecting and the business of crocodile egg collecting, which is what Chris Wilson and Sebastian Robinson were doing that day back in February of 2022 when their chopper went down.

我们预计将听到迈克尔·伯恩斯谈论鳄鱼蛋采集的过程和业务，这正是克里斯·威尔逊和塞巴斯蒂安·罗宾逊在2022年2月直升机坠毁当天所从事的工作。

稍后我们将听到更多来自米克·伯恩斯的证词。

▶ And then we're expecting to hear from other witnesses who are at the scene of the accident.

之后我们还将听取其他事故现场证人的证词。

▶ A former police officer, Neil Melon, is one of those people.

前警官尼尔·梅隆就是其中之一。

▶ And also Sebastian Robinson, the pilot who was injured in that crash, is also expected to be one of the witnesses to give evidence early on in the peace, potentially this afternoon or tomorrow.

此外，在事故中受伤的飞行员塞巴斯蒂安·罗宾逊也预计将在今天下午或明天早些时候作证。

▶ Okay, we'll let you get back in there, Oli, thank you.

好的，奥利，我们让你回到现场，谢谢。

▶ Vesegative reporter Alex Ternicone joins us now with more.

Vesegative记者亚历克斯·特尼科内将为我们带来更多细节。

▶ Alex, what can you tell us about the scheme?

亚历克斯，你能告诉我们关于这个计划的哪些信息？

▶ Yes, so it's very popular among some people.

是的，它在一些人中非常受欢迎。

▶ Two thousand people have put in about 19 million dollars into this idea of an ethical internet.

已有2000人向这个“道德互联网”的概念投入了约1900万美元。

▶ The idea being that people have to have their identities checked for them to be able to use this platform.

其理念是用户必须通过身份验证才能使用该平台。

▶ But the platform still hasn't launched, it's been 12 years in the making.

但该平台仍未上线，已经筹备了12年。

▶ And we've just discovered that the person who's founded this business idea is a new castle man going by the name of David Stryker, but that's not actually his real name.

我们刚刚发现，这个商业理念的创始人是一位纽卡斯尔人，化名大卫·斯特莱克，但这并非他的真名。

▶ It's David Sevelle and he has quite a colorful past.

他的真名是大卫·塞维尔，过去经历相当复杂。

▶ So what are people's concerns about this?

那么人们对此有何担忧？

▶ Yeah, so I mean the concept itself is about an ethical business.

是的，这个概念本身是关于道德商业的。

▶ He's been running moral training sessions in preparation for people on how they should behave when it launches.

他还开设了道德培训课程，教导人们在平台上线后应如何行事。

▶ So you can imagine the concerns that some of them felt when they learned that he wasn't actually using his real name.

因此，当一些人发现他并未使用真名时，他们的担忧可想而知。

▶ That this whole time they thought his name was David Stryker and it's actually David Sevelle.

他们一直以为他叫大卫·斯特莱克，但实际上是大卫·塞维尔。

 00:19:56

⏮ And when you look up the name David Sevelle, he's been known to the authorities previously.

当你查询大卫·塞维尔这个名字时，会发现他此前已被当局关注。

⏮ He ran and managed investment scheme in the Hunter Valley central coast area that left people 13 million dollars out of pocket in the 2000s.

2000年代，他在亨特谷中央海岸地区运营了一个投资计划，导致人们损失了1300万美元。

⏮ And he was actually banned from ever giving financial advice or running an investment scheme again.

他还被禁止再次提供财务建议或运营投资计划。

 00:20:18

⏮ So people are pretty concerned now to learn that this is the man who is behind this ethical internet concept.

因此，当人们发现他就是这个“道德互联网”概念的幕后推手时，感到非常担忧。

⏮ And I know of several people who've made reports to Asik and we've also been looking into the scheme and they've confirmed that they're making preliminary investigations as we speak.

我知道已有几人向ASIC举报，我们也在调查该计划，他们证实目前正在初步调查。

⏮ Alex, thank you.

▶ A damning new report into the state of Queensland schools has revealed that nearly one third of classrooms are not fit for purpose due to crumbling infrastructure.

一份关于昆士兰州学校状况的严厉新报告显示，近三分之一的教室因基础设施老化而无法正常使用。

▶ The news comes after 50,000 Queensland teachers walked off the job yesterday protesting pay and conditions.

此前，5万名昆士兰州教师昨日罢工，抗议薪资和工作条件。

▶ Molly's letterly reports.

莫莉·莱特利报道。

▶ The report was commissioned in 2022 by the previous Labor government and involved a group of independent assessors attending each of the state's more than 1200 facilities.

该报告由前工党政府于2022年委托编写，一组独立评估员走访了该州1200多所学校。

 00:21:11

▶ Now the findings of that report show that there's evidence of water damage, staircases that are unfit for use, termites and roofs caving in at these facilities.

报告结果显示，这些学校存在水渍损坏、楼梯无法使用、白蚁侵蚀和屋顶坍塌等问题。

▶ Now the education minister says that this puts the state in a $414 million repair backlog.

教育部长表示，这导致该州积压了4.14亿美元的维修需求。

▶ He says this is evidence of the previous government under investing in state facilities.

他表示，这证明前政府对州立设施投资不足。

 00:21:34

▶ This report clearly shows that the backlog would not be cleared certainly in one year.

这份报告清楚地表明，积压问题不可能在一年内解决。

▶ Given that it's $441 million, there are elements of the report that show you can have a smoothing of the funding that's needed over the decade.

鉴于金额高达4.41亿美元，报告中有部分内容显示，可以在十年内逐步提供所需资金。

⏮ But it's important to say that Labor needs to answer these questions at the moment before we get on with the job of fixing it.

但重要的是，工党需要先回答这些问题，然后我们才能着手修复。

bilibili 00:21:57

⏮ We're trying to fix a lot of things.

⏮ We're trying to deal with a lot of issues such as the ones I've mentioned, behaviour, bullying, red tape and we're trying to do that and then deal with this infrastructure as issue as well.

我们正在处理许多问题，比如我提到的行为、欺凌、官僚主义等，同时也在努力解决基础设施问题。

⏮ This report was handed down in February, but this is the first the education minister has spoken of it.

该报告于2月发布，但这是教育部长首次谈及此事。

bilibili 00:22:16

⏮ Now this comes after yesterday 50,000 Queensland teachers walked off the job, striking in protest of the conditions they're currently working in.

⏮ Now those teachers are going into meetings with the state government today to continue negotiating a better pay deal.

今天，这些教师将与州政府会面，继续协商更好的薪酬协议。

⏮ Now evidence of the difficult conditions they're working in with infrastructure in these schools being considered poor or very poor will no doubt play a key part in these negotiations today.

学校基础设施状况被评为“差”或“极差”的证据无疑将在今天的谈判中发挥关键作用。

 New laws being introduced in New South Wales Parliament today aim to close a loophole in current legislation around the creation of pornographic deep fake images.

新南威尔士州议会今日提出的新法律旨在填补现行法律中关于制作色情深度伪造图像的漏洞。

 The state government is seeking to make it a crime to create and distribute sexually explicit deep fake or AI generated images of real or identifiable people.

州政府计划将制作和传播真实或可识别人物的色情深度伪造或AI生成图像定为犯罪。

 00:23:06

 It's already a crime to record or distribute explicit images of a person without their consent, but this now extends to deep fake images, making the act punishable by up to three years in prison.

未经同意录制或传播他人露骨图像已是犯罪，现在这一规定扩展至深度伪造图像，最高可判处三年监禁。

 We know that almost all of these deep fake images circulating online are pornographic in nature and almost all of them 98% of them according to reputable reports are of women.

我们知道，几乎所有在网上流传的深度伪造图像都是色情内容，而根据可靠报告，其中98%是女性。

▶ So today we are closing a loophole where we are removing doubt in New South Wales that the creation, the mere creation of a deep fake image using artificial intelligence is a crime.

因此，今天我们正在填补漏洞，明确在新南威尔士州，仅使用人工智能创建深度伪造图像就是犯罪。
