 00:28:21

⏮ If you can believe that can believe anything.

若这都信，万事皆可信。

⏮ And sure to walk seem to be the order of the day.

步行显然已成风尚。

⏮ A new review published in the Lancet has found that walking not 10 but 7,000 steps a day was linked to reducing the risks of heart attacks, strokes, cancer, dementia and depression.

《柳叶刀》新研究指出，日行七千步（非一万）可降低心脏病、中风、癌症、痴呆及抑郁风险。

⏮ It's because once we get to 7,000 steps the incremental increase in health benefits start to diminish.

因为七千步后健康收益的边际效益开始递减。

 00:28:48

⏮ So for most outcomes that we examined there was a much difference between 7,000 steps and 10,000 steps.

就多数观测指标而言，七千与万步差异不大。

⏮ The finding that 7,000 steps a day gives you quite significant health benefits, may surprise many because the recommendation to date has been that 10,000 steps a day is what's required.

日行七千步显著有益健康的结论可能令人惊讶，因既往建议均为万步。

⏮ But scientists say that 10,000 figure was chosen quite randomly.

但科学家称万步目标当初设定相当随意。

 00:29:14

⏮ Back in the 1960s ahead of the Tokyo Olympics a pedometer was launched and named the 10,000 step meter, leading health experts ever since to recommend 10,000 steps a day.

1960年代东京奥运前，一款计步器被命名为“万步计”，此后健康专家便推荐日行万步。

⏮ So how do the walkers feel about this new lower target of 7,000 steps?

⏮ It's great because I used to try and hit the 10,000 by walking into town and it was quite exhausting.

▶ But big contrast elsewhere.

但其他地区大不相同。

▶ Head a bit further south and different skies above disin north.

稍向南行，北部天空截然不同。

▶ So it's been raining on and off for quite a lot of the day across parts of eastern England down towards the southeast as well.

英格兰东部至东南部今日间歇性降雨频繁。

bilibili 00:30:46

▶ Now for most of us the weather will improve over the next few days.

▶ So it's turning a little warmer, drier.

苏格兰和北爱尔兰初期有云致零星降雨。

▶ It'll sink into parts of northern England and Wales.

降雨将南移至英格兰北部和威尔士部分地区。

 00:31:20

▶ Followed by some sunny spells from the north and the west.

随后西北部转晴。

▶ But look at those temperatures for central and eastern England 26 possibly 27 degrees.

但英格兰中部和东部气温将达26甚至27度。

▶ So significantly warmer further north we're looking at the low 20s.

北部则显著凉爽，约20度出头。

▶ Moving ahead then into the weekend and a rich of higher pressure is building from the Atlantic but at the same time we've got that weather front trying to push its way southwards in eastwards.

展望周末，大西洋高压增强，但同时锋面将向东南方向移动。

 00:31:43

▶ So it may just bring a bit more cloud and a few showers on Saturday.

因此周六可能云量增多并有零星阵雨。

▶ The area is most likely to see showers of Scotland, Northern Ireland, eastern England as well.

苏格兰、北爱尔兰及英格兰东部最可能出现阵雨。

▶ But there'll be very few in far between I think and temperatures around 17 to 24 degrees.

但阵雨稀少分散，气温约17至24度。

▶ Second half of the weekend sees similar areas bringing one or two showers.

周末后半段相同地区或有一两场阵雨。

▶ So Northern Ireland, Scotland, eastern England again should be dry towards south and the west of that and temperatures around 16 to 23 degrees.

北爱尔兰、苏格兰和英格兰东部将转干燥，南部和西部气温约16至23度。
